A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, on the 9th inst., when Miss Margaret F. McInnes, of Brantford, became the bride of Onnie McQuillan, Elmwood. The bride wore cream solomel with Irish lace and crystal trimmings and hat to match. She was attended by her sister Miss Tena who also wore cream. The groom was supported by his cousin Andrew McElroy. The nuptial ceremony and Mass were performed by Rev. Dr. Curran, in the presence of a large assembly. After the ceremony the party drove to the home of the groom's parents where breakfast was served. Breakfast over a few hours were pleasantly spent in music, etc., and in the evening the party left for the bride's home where dinner awaited them. Here a number of invited guests were assembled and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The bride and groom are very popular and were the recipients of a number of nice wedding presents. The Guardian extends congratulations.

Will Stanway, who, since his transfer from Charlottetown the latter part of February has been teller-accountant of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Barrington, N. S., is now acting manager during the holidays of Mr. Homer. This speaks highly of Mr. Stanway's ability as he has been less than two years in the bank's service.

A. G. Dollar, Charlottetown Royalty, had a very choice sample of new potatoes and turnips in the market today. The potatoes were of the Barly Rose type and the turnips, the Hassard's Improved. The size and quality of this stock at this early date from the open field shows the rapid growth contained in the soil and climate of Prince Edward Island.

The following from a Fredericton exchange will be of interest in Charlottetown where Mr. Power is known. "Frank Power, of Halifax, is to be the choice for starter at Fredericton's next race meeting. The work of the officials in the stand at the races did not give satisfaction to either the public or the horsemen and the management were out of pocket about $110 owing to two of the blunders which were made."

Competitors in the Fields of Standing Grain, competitions will be at a decided advantage when they wish to sell their Seed Grain. The Department of Agriculture will have information about their grain while it was in the field and will be prepared to recommend what is Extra Good to intending purchasers. Anyone having a field of good oats, wheat or barley would do well to make entry. A Double Fee will be charged after July 30th.
