SALVATION ARMY TRANSFER—Adjutant W. Hawkes, local commandant of the Salvation Army, has received notice that he has been transferred to Ottawa where he will be posted in charge of Ottawa Corps No. 1. He is to be replaced here by Capt. W. Mercer of the Simons Street Corps, St. John, N. B., who will arrive in Charlottetown Sept. 11 with Mrs. Mercer to take over his new duties. Adjutant W. Hawkes came to this city 14 months ago and assumed charge here. Since that time they have won a host of friends in Charlottetown and other parts of the province and it is with some regret that citizens learn of their transfer. They will leave here next Tuesday and will hold their farewell service on Sunday. Adj. Hawkes was stationed in St. John before coming here.

MAY DRILL FOR OIL—Mr. Hugh MacKay, Sapulpa, Oklahoma, is in the city at present in connection with the survey for oil which is being conducted here. In 1920 he obtained the oil rights of Prince Edward Island from the Provincial Government and since then has promoted various projects for the development of the oil possibilities of the province. This latter company is having a geological survey of the Island made at present. The work is being done by the Seismograph Service Corporation of Tulsa, Oklahoma, near Souris. This work is preliminary to the selection of a site for drilling. Mr. MacKay said. He thought the chances of drilling were good as the province has been found to contain an extensive structure which is favorable to the production of oil. However, it is quite possible that no oil would be discovered even though the structure appeared to be all right, he stated. This is purely a geological territory and when I see oil I'll know there's oil," he added.

NAVAL PARADE—About 100 members of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve participated in a route march through city streets early yesterday afternoon. These boys, who have been training for only one month, showed the effects of good teaching as they marched along like veterans. Their smart appearance made citizens along the route of march stop and watch as they went. The parade was in charge of Lieut. K. Birtwistle, Officer Commanding, and other officers to turn out were: Sub-Lieutenants W. Johnston, R. McPherson, and B. Fotheringham. Marching in fours to the beat of their own drummers they went via Kent Street, Pownall Street, Spring Park Road, McGill Avenue, past the Provincial Sanatorium, North River Road, Brighton Road, Rochford Street, Kent Street, back to the barracks.

BEAUTIFUL FLOWER GARDEN—What is probably the largest dahlia garden in the province is the proud possession of Mr. W. J. Cudmore, Elm Avenue, Charlottetown. This beautiful garden is situated at the rear of his attractive premises on the Avenue and credit for the outstanding success of the plants is due to his son, Wilfred, who makes a hobby of growing the flowers. A visit to the garden is a revelation as row after row of multi-colored flowers of 100 different varieties present a panoramic view. Covering a quarter of an acre the 500 plants to be seen range from two to six feet in height. There are also some pom-pom, bell-shaped, cactus and ball dahlias and most of the bulbs were imported from Holland by Mr. Cudmore. Unfortunately on Friday evening, was importing last year went to the bottom of the ocean but he had plenty on hand to plant. One of the dahlias in the garden is named the Chamberlain in honor of the Prime Minister Chamberlain of Great Britain. This variety is the most difficult to grow but Mr. Cudmore has succeeded in raising several good ones. The high winds of the past week have wrought great havoc among the plants but even yet the flowers are a beauty to behold.

Material for sewing and knitting garments for refugees and our armed forces will be provided with the funds raised through the medium of this activity, and plans were discussed for forming a sewing club. Mrs. F. J. Casey reporting for the work stated that since last reporting she had completed forty-five sheets, also a number of bathrobes, coats and dresses for refugees. The convener stated a work of this connection during the coming month. Magazines and periodicals to the number of two hundred have been provided for patients at the Sanatorium and Infirmary during the summer by the convener Mrs. Stephen Trainor. The members were taken for the election of an alternate, also an additional delegate to attend the diocesan convention which is being held in Souris, Mrs. Frank Murray and Mrs. Stephen Trainor being elected. Summer Complaint—Few people, especially children, escape an attack of summer complaint during the hot weather. Summer-complaint being a profuse diarrhoea very often accompanied by vomiting and purging. The matter excreted from the stomach has a bilious appearance, and that from the bowels watery, whitish, ill-smelling, or even colorless. When the children show any signs of looseness of the bowels the mother should administer a few doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry so as to bring quick relief. This medicine has been on the market for the past 40 years. Be-fuse substitutes. They may be dangerous. Get "Dr. Fowler's" and feel safe. The T. Millbra Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

Two-Fisted Parson Story Twice Told—When Peter B. Kyne penned the stirring story of a two-fisted frocked westerner, "The Parson of Panamint," which opens today at the Capitol Theatre he created a never-to-be-forgotten tale that is about to be three-fold.

Recalling the glory of the old West with its gold rush saints and sinners "The Parson of Panamint" first made its appearance in the form of a novel. Later it thrilled millions of Saturday Evening Post readers. Now it comes to the screen in magic movie manner.

CHARLIE RUGGLES plays his first wholly serious role as "Chuckwalla Bill," bewiskered Mayor of Panamint, first to discover the gold in "them thar hills." Ellen Drew, Phillip Terry, Joseph Schildkraut, Porter Hall, Henry Kolker, Janet Beecher and Paul Hurst round out the excellent cast of feature players. They characterize the adventurous souls of the raw nineties who sought gold, action, romance in the wild west.
