the same the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing, music for the dancing being furnished by the well known musicians Messrs John Ross and Herbert Worth. A special feature of the evening's entertainment, and which was greatly enjoyed by all present was step-dancing by Miss Belle Ross of Medford, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison received a number of useful and handsome gifts, which goes to show how popular they are in the community in which they reside. In the early morning hours the guests left for their homes delighted with the social evening spent, and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Morrison many more returns of the happy day.
