The W. B. M. A. S. have prepared a pleasing program of readings, solos etc., which will be rendered this (Wed.) evening, in the Baptist school room.

Rev. Dr. Sprague ended his pastorate of Centenary church St. John last Sunday. St. John regrets to lose the able and scholarly pastor of Centenary.

Rev. James Crisp returned from Milltown to St. John Monday. He reports that his brother, Rev. R. A. Crisp, who is seriously ill, has improved slightly.

The sermon which appeared in last Saturday's Guardian and has been most favorably commented upon was from the pen of the Rev. William Harrison of Cornwall, who in the near future enters upon the duties of pastor of Grace Church in this City.

Advertisers say that there is no better medium than the Rural Daily (formerly the Weekly Guardian). The reason is that it circulates everywhere throughout the country districts of the Province, reaching an entirely different class of readers from that of the Morning Daily.

Miss Edith M. Spurr, Falmouth, has accepted the position of teacher of classes in Feller Institute, Grande Ligne, near Montreal for the coming year. Miss Spurr graduated in arts at Acadia College last June, taking honors in latin and french. At the convocation, in Wolfville, last Wednesday she received the degree of master of arts for advanced work in these subjects.

Advertisers are again reminded that their "business local" as well as their "changes" must be received at this office not later than one o'clock sharp of each week day, exclusive of statutory holidays, to insure insertion in next issue. All received later than the above hours will also appear when they do not interfere with the setting in type of the regular news of the day.

At a meeting held by the quarterly board of the First Methodist Church the following resolution was unanimously passed: In view of the removal from this city of the pastor of Grace Church, the Rev. Thomas Marshall who has been appointed Superintendent of Missions in New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland, this quarterly official Board wishes to place on record its high appreciation of his services during his pastorate in Charlottetown. His close relationship with his church through his frequent pulpit exchanges and in the kind thought, services rendered by him during the illness and death of our late pastor has endeared him to the members of the church and congregation. In his removal from Charlottetown the Methodist church loses an energetic, cultured and consecrated minister of the Gospel, and the City a fearless and active promoter of all that goes to make good citizenship. The members of this Board wish him every success and they trust that the blessing of Almighty God will abide with him and his family in his new field of labor.

THE DAY'S END.

The day is slowly fading to its close. A brooding haze is lingering in the air. The skies are grey with clouds in dull repose. The solemn hour extends an evening prayer.

But now the hiding sun bursts through the fold! And crimson smoke pours from the silvered rift, And fluid streams of amber flow, and gold, And incense-bearing ships float out adrift.

O see! from eagle heights, the cloud-spun world! The burnished hills that wind afar, serene. The dreamy lakes and isles, in wreaths unfurled, The purple steeples round seas in car-nading.

The embers die! The Earth wheels in to night; Tired Day to jeweled Queen restores his throne, Weird shadows creep from eaves with darkening blight—the World's at rest in God—and not alone! —RALPH MACBACHANN.

A ROMANCE OF A HOSPITAL

Nursed Her Husband's First Wife In Her Last Illness.

NEW YORK, June.—Touched by the sympathy and solicitude shown by Miss Mabel Ireland, formerly of Toronto, Canada assistant superintendent in Dr. Bull's sanitarium, 33 East 33rd street, to his wife who was operated on in that institution four years ago, Charles Burgh, of Philadelphia cultivated an acquaintance with the pretty nurse, which ripened into love and resulted today in their marriage in "The Little Church Around the Corner."

They were married today by Rev. Mr. Houghton. There was a wedding breakfast at the Park Avenue Hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. Burgh went to the Hotel Belmont until their sailing tomorrow on the Hamburg-American liner Amerika. Their honeymoon will extend over nearly all Europe, including a lengthy stay in Sweden. On their return in the fall they will live in Philadelphia, where Mr. Burgh is President of the Commercial Coal Company.

HOW TO DETECT PLEURISY. Long breaths hurt, side catches and pains,—rub well with Nerviline and away goes the ache, muscles are relieved of tension, pleurisy prevented. No liniment half so powerful or so useful inside or out as Polson's Nerviline try it.
