THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

WATCH for "The Guardian Man."

REV. A. J. MACNEILL will preach in Hunter River at 11 o'clock; Brookfield at 2.30, and Clyde River at 7 o'clock, on Sunday the 16th.

The Moncton Times says that nothing is known at the I. C. R. general office concerning the rumor that Y. C. Campbell of New Glasgow is to be transferred to Charlottetown to a position on the P. E. I. road.

A CORRESPONDENT who sends his name in confidence desires "The Guardian" to call the attention of the Post Office Inspector to what he alleges is the unscrupulous mail service between Emerald and Sharnbrook. The Guardian knows nothing of the fact other than as stated by this correspondent, who says the mail carrier delivers the tri-weekly mail on fine days and remains at home in inclement weather. Think of courier refusing to go three miles on Wednesday and Saturday last.

At St. Ann's Church, Nov. 27th, John Peters, son of Solomon Peters was united in marriage to Miss Albina Fauré, adopted daughter of Mrs. F. Peters, of St. Mary's. The bride was attended by Miss Emma Gallant, and Napoleon Peters, of Boston, Mass., supported the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. McAuley. A reception was held in the evening at the home of the groom. The presents were numerous and of value, attesting the favor in which both bride and groom are held.

The home of Charles W. Crosby, Everett, Mass., was the scene of the marriage on the evening of Nov. 14th last of Charles B. Porter, Cedar Lake, N. S., to Miss Katherine McDonald, of Glenwilliam, in this Province. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. M. Sheplar, of Everett. The bride looked charming in white silk and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was her sister Christina, and the best man was Herbert Crosby. The popularity of the young people was shown by the many dainty and valuable gifts bestowed upon them. After a luncheon the happy couple drove away amid a shower of rice. Mr and Mrs Porter will reside in Everett.

This week "The Guardian Man" will deliver six envelopes—total value being $21.05. Number one envelope will contain an order on "My Store" M. Trainor & Co. for a fur ruff (marmot) valued at $10.00. Number two envelope will contain C. Lyons & Co's order for one load of Sydney round coal, value $4.00. Number three envelope will contain an order for one year's subscription to The Morning Guardian, delivered, value $3.00. Number four envelope will contain Hammond Kelly's order for 30 quarts of milk, value $1.50. Number five envelope will contain A. F. Webster's order for $1.05 worth of laundry and number six envelope will contain Jack Riggs' order for 12 shaves, one hat cut and shampoo—value $1.50. Be sure and subscribe for The Guardian and have it delivered every day and have it ready when "The Guardian Man" calls. Do not be disappointed!

With the return of the holiday season there comes again the opportunity of giving to friends something in the line of artistic publications, and one of the best selections to be found anywhere are from the extensive lines of gift, juvenile and toy books, calendars, booklets and Christmas cards issued by Raphael Tuck & Sons Co. who have representatives everywhere. The high-class color printing employed by this firm in all their work, the apt illustrations of meritorious design, and the interesting character of the text, applies to all their lines and naturally commends them to the public. Their goods are of endless variety, from the sublime to the ridiculous, and of every grade imaginable, and of every grade Christmas cards of all sizes, designs, shades, and colorings, and last, but by no means least, Father Tuck's Annual, a book of many pages, honorably illustrated, is of exceptional interest to both old and young.

JOSEPH O'BRIEN, who recently underwent an operation in the City Hospital, is improving.

ONLY a limited number of season tickets will be sold for the big New Arena Rink. They are on sale now. See big ad on page two.

CITY subscribers who lock their storm doors at night are requested to arrange some place for carrier to leave paper, so that it will not blow away or be stolen.

The Guardian's Special Illustrated Christmas Number will be issued on Saturday next. It will be larger than ever, and all advertisers desiring extra advertising in any part of the edition should notify the business offices at once.

The usefulness of the Provincial and Dodd Free Library was manifested yesterday, when, notwithstanding the stormy weather a large number of books were brought in for exchange. The library is doing good work. It is gratifying to know that many of the applicants for books are young men and women who are thus enabled to obtain the very best literature.

A CORRESPONDENT at Mill View writes: The friends of Joseph Storey will be pleased to learn that he has recovered from his recent illness.—Amos Adams is taking a course in the Charlottetown Business College.—Vernon Jenkins has returned home from a visit to Murray Harbor. People here realize more than ever before the need of a better station. Passengers now have to wait in six inches of snow for the train.

RECENTLY a number of friends assembled at the home of Anthony and Mrs. Dolron, St. Mary's, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. A very enjoyable evening was spent in dancing, singing, and speech making. The singing was led by Mr. Dolron, himself who is choir master of St. Ann's Church, Hope River. The numerous and costly presents testified the esteem felt for the couple by their many friends in Hope River.

Dentists of One Mind All Endore Asher's Enamel

At the dental convention recently held in Montreal the leading dentists of Canada expressed themselves as being very favourably impressed with Asher's artificial enamel as a material for filling teeth. That this material is the equal in all ways and in many respects the superior of gold for filling teeth is now generally conceded.

It Costs Less than Gold
