Carnegy-Beaumont Wedding

An interesting ceremony in Grace Church on-the-Hill, Toronto, was the marriage of Jane Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Beaumont, Caledon, to Mr. Stanley Scott Carnegy, Oakville, son of Rev. Charles Carnegy and Mrs. Carnegy, Summerside, P.E.I. Rev. Frank D. Lockwood officiated, assisted by the groom's father.

An Empire gown of herloom lace was worn by the bride, whose father gave her in marriage. The bodice was tight, and the full skirt formed a circular train. She wore her mother's sunburst, and carried a white prayer book. Her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Turner, matron of honor, Mrs. Gerald Evans, also a sister, and Miss Marnie Ireland chose hyacinth blue taffeta gowns, made with shawl collars and full skirts. The flower girl, Miss Marilyn Carnegy, niece of the groom, was also frocked in taffeta. All had small matching hats, and carried peach gladioli. Mr. Keith Carnegy was groomsman for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Robert Carnegy and Mr. Tom Harling. — Toronto Globe and Mail.

Alberton

Mrs. T. B. Woodman was a recent guest at the home of Mrs. Herbert Champion.

Mrs. Webster Metherall spent the week end in Alberton the guest of her aunt, Miss Kate Woodman.

Mrs. Ivan Duvar, Montague, Mrs. Arthur Duvar and Mrs. Fenton, Cambridge, Mass., recently enjoyed a brief stay in Alberton, the guests of the Misses Woodman.

The forty-hours devotions, which opened on Sunday at the Sacred Heart Church, was brought to a close on Tuesday evening with Benediction by the pastor, Rev. W. Monaghan.

Mrs. J. W. Gillis, Trench accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. M. Doucette of Montreal, Que., spent a couple of days in Alberton the earlier part of the week, the guests of Misses Tena and Mary Gillis.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barbour of Cambridge, Mass., were recent visitors to Alberton. Mr. Barbour has purchased a summer home in Fortune Cove near Mrs. Barbour's old home—the Hunter-Duvar property.

Captain M. J. MacLean and Mrs. MacLean made a flying trip to Alberton last Sunday when they visited Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Leard. Captain MacLean was in charge of the R. C. A. F. crash boat stationed at the Alberton wharf in 1945 and while there he made many friends who were pleased "to meet up" with him during his brief visit here.

Mr. James White and son Claude returned to their home in Enfield, N.S., on Monday after a very pleasant stay in Alberton where they visited Mr. James White's mother, Mrs. Michael White, also Mrs. George Gallant.

Miss Bertha Bowness, Montrose, accompanied by her sister, Miss Beatrice Bowness of Ottawa, Ont., recently motored to Charlottetown, where they were the week end guests of their cousin, Mrs. Erskine Haywood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Callaghan had as their guests the past week, Mrs. Lamont and son Paul of Bath, Maine, Miss Mary McLean of Boston, Mass., and Miss Connie Murphy of Bath, Maine.

Sept. 20th brought deep sorrow to the family and friends of Mr. Lloyd O'Brien when it was learned that he had been killed in an accident near Foxboro, Ont. Citizens of Alberton sympathize with his family and friends in their great loss.

The Sacrament of Confirmation was administered to fifty-eight children by His Excellency Bishop Boyle at the Sacred Heart Church, Alberton on last Monday morning at 8.30. The altar was prettily decorated with flowers and appropriate hymns were beautifully rendered by the choir under the direction of Miss Theima Ahearn.

Mrs. C. R. Leard recently returned from an extended visit to Upper Canada, where she was the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. E. Edmonds and Mrs. Edmonds at Bristol, Que. While on her holiday Mrs. Leard also visited the Thousand Islands, around which she enjoyed a boating, Lake Placid, Santa's Workshop and up White Face Mountain, also Tupper Lake, New York where she was the guest of Mrs. Fred Oberlander.

Another well attended dance was recently held in Clark's new warehouse when music for round dancing was provided by Ted Ahearn's Orchestra and for square dances by Getson's Orchestra. This large potato warehouse is of modern frostproof construction. The size of the foundation is thirty six by sixty feet. The basement contains fourteen bins with a capacity of one thousand bushels each, the ground floor will hold about twelve thousand bushels in bags and the top floor will hold eight or nine thousand bushels. This total capacity of thirty-four or thirty-five thousand bushels is equal to about forty-five carloads of potatoes. Heat is spent during construction of the fine warehouse for potatoes was Mr. Maurice FitzGerald of Richmond. Electric wiring was done by Mr. A. J. Bernard of Alberton.
