A DUNDAS correspondent writes:—We have just laid to rest in the Eastern cemetery all that remained of our esteemed friend and citizen Donald J. Mathieson J. P. Dundas, Centre, where he had lived for a number of years in poor health, doing the business of a tailor. Donald was a good practical Christian, a true friend, kind in the relations of life, faithful and painstaking in his calling, and his death at the age of 51 years is regretted by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. He leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters, also brothers and sisters to mourn for one whose work on earth is done, but whose memory will long dwell with us.

THERE passed peacefully away at Graham's Road on the 14th, Christy McLean, relict of the late Donald McKinnon, at the ripe age of ninety-five years. Deceased was a native of the Isle of Skye, Scotland, who with her husband immigrated to this country in 1828. Although she had passed the allotted age, her mental faculties were in no wise impaired. More than fifty years ago she joined the Presbyterian Church and has since then lived and died, trusting in the merits of a Redeemer. Of a family of twelve, two sons, and six daughters survive her, viz, M. McKinnon, Dayton, Oregon; Allan McKinnon, Summerside; Mrs. D. McLeod, Picton, N. S.; Mrs. Chas. Stuart, Victoria West; Mrs. Annie McLeod, Graham's Road; Mrs. Joseph Morrison, Kensington; Mrs. J. W. Newland, New York city; Mrs. W. M. Pickering, Terril, Iowa. The funeral took place on Monday the 17th to Clifton cemetery the services being performed by her pastor Rev. John Murray. The pall bearers were Alex. McLeod, Robert Heaney, M. A. White, Thos. Heaney, John A. McKay and Jas. A. Campbell.

HAMPTON—Miss Mary Inman, "Birchwood" has returned home from Springfield where she has been visiting her aunt Mrs. George Haslam.—Among those leaving for the West on Monday was M. MacDonald of "The Highlands" who goes to Nanton, Alberta, where his brother, Rev. L. R. MacDonald, has resided for a number of years. Previous to his departure, Mr. MacDonald was manager of Barker's branch store at Stellarton, N. S. Many friends wish "Mac" every success in the West.—Miss Claudine Smith has returned to her home at "Pleasant View" after spending a few months in the city.—Steadfast Division is still adding to its members and notwithstanding the severity of the past winter and almost impassable condition of the roads, a large number are present each evening. The visiting committee is kept quite busy owing to the prevalence of the grip among some of the members.—The school is progressing favorably under the efficient management of D. J. Mullin and Miss MacPhail.—Misses Janie McKinnon and Florrie Ferguson left Monday morning for Winnipeg where in the future it is their intention to reside.—The removal of some of the tumble-down buildings has greatly added to the appearance of the village.—Some of the young gentlemen will appreciate this move, owing to the fact that during the past winter it caused more than one of them a trip to the blacksmith.

J. McKENNA, C. P. R. travelling passenger agent, passed through the city to St. John from Montreal yesterday morning. Speaking to a Times reporter Mr. McKenna said imminent travel to the west was very heavy this spring and the prospects were that the record for new arrivals from across the Atlantic would be broken this year. On Sunday there were no less than five train loads of immigrants passing through St. John. Many were on the way out and the Canadian west will have a large influx of settlers this spring.—Moncton Times.

DUNDAS—Abundance of snow still remains testifying to the character of the past winter. In some places the tops of fences are still far beneath the snow. A little hauling has been done; but the time for doing such work was so short that many "best laid plans" had to be abandoned to be executed we trust in the near future. Fodder is scarce but the needy ones have thus far been able to obtain supplies of Government hay or from those who were fortunate enough to have a surplus. Many have been glad to observe that the Government has ordered the hay distributed impartially. This is as it should be. The anonymous letter writer is flourishing here giving his cowardly thrusts in the dark. There are some creatures in the garb of men whose one poor virtue consists in the fact that they are ashamed of their own name. At present the writer will not encroach further on your space except to commend you for your praiseworthy efforts in behalf of our rights as a province of this great Dominion. May you see the result that such zeal deserves, and may our little province soon be in a position to share in the good times enjoyed by the rest of the Dominion.—Com.

FREDERICTON—Howard Weeks who has been very ill with appendicitis is improving, and intends going back soon to the P. E. I. Hospital to undergo an operation. All are pleased to have the blacksmith, Golden Weeks back again. Refuge Division, No. 201 S. O. T. is in a flourishing condition and is still the banner division with 119 members. It has good attendance and good programs most every night. The Excelsior Debating and Literary Society came to a close on the evening of April 15. The meeting was opened by the president R. Hill. The following subject was then taken up and lively discussion for a short time, "Which endures the greater hardship the soldier or the sailor." John Weeks Jr., opened up the debate by taking the side of the soldier He was opposed by Howard Rackham. After a lively discussion the decision was taken when the side of the soldier gained by a large majority. The literary part was as follows:—An address by the president, R. C. Hill; Solo, Miss Hattie Sellick; Recitation, Miss Lillie Morrison; Speech, John Weeks; Reading, Miss A. A. Stevenson; Solo, Miss Myrtle Weeks; Recitation, Andrew Stevenson; Duet, Misses Bertha Stevenson and Hattie Sellick; Speech, Leslie Weeks; Solo, Miss Minnie Weeks; Instrumental music on organ, William McLennan; Speech, H. B. Rackham; Solo, Robert Hill; Speech, Charles McKinnon; Recitation, Frank Ragnall, (encored). The treat which consisted of fruit and confectionery, was then distributed by the committee. A vote of thanks was tendered to the ladies for the part which they had taken in the program. The ladies also tendered a vote of thanks to the members for the splendid treat which they had given them. The meeting then came to a close by singing Auld Lang Syne.
