VERCENGETARIX--- GAUL'S HERO

Simply magnificent in conception is the new reel for tonight at New Wonderland. The ancient cities, the old time costumes, the mighty Caesar proud and haughty—the Hero who defies him, and the woman whom Caesar makes the means of humiliating the brave man; and a combination ending—it forms a combination impossible to describe except in the words—One of Pathe's works of Art. See it. Old Aunt Hannah's Cat forms the comedy portion of the program, and a good one too. When the Guarding Angel will be seen for the last time, with F. Louise T. Its singing "When the Moon Plays Peeking the Brave Man" and then the finest programs at the money ever offered to theatre goers here.

PINCHER CREEK OIL AND REFINING COMPANY LTD.

Millions of Barrels of Oil in the Rich Lands of Southern Alberta.

Co., Limited, has begun operations. The Pincher Creek Oil and Refining and are now drilling for oil on their claim in the south-western part of Alberta.

The directors are the most prominent men in that locality, John Herron, M. P., president; E. J. Mitchell, vice-president; J. E. Woods, M. E., director; T. Lebel, Merchant, director; P. C. Hansen-Banker, director; W. R. Dobbie Hotel director; A. C. Kemmis, solicitor; M. D. Couch, secretary treasurer; T. J. Curran, Ass. Sec'y.

The capitalization of the company is five hundred thousand dollars divided into five hundred thousand shares at the par value of one dollar each.

It is conceded that the 1720 acres of oil land controlled by this company is the richest oil land in all southern Alberta.

Millions of barrels of the very best quality of crude petroleum have oozed away from the big seepage on this property into seepage and Oil Creeks, killing the mountain trout for many miles.

To turn this waste into dividends is the sole aim of this company. On this property there is a seepage where the live crude oil is running out of the exposed oil shale bank. Is not such an extensive waste of oil worth controlling? Certainly. The citizens of Pincher Creek, Alberta, think so. This company is not composed of promoters nor is it offering a stock gambling deal. No artificial fluctuations of stock will take place nor the shares be guaranteed to increase until pay oil is struck. There is no promotion's stock. No wages are being paid to anyone. A contract has been let for one well with options on five more to reliable men who will furnish everything and who are now sinking the first well. Pay oil, according to numerous experts, will be struck back of the big seepage at less than 700 feet so that no deep and expensive drilling will be necessary. Already a large block of shares has been sold at par and only one offering will be made. H. Ambrose who is in the East at present is staying for a few days at the Revere Hotel, Charlottetown, and will be able and pleased to give any further particulars to anyone interested, either about the Pincher Creek Oil and Refining Co. Ltd., or about the Province of Alberta.
