PERSONALS

Mrs. H. H. Bishop, of Toronto, and formerly of this city, is spending the week end in Charlottetown, a guest at the Russ.

Mr. C. J. Rankin, of Mt. Aibion leaves this morning on a visit to Sydney.

The many friends of Mrs. Sterling McLean, of Fredericton, will be pleased to learn that she is improving nicely in the Prince County Hospital, where she recently underwent an operation.

AUSTRALIAN LADS ARE LOYAL TO BEAUTY OF THEIR LASSES

Outstanding impressions of the visiting Australian lads, now in Toronto, of this continent as compared with theirs, may be summed up briefly as follows:

Australian girls are prettier than American and Canadian girls. They do not paint or powder so much. Americans hit too hard a pace. They are always in a hurry.

Teeth of people in America are better than those in Australia.

Cafeterias are a revelation to the young visitors.

In an interview with The Star today, Maxwell B. Spurway, 27 Redmyre Rd., Strathfield, Sydney, New South Wales, gives some impressions of the tour of the North American continent with the party of 160 boys of the Young Australian League.

"The founder of our movement," stated Spurway, "is Major J. J. Perth, stated Spurway, "is Major J. J. Perth, Western Australia. He owns the Mirror and Call of that city. Our league is composed of boys from public schools all over Australia, and once in three years they have a world-tour, although annually there are interstate tours through the five Australian states. The great objective of our club is-travel by education.

"EVERYTHING SEEMS QUEER"

"I find things very different here to Sydney. The only place we see snow in New South Wales is in the Blue Mountains, but we had snow today in Ottawa. Your foliage over here is different. Everything seems to be greener. Your cafeterias are a new thing to us. We do not see any of them in Sydney. In fact, your hotel accommodation and methods of catering are altogether different. I think the Canadian and American methods are better.

"What do you think of the girls over here?"

"Our girls are prettier," said Spurway. "The girls in America paint and powder much more than ours do. You very rarely see girls painted and powdered in Sydney the way you do in New York and Montreal."

Two boys from Palmerston, New Zealand, said they found Canada almost the same as home.

"New Zealand is a great sheep country, but so far we have not seen any in Canada. Of course, New Zealand is much smaller than Canada, and very mountainous. So far we have not seen any great mountains in Canada, but we will when we get west. We're looking forward to seeing Toronto. We have heard so much about it. At home in New Zealand we still have saloons, but you don't have any over here."

LOVES THE OPEN SPACES

The great outdoors in all its varied aspects has exercised the strongest appeal to Campbell Kerr, age 14, of Ballarat, Victoria, who confessed to being "the third smallest boy in the outfit."

"To my mind, the greatest pleasure of the entire trip was our trip to Tucson, Arizona," was his opinion. "I

FAREWELL RECEPTION TO MR. AND MRS. THOMAS PALMER, BROOKFIELD

On the evening of Thursday, March 14th, a large number of the residents of Brookfield assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Palmer, to do them honor in the form of a farewell reception.

Mr. Alexander Campbell was elected chairman for the evening.

In a few well chosen words he stated the purpose of the gathering and then called upon Rev. R. Hensley Stavert to read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Palmer.

The following is a copy of the address:

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Palmer, Dear Friends:

Some weeks ago a report was circulated throughout our community, that in the near future you were likely to change your place of abode. We had hoped that when we first heard this that it was not true. But now we know that it is true—all too true. You are indeed making a change and that change we understand is to begin no later than on the morrow.

Some ten years ago you came into our midst as perfect strangers. Because of your general good nature and your heartiness of manner it was not long until we felt that we had known you for years.

In all that pertained to the good of our community and of our church you always took a deep interest. Henceforth both of you will be much missed in all of the different spheres of life.

In realizing that you are indeed going away our one consolation is that what will be our loss is the gain of others.

We wish that in the new community to which you are going that you will be held in as equally high esteem as you have been held here. If so we need not fear for your success and your usefulness.

Before taking your departure we would ask you to kindly accept this small gift as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by us.

We trust that you will value this not so much because of its intrinsic worth, but rather because of the expression of admiration and of good will conveyed by the giving of this from us to you.

And now for the present au revoir but not farewell—as we hope to see you back again from time to time to visit the many old friends here.

As you go in your new home may God's richest blessings ever follow you.

May happiness and good fortune be your constant companions upon life's way. May you have just enough of shadow to make you appreciate the sunshine all the more.

And should it be that in the near or in the far distant future you should decide to come back to reside again in our midst kindly remember that a hearty welcome will be found awaiting you.

Signed in behalf of the residents of the Brookfield congregation.

Just before the close of the reading of the address Mr. Louis McCon presented Mr. and Mrs. Palmer with a well filled purse.

Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire Report on Work Among New Canadians in Province of Alberta

TORONTO, Ont., April 16.—Success in the work of Canadianization being carried on in the Province of Alberta under the auspices of the Imperial Order Daughter of the Empire is recorded in the report received at headquarters here of the I. O. D. E. The work has been in progress for more than a year.

This special work is for the benefit of foreign-born children and their parents, the idea being to teach them British traditions and to aid them in every possible way to become patriotic and valuable citizens of Canada. In order that it should be as efficacious as possible, the Daughters of the Empire in Alberta decided to give special prizes and scholarships to the school teachers in the foreign settlement with the idea of encouraging and inspiring them to add to their already valuable work with these children in the schools.

The members of the I.O.D.E. in Alberta are of opinion that, by means of a sane and sympathetic approach and bearing in mind the valuable contribution many of the new Canadians are making to Canada, they will be able to arouse in them an interest in British ideals and traditions, says the report. In Alberta as in other Prairie Provinces, there are many difficulties to be overcome before an entente cordiale is established, due partly to the fact that these new Canadians of foreign birth have been allowed to settle in communities by themselves where the English language is seldom heard except in the schools. It was an account of these difficulties that the Provincial Chapter of the I.O.D.E. decided to employ, for their purpose, the local teacher, believing that the most effective avenue of approach to the parents would be through the children.

It was found that many of the teachers in these foreign settlements were upon their own initiative and in addition to their regular school-work, quietly doing their share of the Empire building task and had already left their impress upon the conduct and character of the children under their care. With the idea of further encouraging and inspiring them in their efforts the Provincial Chapter instituted a series of special prizes and scholarships to the value of $150 and $30 respectively. The special prize of $150 is awarded upon the recommendation of the local school inspector, for two or more years service in a foreign settlement along this line. Already five

In singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." The rest of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and social intercourse, interspersed with solos by Mr. Gordon McLeod and Mr. Donald Rennie, and a duette by the Misses Catherine and Elizabeth Rennie.

Just before going away all joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne," and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." The singing of the National Anthem then brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

tion in the following subjects:— Special methods of teaching in Non-English schools.

Primary English to pupils of foreign origin.

Industrial art methods for rural schools.

In addition to the above, students are permitted to choose a fourth subject from the regular curriculum which they think would be of the most service to them in their work.

Fifteen teachers have already taken this training and ten scholarships valued at $30.00 each have been awarded.

In addition to these awards, the personal touch is being maintained through the Chapters of the I. O. D. E., who correspond with the teacher and in this way find out means of helping her in her work. Gifts of books and pictures have been found particularly acceptable in the foreign settlements as the only opportunity that the children have of becoming familiar with English literature is in school.

A further development of the work among the foreign-born is the formation of an I. O. D. E. prize fund for the purpose of stimulating and encouraging native arts and handicrafts, several prizes having been awarded.

MALPEQUE

Letters received from Mrs. G. W. Ramsay from her home in England are descriptive of her voyage on the steamship Aurania and enclosed are snaps of interesting episodes on board ship. It is expected that Rev. D. M. Grant will join Mrs. Ramsay her little daughter Eleanor and her party of friends in a sight-seeing tour of many interesting places in London. After twenty years of absence, could anything be more delightful than to re-visit the scenes of one's childhood days and to renew friendships.

Much regret was expressed when it was learned that Mrs. Fred' Bennett had suffered a relapse after her return to her home in Stanley, it is, however, gratifying to know that latest reports are more encouraging.

Mr. Hartwell Crozier leaves on Saturday morning to spend a week end in St. John, N. B., the guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Murchison.

The large number present at the sing song service in Sea View Hall on Sunday evening, April 14th was very encouraging to the members of the "Little Helpers Mission Band" under whose auspices the meeting was held. Mr. H. L. Donald presided and announced the different numbers on the programme. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises followed with Psalm 121 in unison by Mission Band; readings were given by Misses Margaret Blakeney, Jean Donald, Laura Pickering and Mrs. Collin Donald; duet, Messrs A. Blakeney and J. D. Dugan; solo, Miss Pauline Coulson; exercise, by three little girls; male chorus, Sweet Bye and Bye; chorus, Low in the Grave he Lay; Male quartette, Lord I'm Coming Home.

Mr. Robert Hunter, Charlottetown is visiting with friends in Sea View.

Mr. Layton Coulson, Sea View, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Coulson, who had the misfortune of cutting his hand while cutting wood, is making progress towards recovery.

Miss Hazel Bernard, French River, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Edward MacKay, Darnley.

Miss Grace Bernard, Baltic, is spending some time in Sea View—M.

In Memoriam

MRS. JOHN CUMMING

On the morning of Friday, February 8th, Mrs. John Cumming, a very highly respected resident of Milton, passed peacefully away at the ripe old age of 97 years.

The deceased was of a strong rugged constitution and retained all of her faculties up almost to the very last. During the past few years she lived quietly at home enjoying the fruits of a well spent life.

As time went by little by little her once great supply of reserve strength gave way until on the above mentioned date, as quietly and as calmly as a little child sinks into a natural sleep she fell into her last long sleep and her gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight.

Mr. John Cumming, husband of the deceased, passed away about twenty years ago.

Mrs. Cumming now leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother four sons and one daughter.

The sons are Alexander Cumming, Worcester, Mass.; Roderick Cumming, Murrayville, B. C.; John Cumming, Vancouver, B. C. and Daniel Cumming, Milton, and the daughter is Mrs. George Harper Ch'own.

Two sons and one daughter predeceased their mother. The two sons were Murdoch Cumming and James Cumming, and the daughter was Mrs. Wm. Tanton.

The deceased was one of a family of seven. When she was eight years of age her parents came from Scotland and settled at the Head of Montague.

The other members of the family were Alexander McLeod, Donald McLeod and Mrs. Murdoch McIntyre, Head of Montague; Norman McLeod and Duncan McLeod, Cardigan Bridge, and John McLeod, High Bank. Mrs. Cumming was the last surviving member of the family.

The deceased was a lady who was quite widely and favorably known, and will be much missed by a large circle of relatives and friends. Before moving to Milton she lived for quite a number of years at Hopedale, and also for a few years at North Wiltshire. At both places she is still remembered for her kindness and her hospitality.

In times of sickness and of sorrow she was ever ready to give of her best. To her home all worthy company found a hearty welcome and to her many friends the latch string was always out.

For many years she has been a loyal member and a strong supporter of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. In her younger days of health and strength her place in the sanctuary was seldom or never vacant.

The coming of the end had no fears for her. At any time she was ready to welcome the Master's loving call "Faithful one, come home." She passed away in the full assurance of that blessed immortality reserved for those who are faithful unto the end.

The funeral which was a very large one was held on the afternoon of Monday, Feb. 11th. The service was dislike the hurry and clamor of big cities and I was glad to get out into the great open spaces once more." At Tucson the Australians were presented with a desert "burro" as a sort of supplementary mascot to little Norman Law, the tiny drum major.

Prairie Place Names Published

EDMONTON, April 18—(C.P.)—

"Prairie Place Names" is the title of an attractive little booklet by Edna Brown Baker (Mrs. Perren Baker) recently published by the Ryerson press. The author is the wife of Hon. Perren Baker, minister of education, and a member of the Edmonton branch of the Canadian Women's press club.

The book is divided into seven chapters, dealing with the naming of the provinces, prairie towns, memorials to missionaries, names of rivers, mountain passes and hill-tops, lakes and creeks. Starting at home we are told that when John Prudens came to Canada from Edmonton, England, he brought with him a name for the town which later became the capital of Alberta. A brief resume of the early history of the fort is given. Swift Current is a translation of the Indian name of the nearby river, Saskatchewan. Saskatoon of course derived its name from the Saskatoon berries growing along the banks of the river.

Regina honors the name of Victoria the Good. The name of Calgary, meaning "Running Water" was suggested by Col. Macleod. Peace River is so called because at a point known as Peace Point, the Beaver, Knisteneau and a tribe known as "Slaves" met and made peace. "Apparently the 'Slaves' were held in contempt, but the despised ones have left their mark in history for Slave River and Slave Lake bear the name," writes Mrs. Baker.

"The name Assiniboine was sometimes applied to the Stoney Indian. The word means 'those who cook by placing hot stones in water.' Peter Erasmus, who accompanied Dr. Hector through Bow Pass in 1858, says the Indians knew Ghost River as 'the river of the ghost.' They believed that they saw a ghost visiting the many Indian graves along the river, picking up skulls of warriors killed by the Cree."

LAID 339 EGGS IN PULLEY YEAR MAKES A RECORD

SASKATOON, Sask., April 17.—The poultry department of the University of Saskatchewan astonished the poultry world last year with a Barred Plymouth Rock hen that laid 339 eggs in her pullet year. This was a record for a hen of the heavy breed. A daughter of this hen seems likely to beat her mother's record. Hatched on Feb. 23 last year she laid her first on Sept. 3. Up to April 12 she had laid 215 eggs, which is ten more than her mother had laid up to the corresponding date. During November, December and January she laid an egg on 71 consecutive days.

Semite: "Some burglars got into the Sem last night bound me to a chair, and gagged me." Prosh: "Then what did you do?" Semite: "Why, I sat around all night and chewed the rag."

He (under the mistletoe): "Have you ever kissed a man before?" She (ditto): "Y-yes." "Tell me his name so that I can thrash him." "But—but—his might be too many for you."
