Turner, and Anna J. Turner.

A P. E. I. letter says: The results of the year's Y. M. C. A. work in Charlottetown speak volumes for the tact and zeal of Secretary A. W. Robb, who is a St. John boy. The name of Herbert Bell of Augustine Cove P. E. I., a student at Edinburgh University, comes fourth in the Scotsman for the list of third year open bursaries in the above institution.—St. John Sun.

REV. T. F. Fullerton, who is to occupy Falmouth Street pulpit the next two Sundays, is a native of Scotland, educated in Glasgow University, for a time minister of Calvin Church St. John, and for the last ten years minister of St. James' Church, Charlottetown. It will be remembered Mr. Fullerton went to the front with the first Canadian contingent, where he did himself and the church great credit. Mr. Fullerton is one of the strongest men in the Synod as a preacher and leader of men.—Sydney Post.

THE Concert given in the Montague Hall on the evening of Nov. 2nd was a complete success. The Hon. A. C. MacDonald occupied the chair and the best of order prevailed throughout. Among so many first class performers it would be impossible to particularize, We hope it may not be too long before we shall again have the pleasure of hearing such soloists as the Misses Macdonald, Stewart, Furness and Haydes, the Rev. Walter Cotton and J. B. Hayley. The readings by Miss Welsh, J. D. McLeod and A. J. Irving were exceptionally good, the instrumental selections by Messrs McKinnon, Cumming, and McInnis were well rendered and the duetts by the little Misses McLean, and by Miss McDonald and Mr. Beers brought down the house. Perhaps the most interesting number on the program was that given by Miss Mabel Rice. Those singing in the choruses were.—Soprano Misses Helena McDonald, Pearl Vanderstine, Sadie Macdonald, and Mrs. Alex. MacDonald. Altos, Misses Maud Hayes, and Lena Fraser. Basses, Messrs D. L. McKinnon, and Lowe. Tenors Messrs J. D. McLeod, and John Beers. The accompanist of the evening, Mrs. (Dr.) Rodgerson deserves the special commendation of the performers as well as of the audience. The following is the program.—Opening Chorus, Canadian Boat Song; Vocal Solo, "Nora Shannon" Miss Myrtle Hayden; Reading, "A wonderful country far away" Jas. D. McLeod; Duett, Jack Frost, Little Misses McLean; Vocal Solo, "Drink to me only" Miss MacDonald; Reading, "The Market Place" Miss Margaret Mutch; Vocal Solo, The Spinning Wheel, Miss Maggie Stewart; Violin Solo, Ernest McInnis; Vocal Solo, Hungarian Love Song Miss Margaret Furness. Part second—Chorus, Cruiskeen Lawn; Vocal Solo, Scotland Forever J B Hayley; Cornet Solo, "The Palms" Lauchie McKinnon; Vocal Solo, The Lowland Sea, Rev Walter Cotton; Reading, Lasca Mr A D Irving; Vocal Solo, "Hundred Pipers" Miss MaDonald; Chorus, Swinging under the old apple tree; Club swinging, Miss Mabel Rice; Duett, Crooket Bawbee Miss McDonald and John Beers; Tableau, (1) Courtship Miss Sadie McDonald (2) Matrimony, John Beers; Tableau, The Hearts resolve Miss Biard and Lemon. KING WILL RIDE.

LONDON, November 5.—King Edward on the advice of Sir Frederick Treves, who has become his principal and most trusted physician, has resumed daily horseback exercise, with results most beneficial to his health.

Dear sirs,—I was for seven years a sufferer from Bronchial trouble, and would be so hoarse at times that I could scarcely speak above a whisper. I got no relief from anythingtill I tried your MINARD'S HONEY BALSAM. Two bottles gave relief and six bottles made a completecure. I would heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from throat or lung trouble.

Fredericton,

PRESENTATION TO W. H. NEWSOME.

On the occasion of his birthday the employees of Newsome and Gilbert Toronto presented Mr. Newsome, who is a well known Charlottetown man, with a handsome parlor clock accompanied with the following address.

Toronto, Nov. 2nd, 1903.

We, the office employees of your Firm, have met together at your home this evening, Mr. Newsome to celebrate with you your birthday. When we consider the kindness you have shown, and the favors you have done for us from time to time we feel it would be almost an injustice on our part to let this, your birthday, pass unnoticed, and will therefore ask to you accept this clock as a small token of our esteem. As the hands and the wheels of the clock turn around, the wheels of Fate and Fortune also revolving will separate some of us from the others. No matter in what sphere of life it pleases God to place us we shall always remember with pleasure our connection with you, Mr. Newsome. Although progress has often increased our labor yet there has never been a time when we could not find a few hours for recreation and social enjoyment.

We have met together on many occasions both of sorrow and pleasure, and we have always found you to join with us as a friend and brother. We trust that years to come will bring to you and Mrs Newsome continued prosperity and happiness.

All good be yours this year and ever,
All happiness abound;
With many a brave and strong endeavor
By prosperous issues crowned;
And sympathy of hearts that feel
And ever faithful prove
Your aims to aid, your griefs to heal
With ministering love.
