304 Lives Lost In Palestine Disorders

LONDON, Nov. 2.—(CP-Havas)—Twenty-eight British soldiers and police were among the 304 persons slain during Palestine's many months of disorders, which came to an end two weeks ago, Colonial Secretary William Ormsby-Gore informed the House of Commons today.

Persons wounded in the disorders numbered 1,182, he said. Now that comparative calm has been restored, the Royal Commission of Inquiry will proceed to the Holy Land to investigate the source of Arab-Jewish unrest and British garrisons in the country will be reduced, he added.

R. A. Butler, undersecretary for India, said in reply to a question that 60 persons were killed and 500 wounded in the recent Bombay Moslem-Hindu riots, which he described as "essentially communal" in character.

asked whether "certain experiments" also had been made with whips. Butler answered that some persons had been flogged, but that this penalty was within powers conferred on Bombay magistrates under a law passed last year.

Disorders Quelled
JERUSALEM, Nov. 2.—(CP-Havas)—Sir Arthur Wauchope, British High Commissioner for Palestine, announced today that the Royal Commission appointed to investigate the Arab and Jewish claims in the Holy Land would reach here Nov. 11.

With the lifting of the curfew the situation in Jerusalem has returned almost to normal. For the first time since May 13 the residents of the city are free to leave their houses during the night.

Will Pay Interest On German Bonds

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—(CP)—Formal notice appears in the current issue of the Canada Gazette to holders of certain German Government bonds of 1924 and 1930 issue, that they may receive interest payments at the rate of four per cent, on surrender of their coupons. This is in accordance with an agreement which accompanied the Canadian-German Provisional trade arrangement announced a week ago.

The bonds concerned are the American issue of external German loans floated in 1924 under the so-called Dawes plan, and in 1930 under Young loan. The 1924 issue bear interest coupons at the rate of seven per cent, and the 1930 at 5 1-3 per cent.

The American Antiquarian Society was organized in 1812, having headquarters at Worcester, Mass.

Heroic Attempt To Save Father Fails

KAPUSKASING, Ont., Nov. 2.—(CP)—Heroic efforts of a son in an attempt to save his father's life were related here tonight by Louis Gervais, 21, as he described how Philippe Bienvu dashed into a burning bunkhouse in a futile attempt to save his father, Louis Bienvu, 60, of Blair Athol, N.B. Bienvu perished with Henry Turunen, 42, of Hearst, Ont., when fire swept the lumber camp 38 miles south of here early today.
