THE BRIDGETOWN SHOOTING.

BRIDGETOWN, August 7.—A Herald representative has learned from a more authentic source than that of yesterday that the shooting that took place at the Bay shore turns out to be a most uncalculated and careless handling of firearms. Joseph Whithers was not the man shot. Chief of Police McDonald taking Arthur Miller with him instead.

McDonald moved away in the darkness. A few moments later George Guest, a fisherman, on his way to his boat for the day's haul, heard the command in the still morning air.

This he did and just in time to get a shot through the arm close to the shoulder. The people in the place are enraged at this act of western life. Some say that Miller was somewhat mixed up with tanglefoot. Miller explains that the officer told him to stop every man that came his way.

The first after effects of the unfortunate shooting of William Guest, a fisherman on the Bay Shore, by Arthur Miller, of Annapolis Royal, is the rumor resignation of the Chief of Police McDonald, to take place on the 12th of this month. McDonald belongs to Truro, and had recently removed his family to Annapolis Royal.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited, Gentlemen.—In June 98, I had my hand and wrist bitten and badly mangled by a vicious horse. I suffered greatly for several days and the tooth cuts refused to heal until your agent gave me a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT, which I began using. The effect was magical; in live hours the pain had ceased and in two weeks the wounds had completely healed and my hand and arm were as well as ever.
