Tryon Notes

It gives your correspondent much pleasure to state that the Smallpox ban has been removed by the "oard of Health" and that Churches and schools are now open and making up for "lost time."

The Churches here have been doing a rushing business in connection with the "Forward Movement" and have gone considerably "over the top" in their objective.

A "Ladies Aid Society" has quite recently been organized at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Patterson, this society is to be identified with the Orphanage at Mt. Herbert. It is understood that the society now organized, substitutes the "Tryon Branch" of the "Red Cross Society" organized at the beginning of the Great War, and is a commendable one, the members being composed largely of those of the "Red Cross Society" who "carried on" so well for the benefit of the soldier lads "over there" during the great struggle. Arrangements have been made for a concert and basket social in aid of the Orphanage the date of which will be announced later.

The depth of snow on the main roads which has made the passing of teams thereon somewhat difficult, has being greatly reduced by the recent rain storm.

The weather and ice conditions have been somewhat unfavorable for carrying out the customary sports on the Tryon River, but the owners of the fleet-footed thoroughbreds are evidently looking forward to more favorable conditions in the near future.

The fever which has evidently been transmitted from the capital of the province for "tripping the light fantastic," has recently manifested itself at the homes of a number of the residents of the adjoining communities, where a large number of the young and older generations have assembled for the purpose or eradicating this infectious disease through the above painless method. The prospects are that the method is proving successful, and that the disease, in all probability will pass out with the going out of winter.

Mr. Clayton Morrison has contributed ten per cent of the 1919 Victory Loan Commission received by him on the amount subscribed on his route during the 1919 canvass, to the Prince County Hospital.

—CONDITIONS IMPROVING.—The doctors announce that the health conditions in Summerside are fairly satisfactory but advise people to take the utmost precautions to prevent further progress of influenza.

IN MEMORIAM

MARY HUGHES

On Feb. 20 the Angel of Death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hughes city and claimed for its own their little daughter Mary at the early age of six years.

Mary was in her usual good health until the Tuesday before her death when she became ill She was removed to the city hospital and an operation for appendicitis performed but the case was unusually serious and on Friday morning her pure spirit passed to Him who said. "Suffer the little ones to come unto me."

Mary was an exceptionally bright active child—to know her was to love her—and much sympathy is felt for her heart broken parents in their sorrow.

MR. AUSTIN G. JUDSON

The death occurred at his home at Alexandria, on Friday night of Mr. Austin G. Judson, son of Mr. J. H. Judson, of that place.

Deceased had been ill since last Monday of pneumonia, and despite all that could be done, he only lingered until midnight on Friday Deceased was still a young man in the 40th year of his age, a well-known rancher and farmer, a man of sterling character, held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

He leaves to mourn a widow five children, besides his father and mother and one sister, Mrs. Wm. McCallum, Cross Roads, Lot 48. The funeral takes place today Tuesday at 2 o'clock from his late residence to Pownal Cemetery.

MISS LOUISE JAY

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jay of Fanning Brook, have not the language to express their sympathy towards them in their sad loss of their beloved daughter Louise, who passed away on Saturday the 21th inst. at 5 p. m. The deceased was 28 years of age. The young lady came home from town a few days ago, and to all appearance was well. however within a few days of being home she took ill and never recovered. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon the 22nd inst. and was attended by a large number of residents. The service was conducted by Rev. Robert M. Brodie the body being laid to rest in the cemetery at Mount Stewart. The Guardian joins in sympathy with the parents and the members of the family in their sad loss.

JOHN ALEXANDER McKENZIE.

On the evening of January 17th, Mr. John Alexander McKenzie of Hartsville passed peacefully away at the P. E. Island Hospital, Charlottetown, at the age of 53 years.

It will be remembered that on the afternoon of Jan. 6th, while Mr. McKenzie was taking the horse of a friend out of the stable of the Easter Hotel, Charlottetown, he was kicked on the back of the head by another horse tied nearby in this stable.

Medical aid was at once summoned and the deceased was hurried to the P. E. I. Hospital where all that could be done was done, but to no avail, Mr. McKenzie never really fully regained consciousness and on the above mentioned date his spirit took its flight.

Mr. McKenzie's death seems particularly sad, because of the circumstancees surrounding it. On the morning of Jan. 6th, he left his home in Hartsville in his full strength and vigor of manhood, expecting to return in the afternoon, but this he did not do, for while at his work he was struck down without a moment's warning, and had he been able to have reached home before his death, it would not have seemed so sad. Death is always terrible, but when it comes to loved ones away from home, it seems to those remaining even more terrible.

The deceased was the youngest son of a large famly. He is survived by three brothers and two sisters. The brothers are: Rev. James W. of Belfast, John T. and Neil of Charlottetown, and the sisters are: Mrs. Alexander Matheson of Bradalbane and Mrs. Neil McLeod of Hartsville. Besides a sorrowing widow Mr. McKenzie leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, four sons and eight daughters, the sons are: Hugh John, recently returned from Winnipeg, Herbert on the farm, Bruce, teacher at Hartsville and Kenneth a lad at home, and the daughters are: Katherine of Boston and Mabel, Annie, Christine Marion Ruth Bessie and Evelyn at home.

Mr. McKenzie will be much missed, not only in his own home, where his very presence ever brought brightness and good cheer but also in the church, the Sunday School and in the community. In the church he was for quite a number of years an Elder. In the sunfor some years, up until last summer, when he asked to be relieved of the office, he was the Superintendent. In both of these spheres his place will be hard to fill. In the community he took an active part in everything which pertained to its best interests. The cause of temperance and every other worthy undertaking, always found in him a strong and earnest advocate. His sterling worth, his true and noble type of manhood together with his genial spirit will not soon be forgotten by those who had the pleasure of knowing him. But while all shall miss him and feel keenly his loss, yet knowing that he is now infinitely more happy than he ever could be upon the earth, none would be so unkind as to wish his unbound spirit back into bonds again.

The funeral which was one of the largest ever seen in this section of the country was held in Hartsville Church on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 20th. The services were conducted by Rev. R. H. Stavert assisted by Rev. John Stirling The pallbearers were: J. Duncan McKenzie, A. R. McKenzie, Neil J. McLeod, Colin Matheson, Alexander McDonald, and Gorden McLeod.

Interment was in the Presbyterian Cemetry at Hartsville.

EX-EMPEROR KARL OF AUSTRIA SUPPORTING FAMILY ON $500 A YEAR

VIENNA, Feb. 23.—Dr. Scharger, administrator of the imperial properties, announced today that the income of ex-Emperor Karl is now only 1,900 Swiss francs yearly. "In 1918," says Dr. Schager, "a landed property belonging to the former Emperor in Czecho-Slovakia was simply sequestered, but all of his properties in Austria, including the picture galleries and other most valuable art collections, were confiscated, with the exception of three small country estates.

"From these confiscations the Austrian Republic realized $1,250,000. The value of the fine arts collections is impossible to estimate, and Austria has been considering for some time the advisability of pledging them for foreign credits in order to buy food."

A subject of dissension between the Austrian Republican Government and the former monarch is the Hapsburg jewels which Karl took to Switzerland and pawned. The Austrian Government threatened to dispose of the remainder of his property in Austria unless he returns the heirlooms.

The Administrator adds that Karl's gross income is $2,500 a year, but out of that he has to pay the salaries of employees remaining on his Austrian estates, so that he actually has less than $500 with which to feed and clothe himself and wife and six children.

Dr. Schager urges that the Austrian Government make a dignified settlement on Karl, such as Germany made on the former Kaiser.
