IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear sister Louise Adelle Ford who passed away February 13, 1948.

We do not need a special day to bring her to our minds. The days we do not think of her are very hard to find. If all the world was ours to give we'd give it all and more to see the face we miss so much. Come smiling through our door.

Now your days of suffering are over. Now you are free from all care and pain. Fully sleeping with those of your loved ones. Resting in Jesus. Bless be His name. Ever remembered by the family.

Answers Re Control Of Potato Shipments

The following details of the control system now in force with respect to potato shipments to the United States were given in the House of Commons last week in reply to questions by Mr. H. H. Hatfield: Q - Was the Government requested by the authorities at Washington to place an embargo against table stock potatoes entering the United States? If so, on what date was the request made? A - No. However, on October 27, 1948, this Government received a request from the United States Government to discuss the subject of potatoes. We were advised that it was the intention of the United States Government to stop the importation of Canadian potatoes on the grounds that such imports were rendering ineffective the United States price support programme. Realizing that such an embargo would do incalculable injury to our United States market for seed potatoes, this Government pressed for a control system that would not arbitrarily cut off shipments at some early date, but which would allow United States buyers of Canadian certified seed potatoes to take delivery, as is their custom, during the winter or early spring. Q - Did Washington request the Canadian Government to stop certified seed potatoes from entering the United States except on a quota monthly basis? If so, when was this request made? A - No, nor have monthly quotas been established. However, to ensure that Canadian seed potatoes were not channelled into United States table stock markets, the United States authorities have required that shipments of Canadian seed potatoes be restricted in such a way that they shall enter the United States during a period of approximately two months prior to the actual seeding time. This period will vary with the seeding dates of the various States. Q - Will there be any table potatoes allowed shipment to the United States by the Canadian Government of Canada? A - Under what act was the embargo placed on table potatoes shipped from Canada to the United States? A - Table potatoes were placed under export control under the provisions of the Export and Import Permits Act.

DeGaulle Approves North Atlantic Pact

LILLE, France, Feb. 13 (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle Saturday night declared himself in favor of the proposed North Atlantic pact. But he insisted that the alliance be binding on all parties to act automatically in event of aggression against any one of its members. Addressing a congress of his party, Rassemblement du Peuple Français, De Gaulle also warned the present leaders of France that he may take strong action to get them out of power and himself back in. He asserted that if general elections are not held soon, his followers must "oust the usurpers." In another speech today De Gaulle said "there are terrible means which may be employed on the side of justice and liberty by ourselves and our friends if unhappily these ever are put to a test." He did not specify that "terrible means" he had in mind.

Expect Cutbacks In Metal Working Field

CLEVELAND, Feb. 13 (AP)—Curtailed operations in the metalworking field, with more cutbacks expected, were reported today by the magazine Steel. "Unemployment has been rising over the past months with signs pointing to attainment of more normal supply-demand conditions in many lines of consumer goods," the trade journal reported. In the main, however, buyers still find it difficult to fill their requirements, the magazine said. "Here and there supplies are reported freer with the mills giving quicker deliveries and consumers' stock rising," said Steel, "but these instances are exceptional and not typical of the over-all situation." Steel making operations held at 100 per cent of capacity last week, accounting for about 1,843,516 tons.

Prime Minister

(Continued from Page 1) said that there have been plans prepared by some people doing preliminary planning involving a whole network across the north country. And I said that some studies have been put into operation. —Loran (long range aid to navigation) and weather stations. "I did not announce that plans are being discussed by the two countries." Mr. St. Laurent was asked also to amplify his statement Saturday that "planners" have put radar defence programs before the chiefs of staff of both countries. He said he does not know who the "planners" are and that he is unable to say whether the chiefs of staff have actually studied the suggestions. The Prime Minister agreed to an observation by his special assistant, J.W. Pickersill, that "studies" was a better word than "plans" in talking of radar defence matters. He described them as "quite preliminary studies" and added: "I know there were some of these studies which involve very considerable capital investment and considerable personnel." This was in line with his press conference remark that some of the plans, if put into effect, would not leave much money "to do anything else." He was whisked aboard the train before newspaper men could question him again on the cost point.

EXPENSIVE HITCH-HIKING

BERLIN, Feb. 13 (AP)—Edward J. Leda was sentenced Saturday to seven months imprisonment and fined $700 for hitchhiking his way to Berlin to see his German girl friend and their two-year-old baby. The former American paratrooper from Newark, N. J., was convicted by a United States Military Government court. Charges considered "prejudicial to the good order" of the occupation forces. He was acquitted, however, on the most serious charge—illegal entry. "A DATE WITH JUDY" HAS STARS, MUSIC AND HIGH IN NEW MGM TECHNICOLOR HIT It's a hilarity high when Wallace Beery does a hip-breaking rumba with the Latin bombshell Carmen Miranda in "A Date With Judy," now showing at the Prince Edward Theatre. "And that's only one of the many uproarious moments in this delicious musical, which boasts a bevy of M-G-M topnotchers, among them, thrush-throated Jane Powell, fetching Elizabeth Taylor, Robert Stack, and riva, Elizabeth Taylor, and his orchestra, in a romping, song-studded tale of a lucky family and their happy-go-lucky adventures. Beery, in one of his rare excursions into musical comedy, plays the lead of a brood which includes wife Selena Royle, daughter Jane Powell and son Jerry Hunter. Scotty Beckett thinks he has romantic claims on Jane; Jane falls in love with handsome Robert Stack; and riva, Elizabeth Taylor, tries to hijack this applicator. To add to her misery, Jane discovers that her father is keeping mysterious trysts with Sonoria Miranda, unaware that their meetings are for the sole purpose of teaching Beery to master the intricacies of the rumba. But the complications are cheerfully unraveled before the family goes completely to pieces—and it's all done to a cleverly interlarded and delightful musical score. Of the dozen or so songs heard in "A Date With Judy" are "Home Sweet Home," "I'm Strictly On The Corny Side," "Temptation," "Through the Years," "It's a Most Unusual Day" and "Love Is Where You Find It." Jane Powell also scores with the universally-beloved "Home Sweet Home," which Miss Miranda gives her own zest and style to several catchy Latin numbers. Producer Pasternak again reveals the discerning showmanship for which he has become well known with such previous hits as "On an Island With You" and "This Time for Keeps," and the picture has been given expert directorial touches by the veteran Richard Thorpe. "A Date With Judy" will be a happy date for the whole family.

Final Tribute to Mr. J. W. Godfrey

(Halifax Mail-Star, Feb. 8th) Widely mourned in the city where he had long resided and in which he had played many helpful roles, final tribute to John Wilfred Godfrey, K.C., prominent Halifax barrister, will be paid on Monday afternoon. Mr. Godfrey died suddenly last night at his home, 110 Young Avenue, following a day in which he had engaged in his customary round of legal business.

His sudden passing occasioned particular regret among members of the legal profession, in which he had attained a high standing. Speaking for fellow members of the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society this morning, W. C. Dunlop, K.C., President, said: "The Society has suffered a deep loss and the City and Province has lost a worthy citizen."

Mr. Godfrey was well known to many in other parts of the Maritimes and across Canada, both for his work in the profession of law and his role as a former representative of the Maritimes on the Board of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

The funeral will be held from Saint Matthew's Church, where he worshipped for many years and in the congregational life of which he played a leading role. The service will be at 2.30 o'clock and interment will be in Camp Hill Cemetery. In Saint Matthew's he had held various offices and at one time served as chairman of the Board of Trustees.

In paying tribute to Mr. Godfrey's fine personal characteristics and the place he occupied in his profession, Mr. Dunlop said: "The death of Mr. Godfrey comes as a great shock, as only yesterday afternoon I discussed with him, at the Law Courts, a matter concerning real property law, in which branch of the law he was an authority."

"Mr. Godfrey was well known throughout his profession, highly regarded, honorable in all his dealings and his sudden death at a comparatively early age will be deeply regretted."

"Since his call to the Bar he had always taken an active part in the affairs of the Barristers' Society and for many years was a member of the Council and later served as President. In his passing the Society has suffered a deep loss and the City and Province has lost a worthy citizen."
