O'Leary and Vicinity

Ralph Gard has gone to Halifax where he will be employed for the winter months.

Mrs. William Ozon, Borden, has been visiting in O'Leary, the guest of her son, Mr. Ralph Ozon and Mrs. Ozon.

Mrs. George Matthews was a recent visitor to Summerside, the guest of her son, Mr. Fred Matthews and Mrs. Matthews.

The caretaker for the O'Leary rink this season is Mr. Forbes Kennedy. He will also act as coach for the various teams. The rink has been resurfaced with brick clay and about 28 truck loads have been poured on the surface. A new pump has been purchased.

Elmsdale United Church held a very successful preaching mission from Nov. 28 to Dec. 7. The minister, Rev. J. M. Sheen presided and the special guest speaker was Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick of Alberton. Special music was a feature with a large choir, a mixed quartette and solos by Rev. Mr. Sheen. Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick's messages were inspiring and encouraging and his kindly appeals for consecration and commitment to Christ, won responses.

The Brae United Church Young People's Union held their Christmas meeting on Monday night, Dec. 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James MacKinnon. The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Joey MacFadyen. The study period was taken by the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson, who spoke on "Christmas in other lands" and gave an interesting Christmas message on "The Night of Nights"—the night when Christ was born. The Minister was assisted by Mrs. MacFadyen, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. MacLeod, Mrs. Lorne MacNevin and Erison MacLeod.

The annual meeting of the Bloomfield United Church Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. E. R. MacAusland with the president, Mrs. A. W. Craswell presiding. The theme of the devotional service was: "Our Faith in Jesus Christ". A beautiful worship center was arranged with the scene of the Nativity, with four white candles in silver holders in the foreground creating an appropriate setting for the beautiful Christmas program. Mrs. R. H. Hunter, Mrs. Heber Profit, Mrs. E. R. MacAusland and Mrs. A. Metherall lit candles signifying faith in Jesus Christ. Christmas carols were sung. A fine solo was sung by Mrs. Symthe. The Presbyterial will be held in Charlottetown, Jan. 25 and 26, and the following were appointed delegates: Auxiliary, Mrs. Arthur Metherall and Mrs. Earl Palmer; Baby Band, Mrs. E. R. MacAusland and Miss

Malpeque

Miss Joan Bearisto, student in Charlottetown, has returned home for Christmas holidays.

Mrs. R. H. Abbott is on a pleasant holiday in St. John, guest of her sons, Kenford, Roy and Leonard.

Mr. George MacKay has returned from spending a pleasant weekend in Charlottetown, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacKay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacNutt, Darnley, have taken up residence in Malpeque, having purchased the Hopgood property, the neighbors and friends are pleased to welcome them.

Messrs. Keith Donald and Ralph Bearisto, who have returned to Malpeque after motoring to Montreal, Toronto, and various cities in United States, spent a few pleasant weeks visiting friends.

The sudden passing of Mr. Leslie Donald, Halifax, formerly of Malpeque, is much regretted by many friends and neighbors. The funeral service was held in the United Church and was largely attended by many sympathizing friends and neighbors.

The evening service in the United Church was largely attended on Sunday evening. The pastor, Rev. James Cross, preached a fine sermon on the text, "What shall I render unto the Lord, for all His benefits towards me. I will take the cup of salvation I now take my vows." A Kensington quartette was heard very effectively in two numbers, Mrs. Lester Linkletter, Mrs. Ray Sudbury and Messrs. Heath Casely and Tyndal Sample sang "Breathe On Me Holy Spirit", and "Heaven Seems Nearer." Mrs. Simpson presided at the organ, and the choir led in the hymns.
