Miss Pillman was a very skilful and efficient school teacher, having a large school of pupils to train, in which she never failed. The usual devotional exercises were carried after which a nicely worded address was read by Mr. G. Emerson Hestis of Wilnot Valley, as follows: To Miss Margaret Pillman, Traveller's Rest. Dear Miss Pillman—It is with great pleasure that we have gathered here this evening to show you and demonstrate the place that you have held in our affections. Your usefulness as a school teacher in North Bedeque has been much appreciated during the three years that you have been among us, and it is manifested in the excellent standing some of your pupils achieved in this period, thus showing your ability in this connection.
