IN MEMORIAM

MRS. T. J. WIGGINTON

On Friday, June 5th, after a brief illness Mrs. Wigginton, wife of T. J. Wigginton, passed to her eternal reward at their home in Bridgetown, P. E. I. The late Mrs. Wigginton was the daughter of Johnathan Smith of Kingston, P. E. I. She is survived by two brothers, William H. of East Royalty, Charlottetown, and Golden of Cornwall, and two sisters, Bessie, who resides in Ensley, Alabama, and Julia in Boston. She, with her husband, have lived in Bridgetown for nearly 42 years. She was a consistent loyal member of the Methodist Church ever active and ready to further anything that was for the good of the church and the glory of God, taking an active part in the choir, in the Sunday School, and in the Christian Endeavour Society, where she won the love and esteem of all who came in contact with her, and was ever ready to lend a helping hand wherever it was needed for the welfare of the community and the good of her fellowmen. The deceased always made it a point to visit the sick, or those who were in trouble, and take some small token to brighten and cheer their lonely hours. Besides her numerous friends and relatives she leaves to mourn a loving husband, two sons, Wallace of Red Willow, Alberta, and Lorne at home and one daughter, Irene, in Boston. Her remains were followed to the Dundas Cemetery by 107 carriages and 45 automobiles, and her memory will be long cherished by a very large circle of neighbours and friends. She has gone to her reward but her works do follow her.
