NEWS FROM THE FAR EAST

Big Fire at Prodest, Bulgarian Batteries Destroyed.

(Canadian Press) CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 17.—The Bulgarians and Turks were locked in all day during a battle along the lines of the Tchatalja fortifications. Three Bulgarian batteries were destroyed. The sound of firing was distinctly heard in Constantinople.

(Canadian Press) CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 17.—A number of refugees saw the portion of Rodost that has been destroyed by fire. The cholera epidemic has also largely increased.

(Canadian Press) LONDON, Nov. 16.—Bulgaria's terms of peace to Turkey as reported at Vienna and sent from that city by the correspondent of the Daily Telegraph consists of seven stipulations.

(Canadian Press) The fourth demands the surrender of the conquered territory. The fifth calls for the internationalization of Constantinople.

(Canadian Press) The sixth provides for the opening of the Dardanelles and the making of Saloniki a free port. Since Bulgaria already has expressed her willingness to leave the status of Constantinople and Dardanelles to the Powers, says the correspondent, the fifth and sixth clauses of the terms reported here appear improbable.

ADDITION TO BERLIN LIBRARY

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—(Special)—A very valuable addition to the collection of manuscripts in the Royal Library, Berlin has just been made through the generosity of a German residing in England. In April of last year the Royal Library acquired twenty lots at the sale of the collection made by Sir Thomas Phillips, and Sir Max Waechter, who is well known as a champion of an international understanding, purchased the rest of the German manuscripts in the collection and presented them to the German Emperor, who has handed them over to the Royal Library.

Predicted By Prominent Grainman. Grain Moving too Fast

(Canadian Press) WINNIPEG, Nov. 17.—James Caruthers, one of the most prominent grain men of Montreal, predicts a great congestion in the shipment of Canada's export wheat this winter. Buffalo is already ten days behind and all American railways have more orders for grain than they can handle.

CUT OUT SURPLUS FAT AND HUMPHACK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Of the 162 clinics, which have occupied the attention of the 2,600 surgeons attending the third annual session of the clinical congress in this city this week, there were a dozen or more operations so novel, even to physicians, that they will help to establish this as the record session. At the women's hospital Dr. Le Roy Brown assisted by Dr. R. M. Rowley, performed an operation listed as the "opticoomy for redundant fat." The subjects are principally women, usually those whose physical activities are limited.

FACES LABEL SUIT

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 15.—J. L. Backwith, Mayor of Victoria, is being sued for libel by Dr. Sundar Singh, a Hindu, acting on behalf of all the Hindus of the Province. The alleged libel appeared in the Canadian Mail in the form of an interview with Mayor Backwith, in which he is quoted as saying: "Asiatics have come into British Columbia in such numbers that there are Hindu Temples in Victoria and Vancouver. The Hindus are a source of trouble. They are not suited to the country, are immoral and quarrelsome and have not stamina enough to become good workmen."

SURVIVORS DRIET ASHORE.

BARRY'S BAY, Ont., Nov. 15.—The ill-fated Mayflower, the old steamboat which sank on Tuesday night with the loss of nine lives, was located last night in Kaminske Lake, near the neck of the narrows, in twenty feet of water. The cause of the terrible accident was the sudden springing of a leak by the lost spon after entering the lake. Water poured into her stern and she sank fifteen minutes later.
