Sea View And Vicinity

Miss Marion Pickering is spending some time with friends in Summerside.
 Miss Evelyn Donald is spending her Christmas holidays at her home in Sea View.
 Miss Evelyn McLeod is spending some time in Summerside where she is employed with friends.
 Miss Jean McKay is spending a pleasant visit in Long River the guest of Miss Marguarite Paynter.
 Mr and Mrs. George Cole, Clifton were recent visitors to Baltic the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cousins.
 Miss Laura Adams spent a pleasant visit recently the guest of her sister Mrs. Lyle Crozier and other friends in Sea View.
 Mr and Mrs. Fred W. Donald and little son Clifford spent Christmas in Graham's Road, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brown.
 Mr. Reginald Hiltz, although somewhat improved after an attack of flu and pneumonia is not regaining his health as quickly as his many friends would wish to see.
 Christmas day dawned bright and clear and good sleighing and a great many family gatherings to celebrate this great day the birth of the King of Peace and the Saviour of the world.
 Mr. Reginald Mountain and Mr. Chester Mountain have returned to Halifax to resume their employment after spending the Christmas holidays at their different homes.

Mr. John S. Cousins has returned to his home after spending a few days in Baltic where he attended the funeral of his brother the late Mr. James Cousins.
 Mr. Harris Blakaney the obliging and courteous mail driver from Kensington to Burlington Park Corner, French River, Sea View was agreeably surprised when he was presented with a nice gift from the many box-holders of his route in appreciation of his many kindnesses. Mr. Blakaney expressed his thanks to all for their great kindness in remembering him at this time.

The sympathy of many friends is extended to Mr. John Campbell and family of Irishmen in the passing on Sunday the 22nd of the wife and mother from this home. The parting was particularly hard especially at this Christmas season. The deceased was highly esteemed and by her genial and kindly disposition made a host of friends who deeply deplore her passing.
 Mr. Robert Sutherland returned home after taking his little son John to Moncton City Hospital where the little chap underwent a serious operation for an abscess in his hip. Mrs. Sutherland is still in Moncton, N. B. to be near her little son. The operation was quite successful and at latest word he was doing as well as could be expected many friends trust he will soon recover and be able to return to his home.

The sympathy of many friends is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Anson Champion of Darnley in the passing of their little daughter Elsie aged 6 years at their home on Sunday, Dec. 22nd. The little daughter had been in failing health for some time but the end came quite unexpectedly and the parting was made harder as it was on the eve of Christmas when preparations were being made for Santa to come. But she was called to a fairer brighter home where there will be no more suffering for little Elsie. The deceased was of a sweet lovable disposition and will be sadly missed in the home by her little brothers and sisters to whom she was greatly devoted. The funeral service was conducted on Monday in the Presbyterian Church at Malpeque, and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Crowdis and was largely attended by sympathizing friends. At the close of the service the remains were borne to the near by cemetery at Malpeque and there laid to rest in the family plot there. The pall-bearers were George Wall, John Wall, Harry Champion and Vernon Champion. Safe In The Arms of Jesus, Safe On His gentle breast.

The Darnley Christmas concert was held in Darnley Hall on Friday evening. A large number were in attendance, the hall was prettily decorated with evergreens and Christmas decorations. A prettily decorated tree adorned the platform laden with parcels of different kinds. Mr. Bruce Crozier presided and a splendid programme of readings, etc. was then carried out. Chorus, Christmas Eve, Welcome, Etta Mountain, Merry Christmas Exercise, Primary Pupils, Dialogue, Wonderful Scholars Solo, Enoch Crozier, Recitation, Shirley MacGregor, Drill, March To The Christmas Tree Dialogue, How Jimmie Saved Pa. Duet, Edythe and Rose Thompson, Monologue, Merle Crozier, Intermission, Sale of Christmas Goods, Our Barre, Folks, Candy Chorus, Our Barre, Folks, Senior Pupils Dialogue, Cousin Imagine's Dinner, Recitation, The Crozier, Drill, Red, White and Blue, by Senior Pupils, Drill, Christmas His, Primary Pupils Solo, Rose Thompson, Dialogue, Josiah's First Courting, Duet, Joyce and Jean McKay, Recitation, Carl Crozier and Virgene Crozier, Chorus, Song of Christmas Day. The next number was the distribution of gifts from the tree to all the pupils and teachers, after which the drawing for the lucky ticket for the fruit cake donated by the Darnley W. I. The lucky ticket was held by Mr. Dan Champion who received the cake amid great applause. The singing of the National Anthem brought this splendid gathering to a close.

Bristol And Vicinity

Mrs. Charles Mosher is able to be out again after her attack of flu.
 Miss Ella Lapierre spent a few days in the city last week with friends.
 Mrs. James A. O'Brien, is confined to her room with an attack of the flu.
 The Laybolt family moved to Halifax last week. Mr. and Mrs. Laybolt having gone some time ago.
 Mr. Lester McVarish left last week for Halifax where he expects to be employed for a few months at least.
 Old timers here regret to hear of the death in Milburn, of Louis Moore who was around the ninety mark.
 Mrs. David Laybolt, left Saturday for the mainland with her husband who was returning to his army post of duty.
 Many friends here will regret to hear of the serious illness of Mr. Alex McKenzie, Scotford whose is reported quite serious.
 Mr. John McEwen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McEwen, left recently for the mainland being called to the army there.
 Sympathy of this vicinity also goes out to Mr. Frank Jay and family Mount Stewart, in the passing of Mrs. Jay, at an early age on Saturday.

Service for the last Sunday of the year was conducted in Lot 40 United Church at 7 P. M. by Rev. Sydney J. Boyce, B. A., Mount Stewart.
 The big task of getting wood for the next year started here last week while the roads were good, but there is very poor hauling in the woods owing to lack of most before the snow fell.

Very few rabbits were snared in this vicinity this fall. One is led to the belief that the increasing number of dogs running through the woods is the cause of the lack of those white-fox dinners.
 Mr. Clifford S. McEwen who arrived home Christmas eve left again for the airport at Debert, where he is employed. Mr. McEwen reports pleasant work and a great calling for men in the Lumber woods.

Friends here and in Morell will be pleased to see Miss Kathleen McDonald, out again after her very serious illness for two months. Miss McDonald will enter the Hospital shortly to have her tonsils removed.
 Mr. Jack Keefe who was employed at Debert for some time arrived home last week. Also with him was Ed. Byrne. The men were employed as carpenters on the big work and expect to be called back this week.

The mild weather came as a relief to car drivers who have been using the paved highway, while farmers are complaining of no road for sleighs. Cars are also moving on many parts of the dirt roads and by-roads.
 Now that the new year is at hand the question is often asked in the event of an accident, where a car or two is involved, is the car bearing number plates or not in the wrong? Is he driving a car with license that has expired. Speak up someone who knows?
 Many friends of Mrs. Bruce McEwen, Morell, will learn with regret of her very serious illness in the P. E. Island Hospital. Mrs. McEwen, was given a blood transfusion last week several young men including her son, Heber offering their blood. His friends also regret the illness of Mr. Bruce McEwen, at his home in Morell.

Smelt fishing in the river is reported picking up with some very good catches. Fishermen are at present selling smelt at 3 1-4 cents per pound right from the net big and small. This is considered very good for river smelt as many of them are quite small when caught. Big smelt has been bought by Mr. Sharbell, Portage, who has the fish moved by truck every day.

Mr. Gerald Barry, who was employed at the airport for quite some time has returned home for the winter months.
 Recitation, Max Murphy, Flag Drill, Ex. pupils, Trio, You Are My Sunshine, Recitation, Thane Adams, Merry Christmas Drill, Step Dancing, John Murphy, Christmas Dialogue, The Happy Gang, Recitation, Leigh Stewart, Sale of Candy, Duet, Joyce and Jean McKay, Reading, Dorothy Murphy, Dialogue, Christmas Picnic, Song By The Cowboys, Recitation, Vera Stewart, Drill, Christmas, Christmas, Pantomime, Home Sweet Home Monologue, Audrey Adams, Flag Salute, by pupils. The next was the most interesting number of the evening, the arrival of Santa Claus who was greeted with loud applause. When the excitement had died down he distributed all the many gifts to the pupils. Some teachers were also remembered when the gifts had been distributed the teachers and a generous treat of fruit and candy for not only the pupils but all the children in the community. Each number on the programme was loudly applauded by the audience thus showing their appreciation of the splendid performance of the different pupils. The teacher, Miss Vera Brander deserves special mention for the way the pupils were instructed in all the different numbers of the programme.

Mr. Carmelias Gillis has returned to Sea View after spending 30 days in military training at a Beach Grove Inn.

DOES YOUR NOSE CLOG AT NIGHT? DO THIS
 Put 3-purpose Va-tro-nol up each nostril... (1) It shrinks swollen membrane; (2) Soothes irritation; (3) Helps flush nasal passages, clearing mucus, relieving transient congestion.
VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

The Sea View teachers and pupils staged their Christmas concert on Friday evening in Sea View Hall. There was a good attendance the hall was decorated and made a charming picture with evergreens and Christmas decorations. On the platform was a Christmas tree decorated with bells and tinsel and laden with gifts of various sizes. Mr. Arthur Stewart capably presided and after a few introductory remarks called upon the pupils for the following programme: Welcome, Shirley Stewart, Chorus, Welcome.
