BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Thursday evening, Dec. 4th, a joint birthday party for Miss Edna Godfrey and Miss Stella Smith was held at the home of Mr. Wm. Mitchell, North Wiltshire. Quite a number of young people were present and the evening was spent with games and singing. An excellent supper was provided by the genial hostess Mrs. Elijah Mitchell. After partaking of the dainties the people dispersed by wishing the young ladies many happy returns of the day and that they might have one twice a year.

A CHRISTMAS EXHIBIT.—Citizens will not forget that the sale of work by the Convalescent soldiers at the Rena McLean Memorial Hospital takes place this afternoon. The present exhibit, both in quantity and quality is far ahead of anything yet shown in this institution and as the sale comes off so near the Christmas season it will afford the double opportunity of securing a really beautiful Christmas present and of helping the soldiers. No doubt there will be a large attendance and there is sure on sale, so the advantages to the "early bird" require no restatement. To be a big demand for the articles

WEDDING BELLS.—A wedding of much interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryenton, Union Road, October 22 when their daughter Lillian Winifred, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry William Newman one of Kingston's prosperous young farmers. Upwards of fifty guests, relatives of the immediate families witnessed the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. F. H. Littlejohns. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. At 7.15 the bride was looked very attractive in her dress of white silk with beaded trimming, carrying a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas, and maiden hair fern, entered the parlor on the arm of her father, and took her place under an arch prettily decorated with colored maple leaves, flowers and large wedding bells. She was attended by her little cousin, Hazel Bryenton who acted as flower girl. Little Miss Bryenton looked very sweet in her white silk dress, with basket of beautiful flowers. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Littlejohns. After congratulations were extended to the happy couple, the guests were invited to partake of a delightful wedding supper served in Mrs. Bryenton's best style. The high esteem of the many friends for the happy couple was shown by the numerous presents and gifts received, which included a cabinet of silver from the brides brother, also a beautiful parlor table from Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bryenton, beside several substantial cheques. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold pendant, and to the little flower girl, a pretty bracelet. The uninvited guests, dressed in fantastic costumes arrived about 9 o'clock, making their presence both heard and felt and added greatly to the merriment of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bryenton, besides seven to take up their residence at Kingston and the good wishes of a host of friends will follow them. Previous to her marriage the bride was given two miscellaneous showers by the many people of Union and Brackley.—Patriot please copy.
