SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Queen's County (East.)

The Sunday School Convention of Queen's County (East) met in the Presbyterian church at Orwell at 10.30 a.m. on Thursday, the 15th inst, the president, Rev D B McLeod, in the chair.

After opening exercises and address of welcome by the pastor of Orwell church, Rev J C Spurr read a paper on the difficulties of S S work and how to overcome them. In his introductory remarks Rev Mr Spurr made a feeling reference to the late lamented Rev David Sutherland. The main difficulties he said were dull people. But those difficulties are not insurmountable. Prayer is the great agency to overcome difficulties. Another difficulty is to secure teachers. Look out the most wide awake church members and urge them to take up the work.

After singing a hymn, Mr M J McPherson read a paper on the Bible in the Sunday School. The Bible should be the most interesting of books to the Christian. True success in life depends on a knowledge of the Scriptures. The S S teacher should have an ardent desire for the salvation of souls.

The singing of a hymn then followed after which Rev Geo A Ross read a paper on the Bible class and how to conduct it. After speaking of the modern lack of knowledge of the Bible, it was pointed out that our work ought to be to convince men of the reliability of the scriptures. The teacher of the Bible class holds a very important position. It is almost impossible for the average pastor to conduct a class on account of lack of time. The character of each scholar should be studied to make the class successful.

The morning session then closed with benediction. The afternoon session was opened by Rev Mr Howard. Rev J W McConnell gave an address on the work of the International S S Association. A great inspiration arises from the fact of eleven millions of scholars studying the same lessons all over the world at the same time. All work is now organized and the International S S Convention is a perfected organization. The lesson helps of the I S S committee are indeed helpful.

The Superintendents of the different S Schools then brought in their reports. Rev McLean Sinclair spoke on the S S Superintendent and his work. The rev gentleman dealt in a very interesting and instructive manner with this subject. The superintendent is a most important member of the S S staff.

Rev J W Howard read a paper on the S S teacher and his work. This was followed by a paper by Rev D B McLeod on the relation of the parent to the S S.

Evening session opened at 7 o'clock by prayer and singing.

Rev Mr Spurr delivered an address on the object of S S work. After this Mr Layton McCabe read a paper on the S S teacher and his work.

Rev W J Howard delivered an address on the need of the Holy Spirit in S S work.

Rev J W McConnell then conducted the question box when many questions of great interests to S S workers were satisfactorily answered.

At the close of the program Rev Geo A Ross moved that the thanks of the convention were due to the people of Orwell for their kind hospitality, and to the pastor, elders and choir for their many kindnesses. This motion was supported by many of the delegates.

Rev J C Spurr tendered the vote, which was responded to by Rev D B McLeod on behalf of himself his elders, congregation and choir.

The Convention closed with the benediction.

REV. DAVID SUTHERLAND

Minute of Zion Church Session

At a meeting of the members of Zion Church Session, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, held on the 15th July, 1898, the following minute was adopted, and their clerk instructed to furnish copies to the widow and parents of the deceased:

It is with feelings of pain and unfeigned regret that we, as a session, record the death of our Moderator, the Rev. David Sutherland. He became the head of this subordinate church court, when, on the 18th of December, 1889, he was inducted Pastor of Zion Church Congregation, by the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island; and ever since until his decease on the 8th of July, instant, he has presided over us with unflinching courtesy and guided our deliberations with that wisdom which cometh from above. As minister of the congregation of which we are office-bearers, his labors were attended with abundant success. He was a lucid, eloquent and faithful preacher, rightly dividing the word of life. His piety being sincere and active, his example was a power for righteousness. He was helpful in his pastoral visitations, and tenderly sympathetic in his ministrations to the sick. Possessing a heart that was deeply touched with human misery in every form, he was a warm advocate of total abstinence and every other reform calculated to promote sobriety, purity and honesty. In short, he was a model pastor, and this session and congregation in his death have sustained an irreparable loss. But we are consoled by the reflection that our loss is his eternal gain. He rests from his labors, and his works do follow him.

The members of this session also desire to express their deep and sincere sympathy with Mrs. Sutherland and family in their early and sore bereavement; and with Mr. Sutherland's aged parents and other relatives in the Scottish homeland, in the great sorrow which the sad tidings of his death will cause; and we fervently pray that the Great Physician, whose hand can alone bind up the broken heart and whose balm is the all-sufficient healer of the wounded spirit, may abundantly soothe all these afflicted ones with the consolations of his rich and satisfying grace.

CHURCH CONVENTION.

Interesting Meetings at Port Hill and Irishtown.

The second quarterly meeting of the Church Convention was held at Port Hill on Tuesday last, the opening service of prayer having been held in the church on the previous evening. Mr. Justice Fitzgerald occupied the chair and delivered an appropriate address, in the course of which he referred to the needs of the church and dwelt upon the growth of sympathy among church people. We see everywhere, he said, the prosperity of the country, and he hoped that in like manner the church of our fathers would grow and prosper. Judge Fitzgerald also alluded to the handsome churches in course of erection and the improvement in the home life of the people.

Mr James Millman then read a paper on church-giving, in which he showed that the principle of supporting the church by gifts was taught in the Bible and that church-giving is a duty to God and to man.

A discussion followed in which the Hon A B Warburton, Rev H C Aylwin, Rev J M Withycombe, Rev J T Bryan, Mr William Webb, Rev H Harper, Hon John Yeo, Mr William J Palmer and Rev John Forbes took part. In the course of the discussion Mr Millman was pressed to have his paper published.

On motion of the Rev. J. M. Withycombe it was resolved that the next meeting of this convention be devoted to the work of Sunday Schools and that all Sunday school teachers and officials be asked to attend as delegates. The place of the next meeting was left to the executive. At the evening session, the Rev. J. T. Bryan read an able paper on the Church of England and a capital address on the same subject was delivered by the Rev. J. M. Withycombe, Hon. A. B. Warburton, Rev. H. C. Aylwin, Mr. James Millman and others taking part in the discussion which followed.

On the following day the convention adjourned to Irishtown where an interesting meeting was held.
