Community Fair At The Forum

HEADLINES! This news should be in headlines, the big story about the carnival at the Forum which opens Monday. It is old stuff to repeat that the two weeks Fair is for the benefit of the two hockey teams which the Abegweit will operate this winter. But it is new stuff to tell the public that the Forum has bought hundreds of dollars worth of prizes to give away while the show is on. And what prizes they are. Nothing like them has ever been seen at an indoor circus before and in all probability will not be seen again.

It has been said that an army travels on its stomach, and it is equally true that a hockey club cannot carry on without sustenance. It requires money to finance a sextette which is casting an ambitious eye at the Allan Cup. Charlottetown is without doubt the smallest city to (figuratively) take of its coat and scramble for that ancient emblem of leadership in the Dominion's national game.

Despite the disappointments of last year the folks hereabouts are coming to the support of the Abegweits with excellent spirit and unsurpassed generosity. All of the booths for instance at the Forum have been sold and the response in every way has been nothing short of phenomenal.

Its a case of a stitch in time. The only way to hold together the magnificent hockey aggregation we now have is to get behind them in every way and especially financially. The merchants and business men are doing their share and more than their share, and the appeal is now made direct to the rest of the citizens of Charlottetown to show the same patriotism. It may be said, by the way, that the show has features which will appeal to all classes of people, and that some of our best known social clubs are taking an active part in making it a success. Help for the Club now may spell the difference between middling good season or a campaign which will bring us a Dominion title. Do your part.

RUGBY

The first rugby clash of the season will take place this afternoon at 3.15 when players from the Abegweits and Prince of Wales will clash. Whether the teams will line up, Red and Black vs. Red and Blue, or whether they will be combined in some other manner is not yet known, but in any case a battle royal is predicted. The game will combine the elements of exhibition and practice, and while the customary regulations will be rigidly adhered to, it is expected that subs will be used freely.

The way that the boys stand up in this game may have a determining influence on the selection of men to play in league games later. The observant eye of coaches and critics will take in every point and move.

The following Abegweits are asked to be ready for the whistle.

PITTSBURG IS BACK IN HOCKEY LEAGUE

Arrangements Made To Secure Rink And Players To Start Season.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 30.— A few scratches of a pen today and Pittsburgh Pirates will be as good as back into the National Hockey League fold.

Clouds which cast a doubtful shadow over the possibility of the "Smoky City" marching alongside Ottawa in a return trek to the Major League were brushed aside last night with announcement that agreement had been reached between the Pirate franchise holders and Duquesne Garden lessors. The Pirates hadn't a home rink until President James Callahan of the Buccaneer Club emerged from a huddle with representatives of the lessors and announced a five-year contract would be signed Thursday. Seating capacity of the garden-ric, heretofore small, will be enlarged to 7,000, he said.

And as Callahan and Bill Dwyer, New Yorker, who is the principal shareholder of the Pittsburgh franchise, departed for a National League meeting in Montreal, Saturday with the intention of recruiting playing material, possibility of the International Hockey League continuing operations in Pittsburgh all but disappeared.

When the Pirates went into oblivion two winters back because of lack of support and finances, the International hurried a team into the city. But the operators of the Minor League Club are now without a home rink and their plans for the future are uncertain.

Ed Powers, who made a success of managing Boston Tigers of the Canadian-American League last season, is widely mentioned as the probable manager of the new Pirate entry for N. H. L. honors and the Stanley Cup. It is said Hib Milks will be back at centre and that three New York Ranger stalwarts, John Ross Roach and Vic Desjardines, will likely wear the black and yellow Pittsburgh jersey.

CRASH AT INTERSECTION
Last evening about 7.15 as a Willys coupe which had been going north on Prince Street, was turning west at the Gratton Street intersection, it crashed into a Pontiac which was travelling south on Prince Street. The left side of the latter car was damaged, and one of the occupants sustained a small cut.

The World Series

Baseball fans all over America who are following the World Series took a day off yesterday as did also the contending clubs, Yankees and Cubs, but today said fans will again sit up and take notice when they renew hostilities at Wrigley Field, Chicago's home lot.

Many expect Grimm's crew to do better in their own back yard, and their showing will be watched with the keenest of interest.

The special service which the Guardian-Herald baseball board has been giving fans will be continued this afternoon. This with special service news leads, box score, etc., of both Saturday and Sunday games will be carried in Monday morning's edition.

On Sunday, when the teams meet in the fourth game, there will be no electric board relay, but the score may be had any time during the evening by telephoning 132 or 133.

Playing in Chicago today, Sunday and Monday, the teams will return to New York for games Wednesday and Thursday unless the Yankees take two of the three tilts in Chicago.

Games in Chicago start at 3.30 o'clock, Atlantic Standard Time. Fans will please remember that this is one hour later than the starting time for the first two games in New York.

(BY "TEC")

THIRD GAME OF THE WORLD SERIES TODAY—AT CHICAGO

Matinee Races

The Charlottetown Driving Club has announced a really attractive race program for this afternoon—and a really attractive admission fee, the proceeds to help defray the financing of two hockey aggregations the coming winter. A large attendance is expected.

Poor Hornsby (?)

Rogers Hornsby claiming his share of the world series money is a pathetic figure in a way. Hornsby was unhorsed just about the time Cubs were ready to make their historic run. He had them in second place whipping along pretty well. They would probably have won out under his handling just the same as they did for Grimm. Rogers was paid off till the end of the season getting something like $40,000—a really monumental sum. Cub players took the practical stand that as he had suffered nothing in salary, he was not entitled to a slash of the world series swag.

Canadian Runner Sets New World Mark

Bert Pearson from Hamilton set a new world mark for the 220-yard open at the Thorold, Ontario, Amateur Athletic Association track and field meet in winning in 20 3/10 seconds. A heavy favoring wind, however, precludes recognition by the A.A.U. of Canada of the time. Pearson won the 100 yard dash after placing second in his heat in 9 9/10 seconds.

Why Not?

John McCarthy, of Halifax, coach of the Caledonia Rugby team, has brought to the attention of the Cape Breton Rugby League that when the all-Canadian English Rugby team went to Japan last year, the Mikado of Japan donated a handsome trophy for competition among the Rugby teams of Canada. He feels that the Maritime Rugby Union should take up the matter.

A Match Race

A Halifax Exchange says: There has been some talk lately of a race in the near future between Darkey Grattan, 2.02 1/4; Star G., 2.09 Beeton Grattan, 2.10 and King Spruce, 2.11 1-4, to be driven by their respective owners, and there are prospects that such will materialize. Darkey Grattan is owned by H. A. Fulton, Upper Stewacke; Star G., by J. H. Breen; Beeton Grattan, by Frank Adams, and King Spruce by W. Baker, Dartmouth. A race between these fast horses under such conditions would create much interest.

"The Mighty Atom Again"

The Montreal Star, in its report of the M. A. A. winning over Westward last Saturday, 6 to 3, says "they owe their victory largely to the splendid play of the forwards and the excellent kicking of Ritchie McCoy. He gave the team the lead by dropping a goal."

CANADIAN GIRL ADVANCES TO SEMI-FINALS

Ada MacKenzie Toronto Golfer Defeats Maureen Orcutt, U. S. Star.

PEABODY, Mass., Sept. 30.—A golfing tornado struck the women's United States championship tournament today, sweeping away Enid Wilson, the British champion, advancing Ada MacKenzie of Toronto who defeated Maureen Orcutt, one of the best in the United States, and just missing Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, who has won five of the last 10 titles.

The upheaval that ruined Miss Wilson's hopes of taking away a crown was supplied by 22-year-old Charlotte Glutting from Short Hills, N. J., who has been playing the game but three years.

Miss MacKenzie, many times Canadian champion, trimmed Miss Orcutt 2 and 1 to enter the semi-finals after playing even golf for 13 holes. The Canadian girl and her foe who allowed her twice-held Dominion title to go undefended this year were the first pair to start this morning and the fight was nip and tuck all the way.

They held even for 13 holes, after which the Torontonian's spurt started with a par on the short 14th and she went one up. She halved the 15th with a six and won the next with a birdie four against a par five. Miss Orcutt gave herself a 15-footer after chipping her third into the 17th green and when it stayed out her bid in the title quest was ended.

Miss Glutting matched the British star's long drives for a one up triumph. Virginia Van Wie of Chicago gained the semi-final round with a 3 and 2 win over Rosalee Knapp, Glen Head, N. Y. Mrs. Vare gained a 2 and 1 decision by shooting an eagle and a birdie on the 16th and 17th holes after she had trailed the Buffalo girl for the greater part of the match.

Today Miss MacKenzie opposes Mrs. Vare and Miss Van Wie is paired with Miss Glutting.

At the Louisville, Ky., meeting mentioned above over the Louisville half mile track, which is one of the very fastest in the world, Parshall won six out of seven classes with his stable. This is a wonderful record but does not approach that of "Doc" McMillan which we referred to recently in Ohio where he won nine out of ten starts at one meeting.

The Old Glory auction conducted by Fasg Tipton Co., New York will be held at Squadron A Armories, New York City, November 21st to 25th. There was some talk of transferring the sale to Kentucky where the Fasg-Tipton Company conduct their thoroughbred auctions, but it would be an unpopular move.

Two overcast meetings will be staged, one at Windsor, Conn., and one at Sturbridge, Mass. The meeting at Windsor will be sponsored by a former Islander, Allan J. Wilson and will be three days, October 18th to 20th. Sturbridge will follow, opening on October 25th. Previous to that there will be races at Danbury and Stafford Springs with good weather the month of October is expected to produce some of the best races ever seen in the final stages of the New England season.

The principal feature in connection with the Old Glory sale will be a large consignment of yearlings from Walnut Hall Farm, Kentucky, Calumet Farm and the Hanover Shoe Farms. These choice colts and fillies will be the material that will make future track history. There is a possibility that some of our local horsemen will secure one or more out of these consignments.

The Marchioness, three years old record 2.02, won the Kentucky Futurity in addition to other great stakes including The Hambletonian. This will bring her grand total of winnings up to over fifty thousand dollars. She is a full sister of Protector (3) 1.59 1-4, winner of the same stake last year and holder of the world's record for three year old trotters. Protector is now in the stud at Walnut Hall Farm where his sire Peter Volo also stands.

The dam of Protector and The Marchioness is Margaret Aron, a daughter of Guy Arworthy and an Arion mare. She is a full sister of Arion Guy 1.59 3-4, horse that is making good as a sire. Arion, the sire of the dam of Margaret Arion was the first horse to beat 2.10 as a two year old and did it to high wheels if we remember rightly, showing that he is one of the greatest two year olds the world has ever known. After this performance he was sold to J. Malcolm Forbes for $125,000. As a sire he did not show up as well as expected although the Arion blood is valuable in any pedigree.

The most promising of the get of Arion was Nancy Hanks 2.04 who lowered the world's record to that notch when a performance of that kind startled everybody. Nancy Hanks was bred to Todd, also owned by J. Malcolm Forbes, and the

Yanks Favoured To Win Handily At Chi To - Day

Capacity Crowd Of 52,000 Spectators Will Attend—Root And Pipgras Opposing Moundsmen.

(Canadian Press) CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 30.—Under the leadership of the man who was deposed two years ago as the Cubs' manager, the New York Yankees rode rampantly into Chicago with their two-game lead, top-heavy favorites to batter down even the Yankee defences of the National League champions and clinch the 1932 World Series within the three-game limit of engagements here. The third game in a series unexpectedly one-sided, so far, will be played at Wrigley Field today. A capacity crowd of 52,000 spectators including Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, is expected. George Pipgras, veteran right hander, is slated to pitch for the Yankees, while Charley Root, fast ball right-hander of the Cubs, will be asked to check the unprecedented winning streak of the New York Club in world championship competition.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

For the information of a number of our horsemen friends who will be interested, we give the approximate shoeing of Heatherbell, Brenton McInnis's good trotter that has won five races in a row. Front feet, toes four inches, angle forty-one degrees. Weight of shoe, eight ounces with four ounce toe weight. Hind feet three and five-eighths inches, four ounce shoe. It will be noticed that the angle of the front feet is exceptionally low, in fact the lowest we have ever noticed on a trotter, but Heatherbell goes fast and far with that angle, so it would be unwise to change. It seems to suit his conformation.

Most of the local horses are being kept in training to take part in a couple more matinees before thoughts of the race track are definitely discarded. The track is being brushed, harrowed and kept in shape as usual so that they can get in their regular workouts.

In Ontario most of the worth while horses are kept at it all fall and during the early part of the winter. Dufferin race track, Toronto, is probably housing some sixty or seventy horses at present and about the middle of October harness racing will start there and will continue over the track once or twice a week until the cold weather arrives when the surface will be iced and they will race several ice race meetings.

The track having been used by the runners is deep with soft clay and with very little rain becomes almost a bog, but that does not stop the horses, they go right through it and the strongest horses usually win. If you ever attended a meeting on one of those fall days when the track was inches deep in mud, you would wonder to yourself why so many good horses were being raced under such awful conditions, as there appears to be such great danger of them injuring themselves permanently in the greasy footing.

The purses are small usually $250, except on holidays when they jump them to $400. The money to pay the purses is contributed partly by the admission charged and partly paid for by the concessionaires, mostly handbook men.

North Sydney is holding races Thanksgiving Day, October 10th. The big feature will be a free-for-all with Neil Frisco, Darky Grattan Trampsmug and Marjorie M, as starters.

St. Stephen Exhibition races met with bad weather, rain interfering with the program and preventing its being carried out in anything like its entirety.

Mac I Win, the three year old pacer campaigned by "Doc" Parshall, who has been leading many of the best aged horses with the greatest ease, lowered the three year old world's record for pacers on a half mile track to 2.02 at Louisville, Kentucky, September 16. On the following day Dr. Parshall upset another record for a half mile track when he won the second heat of the 2.14 trot in 2.02 1-2 with Morley Frisco, displacing the former record of 2.04 1-4 held jointly by High Noon and Dewey McKinney. The fastest mile ever trotted by a mare over a half mile track was made by Mrs. Yerks (by Peter the Great) 2.05 1/2.
