Heroic Efforts Checked Fires In King's County

Forest fires have been raging in the eastern part of King's County during the last week with impotent fury. Nearly all of Shaw's Point which is situated about a mile from Georgetown has been burned to the ground. On Saturday sparks jumped the river, a distance of about one mile and caught the woods on the Georgetown side. Sweeping onward, it continued to lay devastation to the woods and crops in the Town Road. It still continued to progress across the main road at the "Cottage" about two miles from town. It burned through the land owned by Mr. Eugene McEachern of Charlottetown, through McEachern's woods, and practically through to the Cardigan River. All the men from Georgetown, Cardigan, and surrounding districts assembled and by their excellent work succeeded in saving all dwelling houses in this vicinity. About eight o'clock on Saturday the fire in this locality was practically under control. The young women of the districts are to be complimented upon their thoughtfulness in supplying food to those men fighting the fire. On the north side of the Cardigan River, fire continued during Friday and Saturday sweeping through Mitchell River, through St. Georges Road, thence through to launching, doing considerable damage to the forests and crops. Several houses caught but latest reports show that none has been burned owing to the excellent work of farmers of those districts. The fires evidently started from carelessness in lighting bonfires or from other careless actions. A bush fire which raged for days in the vicinity of St. Margarets and Nauraze with such destructive energy and which were reported in yesterday's Guardian as being under control, were checked only by the efforts of all the farmers of the neighborhood who battled with the flames, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, until the welcome rain storm which might truly be considered a God-send. Besides the buildings wiped out in the fire on Friday, many farm houses were menaced and escaped destruction only by the determined efforts of the occupants.

Miners Favor Terms; Strike Leaders Oppose

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, June 13.—Reports from various mining centres indicate a growing feeling among the men in favor of accepting the coal owners' latest offer. Meetings to explain details of the offer will be held in many districts before the ballot of the miners on Wednesday.

A few of the miner's leaders remain irreconcilable. Vernon Hartshorn, for instance, tells the Glamorganshire miners that the owners' terms are surrender pure and simple for them, and that they would get better terms if they continued the strike. Charles Gill, Treasurer of the Bristol miners also declares that the longer the miners remain out the greater will be the pressure brought to bear upon the government to force the owners to make concessions.

Chinese Desire Canadian Trade

(Special to The Guardian)
MONTREAL, June 13.—From the Temple of the Queen of Heaven, situated on the North Monan road, Shanghai, China, which is the port of call for the headquarters of so prosaic a trading body as the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, a copy of a letter addressed by that organization to the Canadian Chambers of Commerce has been received by the Montreal Board of Trade, through the Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa. This letter, which was sent by Mr. C. C. Nieh, president of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, to all Canadian Chambers and Boards of Trade, set forth the great increase in China's foreign trade, with the prediction of an impending industrial revolution for China. It further regretted that Canadian merchants, despite good steamship connections, had not taken advantage of their trade opportunities in this regard.

This letter was taken into consideration by members of the Council of the Board of Trade, and it was stated yesterday afternoon by the secretary, Mr. J. Stanley Cook, that the Montreal Board of Trade was entering into communication with the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, with a view to fostering trade relations with China. Mr. Cook said that the Board of Trade would be glad to secure all possible information for any members interested in this trade connection.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.
Following is the letter from President C. C. Nieh, of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, Temple of Queen of Heaven, Shanghai, April 28, 1921.

"Within the last decade the foreign trade of China has been doubled in spite of the revolutions and other internal disturbances. None can tell how many times greater her trade will expand during the next ten years. Her ability to supply the world markets with agricultural products and minerals is manifold; her capacity for consumption of foreign goods is multiplied by the rapid growth of modern industries. Many observers believe that China is on the verge of a great industrial revolution.

"Reviewing China's foreign trade in the past, we regret to see that Canada has not taken as large a share as might be expected from her excellent transportation system with Chinese ports. This, we think, is largely due to the fact that the tremendous trade possibilities in China have not been sufficiently well known to your business public.

"The Chinese General Chamber of Commerce of Shanghai, an association of some 400 representative merchants and manufacturers of Shanghai desires to see more trade between Canada and China and takes this opportunity to express to the Canadian merchants and manufacturers its sincere wishes for closer relationship, which will, no doubt, result in mutual advantage and satisfaction, commercial and otherwise.

"Assuring you of our readiness to co-operate with you in every possible way, we are, etc."

Jumps Through Train Window

MONCTON, June 13.—A report in circulation concerning a man jumping out Wednesday's Ocean Limited at Harcourt is corroborated by passengers and trainmen who were at Harcourt on that day. According to reports he was a shell-shocked returned soldier named Cameron, and was being taken by a guard to a sanatorium near London (Ont.). The train was not going very fast at the time, having just pulled out of the siding after crossing another train. He is supposed to have made for the woods. He jumped out of a car window.

Fire Fighters Burn Village

NEWPORT, Vt., June 12.—Fire yesterday wiped out East Charlottetown, seventeen miles from here. The fire started in the blacksmith shop of Will Grays and spread rapidly. In an attempt to check the flames dynamite was used, but the explosion sent embers flying to all parts of the village and many fresh fires started. ## Airman Killed in Sight of Hundred CALGARY, June 12.—An air stunt, an air stunter, was killed, and Fleming, pilot, was probably fatally injured, when the latter's machine crashed from a height of 10 feet while flying Saturday afternoon at Bowness Park. The crash was seen by hundreds of spectators.

New Houses For Charlottetown

Practically no new houses have been built in Charlottetown for rental since the beginning of the war. Meanwhile the demand for accommodation has been steadily increasing and rents advancing. Quite a number of families have been prevented from making their homes in Charlottetown because suitable houses were available and others had to be content with inferior quarters.

It was therefore with much satisfaction that citizens have noted the fact that Mr. R. L. Cotton, in the early spring made a beginning, again in the construction of houses here for rental. The Sullivan property at the corner of Brighton and North River roads is the scene of his operations and he already has a semi-detached or double tenement residence and also a bungalow nearing completion to be ready for occupation about the first of July. A beginning has also been made at digging cellars for several of the residences for completion in the latter part of the year.

The bungalow, which will probably be first for rental is built to suit two persons. It has living and dining rooms with double doors between, one nice sized front bedroom, another small bedroom, bathroom, pantry and kitchen, all on the ground floor. Each side of the semi-detached or double tenement house contains two stories with hall, living room, dining room and kitchen on the ground floor and three bedrooms and bath upstairs.

Both buildings are on concrete foundations with roomy cellars. The bathroom fittings are modern in every respect and each of the houses will be heated with pipeless furnaces. The Vail family, consisting of father and three sons are doing the carpenter work on the double house while Messrs Wm Meek and Harry Oitway are building the bungalow.

Mr. Cotton, as Manager of the Charlottetown Summer Resorts at Rocky Point up to a total of all most forty and Mr. Cotton reports that all with the exception of two at Ringwood and possibly two others at Holland Cove have already been engaged for this summer. Several Charlottetown families have already moved over for the summer, several others will do so this week, while the first visitors from outside the Province are due to arrive on Saturday of this week.
