-A very sad and unexpected death occurred at the home of Albert Muttart, Carleton, on Sunday, Feb. 25, 1912, of High A. Toombs of Mayfield. He had been visiting his sister, Mrs. Albert Muttart, and on the previous Monday was taken ill. Medical aid was summoned but he gradually grew worse and on Sunday night he passed away, the cause of death being peritonitis. On Monday afternoon a very impressive service was held, conducted by Rev. Hammond Johnson of Bedeque and the remains were removed to Care Travers station and on Tuesday morning, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Albert Muttart, were forwarded to Hunter River, thence to the home of his brother, Edmund Toombs of Mayfield, for burial. On the following day a large number of relatives and friends assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to one who was highly respected by all who knew him and a very sympathetic and impressive funeral service was held conducted by his pastor, Rev. John Striffling of Cavendish. Deceased was the eldest son of the late John Toombs of Mayfield and was fifty-three years of age and unmarried. He leaves to mourn five brothers and two sisters besides a large circle of relatives and friends. His remains were laid to rest in Cavendish Cemetery.—S.

FATHER VAUGHAN WILL HOLD THE FORT.

NEW YORK, March 4—Piqued by the fearless and effective denunciations of their doctrines delivered from the pulpit of St. Patrick's Cathedral in the course of the Lenten sermons by Rev. Bernard Vaughan, the distinguished Jesuit, the Socialists have undertaken to drive the English preacher out of this country. Every day he receives stacks of anonymous letters, many of them merely abusive, but of late the tone has been changing, and he has been advised to get out of this country as soon as he can. Needless to say Father Vaughan refuses to be disturbed over these manifestations of the anger of the would-be reformers of the social system. In reply to the invitation that "he pack up his luggage and exit immediately to England," Father Vaughan announced that he intends to hold his ground and finish his course of lectures, come what may.

SAYS TORONTO HUSBANDS ARE A MENACE TO SOCIETY.

TORONTO, March 4—If his Satanical Majesty could, in the course of a walk over "his snug little farm" chance to see the Toronto jail, he might, in the language of Coleridge, "get some hints for improving his prisons in Hades." It is the impression obtained from the description of that institution in an evening paper. The paper's informant is not an excited sluttish, fresh horror-stricken by a glimpse of the prison in Toronto, but a man, a police officer, who has seen the tide of vice ebb and flow for a generation; a man who should by this time be as case-hardened as the public which tolerates the conditions he describes.

"Girls in their teens only developing into womanhood, are forced to be the companions of fallen women steeped in sin and vice.

"Bed-ridden women are left practically at the mercy of lunatics, who, in turn, are looked after by a defenceless woman who is herself a prisoner.
