IN MEMORIAM

MISS DORIS McPHAIL

At New Glasgow on Monday, August 4th of tubercular meningitis, Doris Stewart, youngest daughter of Mrs. MacPhail and the late Dr. C. A. MacPhail of Summerside. The funeral took place from the residence of Judge MacQuarrie to the People's Cemetery on Wednesday, August 6th at 2.30 p. m. when all that was mortal of little Doris was placed beside her father who predeceased her several years ago. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hill while Miss Compton sang with great expression "There shall be no night there." The floral tributes were Dan Stewart, Robert Gordon, Reggie Ellis and Lloyd Sharp. There are left to mourn her mother and one sister Ruth, besides many relatives and friends to whom she was very dear.

So she had to expect complications. Did she not? Her Husband, who didn't know she was making a secret of their marriage could not understand why she allowed other men to make love to her only a few hours after she had promised to "love honour and obey" him. Its funny, ludicrous, dramatic near-tragic. It's worth seeing.
