NARROW ESCAPE - What might have proved a fatal accident occurred yesterday afternoon in front of the Police Station when John Francis, an employee of the street department, was knocked down by the police patrol and received a severe shaking up. He was carried into the station and medical assistance immediately summoned. It was found that no bones were broken but the victim received several cuts and bruises. The accident occurred when a police officer while cranking the patrol, which was unknown to him, "in gear" jumped forward. The officer who was active on his feet, managed to escape, but the victim who had his back to the machine, received the impact. After he was revived and received attention he wished to return to work but the doctor ordered him removed to his home.
