ELMSDALE & VICINITY

Miss Jessie Brennan is spending a vacation in Boston, Mass., with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Beale Rix had as her guests for the week her brother, Mr. Colin Yeo, and her nephew Mr. Wesley Yeo of Haverhill, Mass.

The sympathy of a host of friends is extended to Mr. John W. Forsyth and family in the recent bereavement of a beloved wife and mother. Mrs. Forsyth is seventy-one years of age, and through her charming and graceful personality had a host of friends who deeply regret her unexpected death.

Many friends in this locality heard with regret the death of Mrs. Robert Howard at her home in Cape Wolfe on July 7th. At the advanced age of eighty-seven years, the sympathy of many friends is extended to her bereaved family.

The Elmsdale Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. J. W. O'Brien for their July meeting. In the absence of the President and Secretary Mrs. George Murray and Mrs. Frank Dunn acted pro tem. Meeting opened by the Creed and a fair attendance of members and several visitors were present. Reports were given by the different committees and bills incurred by treats were ordered paid. Plans were made for the District Convention. A contest put on by Mrs. O'Brien was equally won by Mrs. John P. Wallace and Mrs. Robert Brennan. Lunch was served by the committee in charge. Next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Charles Forsythe.

Visitors from Western Prince to the Montague Races last week included: Mrs. Harry O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Lloyd O'Brien, Mr. James O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wallace, and Mr. Omer Kinnon.

Mrs. Frank Dunn was the delegate representing the Elmsdale Women's Institute at the Central Convention of Women's Institutes at Charlottetown.

Mrs. Hudson Coughlin and son Buddy of Brighton, Mass., accompanied by Mrs. John Doyle and Mrs. (Dr.) Philip Farrell motored to the Garden of the Gulf last week to spend their holidays.
