PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT OFFICE HOURS—The Guardian is in receipt of a letter from "Taxpayer" complaining that one of the highly paid officials in the Provincial Government service fails to put in an appearance at 9 a. m. but is seen wending his way to the office at various hours, evidently to suit his own convenience. The office hours should be strictly observed by all officials.

KELLY'S CROSS C. W. L. The regular monthly meeting of Kelly's Cross Branch of the Catholic Women's League was held on Thursday evening, the fifteenth inst., at the home of the President, Mrs. J. W. McKenna. The meeting was opened in the usual way, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. The case of a family who suffered great loss in the burning of their home, was brought up before the meeting by one of the members, and a committee was appointed to investigate their needs and report at the next meeting. Some discussion took place with regard to some form of entertainment, and it was thought that a Play produced some night during the Christmas season would be welcomed by all. The meeting closed by the singing of "O Canada". During the social hour which followed, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. J. Creamer.

THE GUARANTEED OINTMENT — RELIEVES AND HEALS

The Daily Argument

AUNT HET
BY ROBERT QUILLEN

"If a man sets still when the telephone rings, it ain't because he's indifferent. He just hates to move if it ain't for him, an' he knows his wife's curiosity won't let her set still."

POOR PA

"Jones was so busy he couldn't go back to the old home for his rich uncle's funeral, but he went back when they was settlin' the estate."

SERVICES ENJOYED—Very enjoyable services were held on Sunday at Mt. Stewart, Marshfield and Herrington by the pastor, Dr. M. E. Genge, and the congregations were much pleased with the rendering of duets and solo by Mrs. Lann and Mr. Wendell Phillips of Charlottetown. The call for thank offerings met with a splendid response, and the outlook for these churches is bright. The manse at Marshfield has been renovated and a new furnace installed and everything made comfortable for the pastor and his wife who will move from their residence at Southport to Marshfield for the winter.

FORMER ISLANDER—Dr. R. E. Delaney writes to the Maple Leaf of Los Angeles, Calif.: "I had a pleasant visit recently when I called on Mrs. Margaret L. Dyke, who is a native of Halifax, N. S. She is a daughter of the late Alexander Campbell, and he was a native of Charlottetown. P. E. L., her maiden name being Margaret Massey. Her father and mother were married in Charlottetown, and lived in Toronto, Halifax, and Chicago. They both passed away in Chicago. By the way, Mrs. Margaret Dyke opened me the door (wide open) when I called. I knew she was the daughter of a "blue nose" or one kin of the race. Mrs. Dyke has two grandsons, her late married daughter's children, and it did me good to see the fine motherly love Mrs. Dyke retains for those two boys, one ten, the other twelve years of age. She is a woman of about 70 summers, but looks ten years younger. She lives quite comfortably in Ocean Park. Her husband, who was in the hay and grain business, died 12 years ago. They lived in Albany, N. Y. Mrs. Dyke had been 28 years in the Golden State.

In Memoriam

MR. JOHN T. MAHAR

The death occurred in this city on Tuesday last of John T. Mahar, a well known and highly respected citizen in his 73rd year.

The deceased was for a number of years employed in the C. N. E. shops where by his cheerful and obliging manner he was a general favorite.

Retiring from the service some years ago he opened a grocery which he conducted with marked success until about two years ago, when he disposed of his business.

Although in failing health for some time it was not thought the end was near. He was about town as usual until a week ago when his condition became such that he was confined to his home, but the best medical attention and tender nursing failed and the end came peacefully on Tuesday.

He leaves to mourn three sisters, Eliza, Sarah, and Joan, and three brothers, Jeremiah, James and Patrick. His wife predeceased him eight years ago.

The funeral was held yesterday morning from his late residence, 8 Longworth Avenue to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Right Reverend Monsignor Maurice McDonnell. The pallbearers were Messrs W. A. Rice, G. H. Murphy, Thomas Gillan, Edward Dowling, John Trainor and Ex-Sheriff Dougan.

Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Matthew Smith.
