case with great deliberation. Three days after the suit was filed news came from the Savage club, where stage folk are welcome here, that Barry would marry Pauline Chase. Certain it is his wife soon will be a divorcee and Barrie will be free to wed Pauline Chase, whose artistry in his plays helped him in his success.

John Shand in Barrie's play loved a peeress, whose brilliancy in society helped him in his success.

What was there in Barrie's mind that pointed the lines of his play as prophecies of his life's crisis?

What Every Woman Knows was written three years ago, when little Pauline Chase's star was just beginning to shine here.

Has Mrs. Barrie, who now is in seclusion under her husband's charges, read the play? And has she too, drawn the strange truth from its fiction?

All London is talking of this remarkable coincidence. And if Barrie, divorced, should wed Pauline Chase, the world will see what every woman knows.

Mrs. Barrie in real life, has seen her husband rise from obscurity.

Maggie Shand in Barrie's play, saw her husband rise from obscurity.

Mrs. Barrie in real life, gave up her husband.

Maggie Shand in Barrie's play, was ready to give up her husband.

WATCH TIME DIFFERED. CAMPBELLTON, Oct. 15—Evidence in the Intercolonial inquest shows that differences existed in the men's watches, some being fully eleven minutes astray and that had the correct time been kept, the collision might have been averted. One man testified that the accident occurred at two thirty eight while another maintained that at that moment the special freight was seven miles from the scene of the wreck.

WE ERRED. We do make a mistake now and then. Errors will occur. Our buyer this fall erred in ordering twenty-five pieces of Victoria lawn. The error was in asking for pieces. He ought to have asked for twenty-five ends of twelve yards each. What arrived from England was twenty-five pieces of sixty giving us one thousand and five hundred yards instead of three hundred, as this is far too much Victoria lawn for us to sell in the regular way, we purpose giving Church Sewing Circles and other ladies interested in white sewing for the coming Spring and Summer a rare genuine snap. It comes in three qualities 14c, 20c, and 25c. Clearance price 10c, 15c, 15c. James Paton & Co. 10-15dtf.
