

GILLETT'S GOODS ARE THE BEST!

MAGIC BAKING POWDER
GILLETT'S PERFUMED LYE
GILLETT'S CREAM TARTAR.

When your dealer, in filling your order for any of above goods, reaches for a substitute, STOP HIM. That is the time to do it. It is too late when you get home, and the package opened, partially used and found wanting, as is generally the case with substitutes.

There are many reasons why you should ask for the above well advertised articles, but absolutely none why you should let a substituting dealer palm off something which he claims to be "just as good," or "better" or "the same thing" as the article you ask for.

The buying public recognize the superior quality of well advertised and standard articles like Gillett's goods. The substituter realizes this fact and tries to sell inferior goods on the advertiser's reputation.

S. S. LESSON. MAY 17. JESUS BETRAYED AND DENIED. JOHN 18: 1-27. GOLDEN TEXT. Memorize verses 2, 3.

"Jesus said unto them, The Son of Man shall be betrayed into the hands of men."—Matt. 17: 22. Time.—Wednesday morning early, April 5. A. D. 30. Place.—Gethsemane and Courtyard of Annas.

The Parody of Judas, 1-3. Jesus longed to meet the Father in prayer. The awful weight of agony was crushing him (Matt. 26: 38). But he must strengthen the disciples and fortify them against the coming trial. To this he attended first. But now this work was done. The necessary words had been spoken, the wondrous prayer that made their safety had been offered, and Jesus goes forth to the garden where he shall meet the Father in prayer and get the strength needed to insure him victory in his last great conflict. This garden was a place of frequent resort for our Lord. It was a chosen sanctuary where he met the Father. Those who knew him best knew that this retired place of prayer was the likeliest place to find him at that time of night (v. 31).

H. Jesus Protecting His Own, 4-9. Jesus knew that at last the awful hour that he had so long looked forward to with sorrow un-speakable had come. He knew all that was coming upon him, but he did not shrink. He "went forth" with steady and undaunted heart. He put to Judas and his band a question that had more in it than appears on the surface. "Whom seek ye?" "Jesus of Nazareth," is the quick response. Little did they realize who he was whom they sought to capture and destroy. There are five words of awful sadness in this fifth verse, "Judas was standing with them." Think of it! He who has been a chosen apostle standing with the enemies of his Lord! So to-day there are many standing with the enemies of Jesus whom one would naturally expect to be standing by the side of Jesus. Judas standing there is an illustration of brazen effrontery. But Judas does not long remain standing. With majestic calmness and dignity Jesus simply says, "I am he," and Judas and his hellish crew go backwards and fall to the ground. Augustine well asks in commenting upon this verse, "What will he do when he comes as a judge, if he did this when given himself up as a prisoner?" But while delivering himself up he said to his disciples, "Not one of them shall be lost (v. 2, R. V.). And he knows that they are not strong enough, yet to stand the test of arrest and martyrdom (ch. 13: 36). Peter following his Lord at this time got himself into trouble. Furthermore, he had followed his Lord afar off (Matt. 27: 58). If we follow Jesus at all we should follow close. Jesus had warned him of his weakness and the coming fall (ch. 13: 38). Furthermore, just before this he had given his disciples a hint that they were to go away (v. 8). He had told Peter on the preceding evening that he could not follow him at this time, but that he should later (ch. 13: 36). But Peter had turned a deaf ear to all this. He had asked, "Why cannot I follow thee now?" and started out to do so against the Lord's warning. He had boasted, "I will lay down my life for thy sake" (ch. 13: 37) and now undertakes to make good his boast and then they too shall have the horror of arrest and martyrdom (ch. 13: 36).

See and hear the new Edison model with the big horn at the nearest Edison store, or send for a complete catalogue describing it.

We Desire Good, Live Dealers to sell Edison Phonographs in every town where we are not now well represented. Dealers having established stores should write at once to
