

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

The latest news, first of all. E. R. Brown, Charlottetown, is in Souris on a business trip. Work has commenced on the construction of J. J. Hughes' new store, Souris. The people of Souris are glad that the incorporation bill has been passed, as they will now get the benefit of their taxes. H. and Mrs. Warwick have arrived at Fortune Bay and are pleasantly settled in their beautiful home on the river-front. Mr. Meyers, who has been the guest of Robert and Mrs. Dingwell, Fortune Bay, for some weeks, is actively engaged superintending several additions to his summer home at Abel's Cape. Mr. Meyers has much enjoyed the fine weather and balmy air since he arrived in Fortune.

THE HOME PHYSICIAN

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Cure Most of the Family's Ills.

Perhaps if the children, and the "grown-ups" too, always ate exactly the right quantities of exactly the right things, at just the proper times, and a very other way beyond the rules of health, there would be no sickness in the family, and no need of medicine. But they never have and probably never will, so in every family there are sure to be more or less frequent attacks of sick headache, indigestion, constipation, and dizziness and liver troubles, and occasionally some one is "sick in bed". It is worth a good deal to the mother, then, to have on hand that perfectly safe and reliable remedy for these ills—

This Little Box is Mother's Stand-by.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They investigate those organs which cleanse the body of waste and impurities, regulating the bowels, stimulating the kidneys and opening the pores of the skin. Thus Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are the common ailments and keep the family healthy. This they have been doing for over half a century in every part of the world. 25c. at all dealers or from W. H. LONGING.

Can this be Summer, though the gentle heat Has swept the roses on a wind of June. And borne their fragrance to my aimless feet That go unheeding 'neath a ghostly moon? And all the poplars vague and motionless, And all the lights soft in a silver-gray; Can this be so, and with such loveliness,— Can this be Summer, dear, with you away? So hushed, so quiet where the shadows throng Across the pool between the star-lights' stain, Watching in silence all the still night long, Watching in silence and for you in vain. Summer and starlight and an hour grown late,— And you who will not come, and I who wait! —Thos. S. Jones, Jr.

IMMIGRANT RUSH OVER THE I. C. R.

Record Number of Trains in the Past Month. The rush of immigrants has kept the Intercolonial officials busy providing means of transportation, and although the demand for trains has been large there has been no delay in this respect. So far this season there has been despatched from Halifax thirty-five more special trains than for the same period last year. Last week there were several trains daily through Moncton. That this season will be a record one for the number of immigrants landed in Halifax from Europe and despatched over the I. C. R. en route west, is quite evident. The new settlers are being rushed in during the last few weeks. For the past two months all the passenger steamers have been bringing large numbers of passengers and every boat bringing a few more than the one that preceded her. Last week was the busiest yet, about 5,000 passengers having been landed at Halifax, and sent forward to their destinations. The immigration and railway officials have been kept busy and the immigrants have received quick despatch. The Italian steamer Campania is now on her way to Halifax with about 2,000 and will be due this week. A large number of passengers will be landed at Halifax, and the remainder taken on the NEW ILLA.

CLINTON CORRESPONDENCE.

A correspondent from Clinton writes:—Many of the people of Clinton are busily engaged helping Mr. Pickering erect his barn, which was blown down by the recent strong winds. Miss Mabel Warren spent Sunday in Kensington, the guest of Miss Carrie Lowther. Miss Katherine Mountain, Margate, is kept quite busy sewing in Clinton. Many of the people in this vicinity are sick with bad colds and la-grippe. Mrs. George Woodside is improving nicely after her recent illness. Miss Sadie Woodside spent her Easter holidays at her home in Clinton. Some of the farmers of Clinton have already started to cultivate their land.

METHODIST TRANSFERS.

A despatch from Toronto states that the transfer committee of the Methodist Church has made the following changes:—Rev. C. H. Johnson, Nova Scotia, to Alberta; Rev. F. A. LONG STANDING SCIATICA

Completely Cured by One Box of Father Morrissey's No. 7 Tablets.

Sciatica is hard enough to endure, and harder still to cure, in many cases, with ordinary remedies. Caused, like rheumatism, by impurities in the blood, which in this case set up an irritation of the sciatic nerve, it is so difficult to get at with external applications that many sufferers try in vain to get relief. Mr. Charles McEachern, of Summersville, P.E.I., was in just that position until he started to take Father Morrissey's "No. 7." He writes: "After trying several doctors and spending large sums of money without avail, I was completely cured of Sciatica of long standing after using one package of your Medicine (No. 7 for Rheumatism)." No matter how long you have suffered from Sciatica or Rheumatism of joints or muscles—no matter how much medicine or liniment you have used without result—try Father Morrissey's No. 7 before you give up. It has restored health to many who were almost hopeless. 50c. a box at your dealer's or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Chatham, N.B.

DEATH OF MISS ELIZABETH GILLIS.

There departed this life at her home at Hartsville, on March 28th, 1910, Elizabeth May, youngest daughter of the late John Gillis, at the early age of 28 years. Although in failing health for some time, she continued to manifest a cheerful disposition, a true Christian character, and an unflinching faith in her Savior. She will be greatly missed in her home, in the community, and in the large circle of her friends, both at home and abroad. Her life, although comparatively short, was full of service for her Master, and all who visited her during her illness could not escape her impressive prayer for his earnest prayers which were so marvellously answered, and her enthusiastic thanksgiving for salvation received. She leaves to mourn her mother, step-father, Roderick Gillis, and a sister, Flora, of Brookline, Mass. A very impressive funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. S. McDougall and although the roads were almost impassable a goodly number assembled from far and near to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed.

ROOSEVELT BEFORE THE SPHINX.

(W. J. Lampton in N. Y. Sun.) O Sphinx, Methinks As here I stand Upon the shifting sand And contemplate Thy silent state— A silence so profound That sound, all sound, Drops dead before thy face, And in the noiseless space About thee like a cloud Hangs nothing loud— I say, O Sphinx, Methinks, As here I stand Upon this shifting sand And hear no voice like mine From these dried lips of thine, Nor has man ever heard One word From thee— I say, O Sphinx, By jinks, You ain't a bit like me, Are you? (And the Sphinx goes on sphinxing.)

THE KING'S QUESTION.

(Vancouver Province.) Evidence that William IV. fulfilled the saying "Once a sailor, always a sailor," is found in Leaves from the Journal of Sir George Smart. In 1834 Sir George presided over the musical festival in Westminster Abbey. The King and Queen Adelaide were present, and the king, as was his wont, slumbered peacefully whenever the music was sufficiently soft to permit it. While the duet for basses was being sung in Israel in Egypt the queen woke him up suddenly by remarking: "What a fine duet. 'The Lord is a Man of War!'" The king not thoroughly awake, caught only the last words. "How many guns does it carry?" he asked.
