

Sudbury A. T. T. Co.
SOFT COLLAR

WITH THE TOOKE HOOPS

Central Guardian

28TH FIELD AMBULANCE will meet for drill this evening at the Armouries at 7.30 p.m. sharp. Any one wishing to join be on hand promptly.

TWENTY EIGHT days have gone of Guardian's special offer period. Be sure and send your $3 subscription before it is too late.

MEDICAL CORPS DRILL.—The 28th Field Ambulance will meet for drill this evening at 7.30 p.m. Important announcements to be made, and full attendance is requested.

CARD OF THANKS.—The Red Cross Club wish to extend their thanks to those who so kindly assisted to make the Memorial Show a success.

K. OF C. RECEPTION.—All Knights of Columbus and their ladies are requested to attend a reception to be tendered to Justice Arsenault by the Summerside Council at the Knights of Columbus Home in Summerside Tuesday evening June 14th at 8.30 p.m.

GOLF LESSONS.—Those who desire instruction in golf from Mr. Cornfoot should phone 898 today to secure their hours. After today the schedule will be posted at the Club House where players will be required to enter their names for such periods as are available.

LECTURE IN P. W. C. HALL.—The citizens of Charlottetown are to have the privilege of enjoying a lecture to be delivered in the Prince of Wales College Hall on Thursday evening by Mr. Walter McCraye of the Dominion Chautauque on various patriotic subjects. The lecture will be under the auspices of the Great War Veterans' Association and it is believed that a large number of citizens will avail themselves of this treat.

K. OF C. FUNERAL.—All members of the Knights of Columbus are requested to meet at the Knights of Columbus Home, Summerside on Tuesday morning, June 14th at 8.30 a.m. to attend the funeral of our late brother, Member Frank Perry of the Queen Hotel.

YOUNG ISLANDER'S SUCCESS.—In looking over the Music Department of the "Vancouver Sunday Sun" we notice the following: "Is Boy Violinist—Marvin Darbach, a tiny boy of seven, and a pupil of Miss Florence Vaughan played a violin solo, 'Gavotte' by Henkel and played it well at a recital which was given by pupils of Miss Muriel Lipsey, on Wednesday evening at the Vancouver Heights Methodist Church." This young musician is a grandson of Dr. D. Darfach of Kensington, P. E. I.

P. E. Island Foxes in Movie Pictures

Dr. Leo Frank, the well-known fox man, is a firm believer in the profitability of casting his bread upon the waters of publicity and his bread usually returns to him generously buttered. He has done much to place the fox business and through it the province on the map. There are few theatres in Canada or in the United States that have not seen Prince Edward Island foxes in action, in their ranches and at exhibitions, largely through Dr. Frank's enterprise.

Last Saturday he added several hundred feet of film to the illustrated fox story, which is doing so much to advertise the industry. And in addition, judging by favorable conditions under which it was produced, will be a valuable one. A party of about a dozen visitors were "movie photographed" while viewing his well known fox ranch, the Rosebank Fox Farms, Ltd., near Southport, and not only the excellent arrangement of the ranch and the apparently hundreds of foxes were portrayed but the evident interest of the visitors, most of them strangers to the industry, was brought out by the artist.

The party consisted of the well known Scottish comedian, Sandy MacGregor, of Kilmarnock, Ayrshire, Scotland, in his Highland costume; Mr. Walter MacRae, Toronto, Canadian lecturer, who is to address the Rotary Club here this week; Miss M. J. Hopkins of Yarmouth, N. S.; Dr. J. E. Bradley, Toronto, England; Mr. J. N. H. Watson, London, England, and a number of gentlemen from Charlottetown. Photographs were taken of groups and individuals; of Sandy MacGregor surrounded by foxes evidently admiring his picturesque costume; of Miss Hopkins fondling the little animals who appeared to take very kindly to her attentions. The foxes, old and young and the cat foster mothers seemed to enter into the spirit of the occasion and acted as if the success of the whole fox business depended upon their behavior. They posed most admirably and the photographer expressed the opinion that he had secured the best set of movies he had ever produced.

These photographs will be shown in every Theatre in Canada and the United States and cannot fail to impress the public with the wonder and the greatness of the fox industry.

The visitors were shown through the whole establishment including the diet kitchen, the emergency hospital, the drug room, the isolation pens, etc., and they expressed themselves as not only delighted but surprised that so young an industry could have grown to such dimensions in so short a time.

ROYAL NAVY
CUT PLUG SMOKING TOBACCO

a Cut Plug Tobacco of Wonderful Value & Quality

ROYAL NAVY
CUT PLUG SMOKING TOBACCO

1/11 lb. packet 15 cents
1/2 lb. tin 80 cents

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Advertisements under this heading, 50 per word for each insertion. Where copies come to our care to be forwarded, five cents must be added to cover postage. Contractions count as one word, but five figures (as $1,000) are allowed as one word. Cash remittances to cover cost must accompany all advertisements. In no case can this rule be overlooked. Advertisements received without remittance cannot be acknowledged.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—MAID FOR GENERAL housework. Must be good plain cook. Apply Mrs. John McLeod, 7 Euston St.

WANTED—MAID FOR GENERAL housework. Reference required. Apply Mrs. J. R. Paton, 20 North River Road.

AGENTS WANTED

AGENTS WANTED.—GOOD LIVE agents, male or female. Big money quickly made. No capital required. If you are not making $10 a day write us, Novel Drug Co., Ltd., 387-Bligny, Montreal.

MISCELLANEOUS

BABY CHICKS.—BATHURST breeders are the largest early-maturing, trapezoid, bred-to-day S. C. White Leghorns. They are prolific winter layers because they are Canadian and acclimatized to our severe winters. $20.00 per 100 net delivery, free circular. BATHURST POULTRY FARM, Richmond Hill, Ont.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—HEAVY BROWN PA per, suitable for placing under carpet. 5 cents a roll at Guardian office.

MALE HELP WANTED

MAKE MONEY AT HOME — $15 to $50 paid, weekly for your spare time writing showcards for us. No canvassing. We instruct and supply you with work. West-Angus Show Card Service, 67 X, Colborne Street Toronto.

SALESMAN WANTED—SALESMAN a self respecting salesman whose ambition is beyond his present occupation might find more congenial employment with us and at the same time double his income. We require a man of clean character sound in mind and body, of strong personality who would appreciate a life position with a fast growing concern where industry would be rewarded with far above average earnings; married man preferred. Apply to Mr. J. C. McLean, Bell second floor, Riley building, Queen St., opposite Prowse Brothers.

ALL UNCALLED FOR SUITS and overcoats from our 30 branches throughout Canada will be sold at $14.00 each. Odd trousers $3.95. Odd vests $1.50. In many cases this price is less than one-third their actual value. Merchants buy these goods for resale to their customers. Wise men will buy two or three suits and an overcoat. For sale at our store only. English & Scotch Woollen Company, 158 Richmond Street.

CLOTH, CLOTH, CLOTH—DO your women folks need materials in good qualities for their dresses and suits? We have thousands of yards that will be sold as low as $2.75 per yard, half regular price. In goods 54 to 58 inches wide. This is an excellent opportunity to get material in better qualities than usually found in women's fabrics, and also take care of the children needs. Call at our store. English & Scotch Woollen Company, 158 Richmond Street.

Proposed Air Service To Connect Empire

LONDON, June 11.—A scheme for Imperial Air Service is suggested by the Government by A.H. Ashbolt, agent-general for Tasmania, with a view to the utilization of surplus airships and plant. His proposal is that a company be formed with a large capital, one-half of which should be taken up by the Governments of India, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand and the Malay States; and one-half by public subscription. The plan is that a great air mail service should be organized which would bring Great Britain within five days' distance of India and South Africa, and within ten days of Australia.

Nurse Lays Cornerstone

Florence Nightingale School for Nurses in France Memorial to American Women

(Special to the Guardian)

BORDEAUX, France, June 11.—The corner stone was laid yesterday for the Florence Nightingale School for Nurses, which is to be a memorial to 284 American nurses who died during the World War. The school is to be built with 800,000 francs raised by American nurses.

Miss Helen Scott Hay, of Illinois, Chief American Red Cross nurse in Europe, laid the stone for Miss Clara D. Noyes, president of the American Nurses' Association in the presence of blue-jackets from the destroyer Childs, Rear Admiral Thomas P. Mauryer representing the American Embassy American Red Cross officials.

Rosa Luxemburg's Slayer Arrested

BERLIN, June 11.—Lieut. Krull, who is believed to have killed Rosa Luxemburg, the Socialist leader, has been arrested and his trial on the murder charge is expected. A trial would air the greatest scandal in Germany since the revolution.

Rosa Luxemburg and Dr. Carl Liebhnecht were arrested by Republican troops after the first Spartacist uprising, and both were slain after the woman had been brutally maltreated. Herr Noske, then War Minister, issued an official falsehood regarding her death.

INDIVIDUAL EGG RECORDS

There is altogether too much importance attached to individual egg records. One hen in a flock of ten may have a record of 250 eggs or more, while the average for the pen may be less than 180 eggs per bird. The average production of the entire flock is a far more reliable criterion as to the laying ability of any hen from that flock. The record of one hen taken by and of itself alone gives no definite reliable information from which the probable egg production of her daughters may be predicted. Being of many requirements, those who usually high records are claimed for individual birds. Get the average flock production every time before making purchases from a breeder.—M. A. J.

"Have you heard of the new ink that has been invented for writing purposes?" said Jones to Robinson the other day. "No," said Robinson. "What about it?" "Why," was the reply, "it's an absolute safeguard against a breach of profane action, for the ink is guaranteed to fade completely away with the first wash, leaving the page as blank as though no writing had ever been upon it."

PILES

Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding or protruding Piles. No surgical operation required. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once and afford lasting benefit. For a box all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Sample box free if you mention this paper and enclose 25 cent stamp postage.

Perfection Ice Cream

The plant of the Central Creameries, Ltd., Charlottetown, is now in a position to furnish large quantities of the well-known "Perfection" ice cream to caterers for picnics, horse races, and other entertainments.

Quick service if necessary, by making arrangements early. Your offer will receive special attention.

Artillery Notes

Tonight at 7.30 No. 8 Battery, commanded by Maj. H. L. Bathune, will hold their final drill in preparation for inspection on Wednesday afternoon. The non-commissioned officers and gunners will receive their final touch up in the fine points of foot drill and section gun drill. On Tuesday night No. 2 Battery, commanded by Maj. J. P. Hooper, M. C., will hold their final parade in preparation for inspection.

Tonight at 8.30 p.m. the officers of Nos. 2 and 8 Batteries will meet in the officers' rooms at the Drill Hall to run through final instructions for inspection day.

On Tuesday night Col. A.T. Ogilvie, D. S. O., Inspector of Artillery for Canada, is expected to arrive. The Colonel is a thorough soldier, having a splendid course of training previous to his going overseas, where he commanded a brigade of artillery with great honor. His selection as Inspector of artillery is the result of the high confidence which is placed in his ability by the military authorities.

BIRTHS

BARRETT.—On June 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Barrett of Kinross, a son.

DEATHS

COADY.—At Hazelbrooks on Sunday morning, June 12, Della J. Coady. Funeral on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock to Vernon River Church thence to Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Jas. A. Martin, who died June 9th, 1920.

The midnight stars are gleaming on a lone and silent grave, Beneath sleeps one we love, but one we could not save; Her weary hours and days of pain Her troubled nights are past, Her ever patient worn-out frame Has found sweet rest at last.

Rest on, dear mother thy task is o'er, Thy willing hands shall toil no more, A faithful mother, true and kind, None on this earth like you we find.

One year has gone, and yet to memory ever dear, Your name we breathe and shed a tear; Time cannot sever love so good and true, For this day brings to us our grief anew.

Sadly missed by her family. Inserted by Mrs. Jas. B. Ahern.

ENGLAND'S CHIEF JUSTICE

Romantic Office Dates Back Nine Hundred Years

The Lord Chief Justiceship of England has a history nine hundred years old.

The Office of Chief Justice, as it was first called, was introduced from Normandy by William the Conqueror. A central tribunal was established for the whole of England, and the great state officers were the judges and the Chief Justice presided over them all.

The holder of this office was the next man in the kingdom to the sovereign; he had precedence over all the nobility, and apparently acted as Regent during the King's absence abroad.

This pre-eminence lasted for about two centuries, when the remodelling of England's judicial system considerably reduced the power of the Justiciar.

The first Chief Justiciar was a man named Otto; he came into office in 1066. Otto combined the qualities of soldier, priest and lawyer; he fought at the Battle of Hastings, and his valor in this fight is depicted on the famous Bayeux tapestry. Another soldier Justiciar was Glanville, who went to the Crusades and was killed at the siege of Acre.

There is one curious instance of a King of England having been Lord Chief Justice: Henry II, held the office during the reign of Stephen, and succeeded to the throne on that sovereign's death.

In the reign of Henry IV Sir William Gascoigne was Chief Justice. He is the hero of a story of the youth of Henry V. The Prince of Wales, as he then was, enraged at the conviction of a friend, struck Gascoigne and was promptly committed by the courageous Judge for contempt. This is an early example of that judicial impartiality of which modern England is so proud.

The stormy days of the Stuarts produced great Chief Justices in Coke and Matthew Hale, while among later famous names are Lords Mansfield and Ellenborough.

It is curious to note that history affords more than one example of Chief Justices whose honor and character were by no means above reproach. Thus we find two Justiciars—De Weyland and Thoresby—charged with bribery and dishonest practices. There are others, but all fade into insignificance before the sinister figure of Chief Justice Jeffreys, infamous through the "Bloody Assizes" in James II's reign.

There are few figures more terrible than that of this blood-thirsty scoundrel, who sent batches of innocent and guilty alike to the scaffold. Before his own miserable death in the Tower, he rose to be Lord Chancellor of England.

Another formidable Chief Justice was one Serjeant, who flourished under Charles II. He was eventually "dismissed" from his office after being impeached "by reason of his profane and atheistical discourses, his frequent and notorious excesses and debaucheries, which do affront the Al-

Artillery Notes

Tonight at 7.30 No. 8 Battery, commanded by Maj. H. L. Bathune, will hold their final drill in preparation for inspection on Wednesday afternoon. The non-commissioned officers and gunners will receive their final touch up in the fine points of foot drill and section gun drill. On Tuesday night No. 2 Battery, commanded by Maj. J. P. Hooper, M. C., will hold their final parade in preparation for inspection.

Tonight at 8.30 p.m. the officers of Nos. 2 and 8 Batteries will meet in the officers' rooms at the Drill Hall to run through final instructions for inspection day.

On Tuesday night Col. A.T. Ogilvie, D. S. O., Inspector of Artillery for Canada, is expected to arrive. The Colonel is a thorough soldier, having a splendid course of training previous to his going overseas, where he commanded a brigade of artillery with great honor. His selection as Inspector of artillery is the result of the high confidence which is placed in his ability by the military authorities.

BIRTHS

BARRETT.—On June 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Barrett of Kinross, a son.

DEATHS

COADY.—At Hazelbrooks on Sunday morning, June 12, Della J. Coady. Funeral on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock to Vernon River Church thence to Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Jas. A. Martin, who died June 9th, 1920.

The midnight stars are gleaming on a lone and silent grave, Beneath sleeps one we love, but one we could not save; Her weary hours and days of pain Her troubled nights are past, Her ever patient worn-out frame Has found sweet rest at last.

Rest on, dear mother thy task is o'er, Thy willing hands shall toil no more, A faithful mother, true and kind, None on this earth like you we find.

One year has gone, and yet to memory ever dear, Your name we breathe and shed a tear; Time cannot sever love so good and true, For this day brings to us our grief anew.

Sadly missed by her family. Inserted by Mrs. Jas. B. Ahern.

ENGLAND'S CHIEF JUSTICE

Romantic Office Dates Back Nine Hundred Years

The Lord Chief Justiceship of England has a history nine hundred years old.

The Office of Chief Justice, as it was first called, was introduced from Normandy by William the Conqueror. A central tribunal was established for the whole of England, and the great state officers were the judges and the Chief Justice presided over them all.

The holder of this office was the next man in the kingdom to the sovereign; he had precedence over all the nobility, and apparently acted as Regent during the King's absence abroad.

This pre-eminence lasted for about two centuries, when the remodelling of England's judicial system considerably reduced the power of the Justiciar.

The first Chief Justiciar was a man named Otto; he came into office in 1066. Otto combined the qualities of soldier, priest and lawyer; he fought at the Battle of Hastings, and his valor in this fight is depicted on the famous Bayeux tapestry. Another soldier Justiciar was Glanville, who went to the Crusades and was killed at the siege of Acre.

There is one curious instance of a King of England having been Lord Chief Justice: Henry II, held the office during the reign of Stephen, and succeeded to the throne on that sovereign's death.

In the reign of Henry IV Sir William Gascoigne was Chief Justice. He is the hero of a story of the youth of Henry V. The Prince of Wales, as he then was, enraged at the conviction of a friend, struck Gascoigne and was promptly committed by the courageous Judge for contempt. This is an early example of that judicial impartiality of which modern England is so proud.

The stormy days of the Stuarts produced great Chief Justices in Coke and Matthew Hale, while among later famous names are Lords Mansfield and Ellenborough.

It is curious to note that history affords more than one example of Chief Justices whose honor and character were by no means above reproach. Thus we find two Justiciars—De Weyland and Thoresby—charged with bribery and dishonest practices. There are others, but all fade into insignificance before the sinister figure of Chief Justice Jeffreys, infamous through the "Bloody Assizes" in James II's reign.

There are few figures more terrible than that of this blood-thirsty scoundrel, who sent batches of innocent and guilty alike to the scaffold. Before his own miserable death in the Tower, he rose to be Lord Chancellor of England.

Another formidable Chief Justice was one Serjeant, who flourished under Charles II. He was eventually "dismissed" from his office after being impeached "by reason of his profane and atheistical discourses, his frequent and notorious excesses and debaucheries, which do affront the Al-

DROPS IN THE EYE

(BY M. JESSIE LEITCH)

"It's bad enough putting drops in a grown-up person's eye. But in a child's! And my Bobbie—of all children! He begins to cry the moment he sees the bottle. I have a little royal with him, and if any drops do go into his eye, his flood of tears dilutes them and washes them out again."

The speaker, a youthful mother, sat down tragically and regarded her mother, who had just arrived with discouraged eyes.

"Does he kick?" inquired her mother, sympathetically.

"Yes, he does, and scratches, too, I'm ashamed to say. Really mother, Bobby breaks my heart. He is so strong too. I can't do a thing with him."

"I'll put those drops in his eyes. Get me a sheet," said the grandmother, a trifle disjunctly.

The sheet in hand, she summoned Bobby who approached haltingly, like a colt tempted by the oats can, but fearing the rein across his neck.

"Do you want to go to the museum to see the mummies?" asked his grandmother, Bobby nodded.

"What's a mummy?" he said.

Bobby doesn't want a sheet

"Grandmother will take you to see them. But first we are going to play a game. I'll wrap Bobby all up in this sheet, while mother puts drops in his eye. If Bobby cries, the tears wash the drops away, and they don't do any good. You understand that, don't you, dear?"

And Bobby, like all children appreciating being appealed to like a grown-up, said stanchly:

"You don't need to wrap me up in that sheet. I'm not a baby. I'll keep my hands down. Only I hate drops in my eyes!"

WANTED

TEAMSTER

J. A. Farquharson & Co.

WANTED

TEAMSTER

J. A. Farquharson & Co.

A Trouble-less Dessert

Easy to get, easy to serve "easy to take" is

Perfection
ICE CREAM

A delightful finish to a delicious meal.

Try it for Hot Days

and see how "the folks" will appreciate your thoughtfulness.

CENTRAL CREAMERIES LIMITED
Wholesale Only