Asthma is Torture. No one who hasn't gasped for breath in the power of asthma knows what such suffering is. Thousands do know, however, from experience how immeasurable is the relief provided by that marvellous preparation, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. For years it has been relieving the most severe cases. If you are a sufferer do not delay a day in securing this remedy from your druggist.

When Buying Shoes

- FIRST—Find a good reliable shoe store with an established reputation behind it, whose every clerk has an ambition for fit rather than high pressure salesmanship. SECOND—Weigh well the salesman's advice as to fit and quality, fashion, etc., remembering that a qualified shoeman knows more about these than a layman. THIRD—Buy quality goods and be willing to pay a reasonable price for truly, it is the persistent bargain hunter that usually gets stuck. FOURTH—Stick by the people that try to give satisfaction by looking after your interests as well as their own.

IN MEMORIAM

ELIZABETH E. HOWATT

On Sunday evening June 9th., after some months of failing health Miss Elizabeth Howatt, passed peacefully to rest. She had been totally blind for nearly two years, but had been up and about the home, until the last three weeks when she was confined to her bed. For the last six years, Miss Howatt had made her home with her niece, Mrs. Austin Cameron of Augustine Cove, where she received every care and attention. Miss Howatt was a daughter of the late Alexander Howatt of Tryon, where she was born in 1849. She is survived by one brother, Charles S. Howatt, of Spokane, Wash., and a large connection of nieces and nephews and their families. The funeral was conducted at her late home on Tuesday afternoon, June 11th, by Rev. Ewen MacDougall of Charlottetown, who spoke very helpfully from John's Gospel, at the fourteenth chapter—A Scripture to which the deceased had referred a few days before as food for the soul. Favorite hymns were sung by Tryon United Church Choir, and Miss Mary Muttart of Cape Traverse, sang, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Burial was in the Presbyterian Cemetery at North Tryon, Lewis Howatt, Russell Howatt, Edward Boswell and Lewis Muttart were the pall-bearers.

Why are we able to supply our discriminating customers with monuments of superior quality and workmanship at prices below those demanded for monuments of inferior quality and workmanship? BECAUSE Ours is the only plant on Prince Edward Island equipped with Polishing Machine and Pneumatic Tools of the most modern type for cutting and carving. One qualified tradesman, with the aid of this equipment, can turn out more finished work than three men using the old hand tools—hammer and chisel. This modern equipment enables us to buy our stock direct from the quarries by car load lots and we are thus afforded a large saving in duty, freight, etc. The rough stock is placed in the hands of tradesmen qualified to take their place in any American shop and we might add the only tradesmen in the Province capable of creating from the rough stone a beautiful, finished memorial. Our large turnover has reduced our selling cost to a minimum. We have salesmen it is true, what up-to-date business has not? If you desire a Monument that will stand the inspection of experts we are ready to serve you. The customer, wishing a small-simple memorial receives the same first class material and workmanship as those desiring one of the most elaborate and costly. Visit our showrooms before you buy, or view our work in the cemeteries and make your own comparisons.
