The occasion was the golden wedding of their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Cass, and her husband, Mr. William Cass. A notable feature of the evening was the presentation of Mrs. Cass of a large number of beautiful presents. A very enjoyable programme was carried out consisting of violin selections, singing, step dancing, etc., after which a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, which was very much enjoyed by all. Mrs. William Cass is one of the oldest residents of the district and is still as smart as a cricket. She can read without glasses and has a wonderful memory which enables her to relate accurately the history of the pioneer days of the province.
