Rev. J. W. Kirby, pastor of the Methodist church, Hopewell, who is conducting a series of fortnightly sermons on the Women of the Bible, delivered a very edifying discourse on Sunday evening on Miriam, or Watching at the Cradle of Greatness.—St. John Telegraph.

As great interest centres around the temperance cause in this Province, The Guardian publishes today the report of the Grand Worthy Patriarch, Rev. E. S. Weeks, Bideford, instead of the regular weekly sermon. The report is a splendid one and should be widely read.

The missionary anniversary of Oxford St. church, Halifax, will be held next Sunday 21st, when Rev. Dr. Jabez A. Rogers, of Sussex, N. B., will preach at both services. In the afternoon the formal re-opening of the Sunday school rooms will take place and in addition to exercises by the school, Dr. Rogers will give an address.—Wesleyan. Dr. Rogers is known to many in this Province.

At the City Police Court yesterday, Vincent Power, George Rodd and John Yeo, appeared charged with causing a disturbance on Elm Avenue some days ago. A large number of witnesses were examined and after quite a quantity of contradictory evidence had been digested Power and Yeo were discharged and Rodd was fined five dollars or thirty days. The sentence was suspended, however, pending good behaviour.

It is a painful duty to announce the death of Mrs. Allan McDonald, Harmony, which took place at the Charlottetown Hospital about two p. m. Nov. 19th in the 68th year of her age. The deceased who had been in good health up to last summer was taken ill with rheumatism and despite the best medical aid and all that loving hands could do, she gradually became worse and it was decided to remove her to the Charlottetown Hospital, but death claimed her and she peacefully passed away in the presence of her oldest son and two youngest daughters. She was attended in her illness by her devoted pastor Rev. R. B. McDonald and died strongly fortified by the last rites of the R. C. Church. A husband four sons and three daughters are left to mourn the loss of a model wife and mother. A large procession followed her remains to St. Mary's Church, Souris, where a Requiem mass was celebrated by the Pastor after which she was respectfully laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the bereaved family. Other papers please copy.

There has been some anxiety felt concerning the tug Islander which left here on Wednesday 1st for Vernon River and which had not arrived at that port up to a late hour last night. Captain Sangster has reported from Georgetown having put in there at twelve on Thursday night.

The King's Business Mission will have service in the Salvation Army Barracks this evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Elliott will preach and Mr. Nattzger will sing. The offering will be for the S. Army work. Everybody invited.

Persons unable to get No. 133, The Guardian news department, by phone at any hour are asked to ring 124 as it is useless to call up any other number. In the interim, between the hour of closing Saturday night and that of opening in the early morning of Monday, communications and news can be dropped in the letter box of The Guardian in the main entrance, and further enquiries can be made by phoning above.

Three drunks were fined four dollars each in the police court this morning. One of the prisoners was Mathias Butler, who was arrested on the Pacific express when it arrived yesterday afternoon. He was bound from Prince Edward Island to Fredericton and was an annoyance to the other passengers on the train. When he arrived here he was asleep and without a ticket and had not enough money this morning to pay his fine. St. John Star.

The usual Annual Celebration of St. Andrew's Day, under the auspices of the Caledonia Club will be held on the evening of November 30th, in the spacious rooms of the Club, Victoria Row. The program will consist of patriotic speeches, Scottish songs, pipe music and dancing. Refreshments will be served. Only a limited number of tickets have been issued, to be had of the following committee: Charles Webster, James Paton, S. A. McDonald, W. A. Scott, and A. McDonald.

The Rankin Dry Dock Company, on Arthur Hill, Staten Island, opposite Elizabethport, N. J., has sold to the Staten Island Shipbuilding Company the drydock, 130 by 65 feet, which it was building for its own use, and this dock will be at work early in November in the lower yard at Marine's Harbor. The Rankin Company will at once start to build another drydock of the same dimensions for its own use, and as Mr. Rankin himself has had a long experience in the construction of drydocks, will make a specialty of same on contract. Also build all kinds of wooden boats and haul and repair them.—Marine Journal, New York.—The Mr. Rankin referred to above is a brother of Mrs. John Williams, Upper Prince St., City, and can be appropriately termed "a successful Islander abroad."

Lamp-light will not be satisfactory if the burner be old, burnt out or dirty, if the wick be clogged, or if you use inferior oil. With your lamp in good order and MAYFLOWER OIL which is especially prepared for household use, you will have the best light for the eyes known to man. 10-23d11.

Some "worth while" offers in Mink Marmots

a cheap fur that's trim, ladylike and wear resisting

IT'S SO EASY TO GET enthusiastic when we commence talking over this fur department of ours—that we often describe too many things—use much space and space in this Guardian costs much current coin of the realm.

So this time we devote our fur talk to "PIAR FIOT." This is handsome brown fur—marked like mink, warm, graceful and durable and one of which we have a very heavy stock chosen from some makers who were willing to give us very special prices to get our order. Now for example,—

Nice little scarf pretty shap., rich brown, finished with head and five tails..	Plain throw over scarf satin lining rich soft brown great value at.....	$4.75	$5.00
Nicely marked mink marmot scarf, finished with tails and claws length 76 inches	Wide stole brown satin lining 6 tails trim pretty fur, great value at.....	$6.75	$7.00
Hand some stole, wide at neck and shoulders, long fronts, 8 tails handsomely marked..	A handsome caperine cut so as to fit close up round neck, rich, soft brown cord and tails	9.75	10.25
Better and larger marmot uck Russian Fitch—up to	pieces—also pretty brown		14.00
Our leader, flat style wide mink marmot muff, prettily marked special at	Handsome marmot muff pillow style, 2 heads and 4 tails, fine value at	5.00	5.75
Dainty little marmot muff, trim styles finished at side with large head and two small tails	Kug muff of mink marmot very large, lined with satin finished with heads and tails.....	6.50	9.50

And you'll do well to remember that Marmot just represents one little corner in what is about the best equipped fur department in P. E. I. Squirrel—Fitch—Sable—Mink—Persian Lamb Fox—all the right sorts are here—and at our one low "net" no discount saving price just compare—it is comparison that is bringing us in the big business.

We're retailing cotton blankets at Wholesale price

THE TRAVELLING REPRESENTATIVE OF ONE OF the biggest Montreal wholesale houses dropped into our House Furnishings department yesterday. He saw the line of cotton blankets of which we have been selling so many—and remarked—"you are selling these to your customers as cheaply as I can sell them to the stores" So we are—and it is just a sample of our expert buying methods—that is all—we were able to buy this line at a price away below the market—we divide the advantage with you—and trust to great big swift selling to bring us out right on the deal.

Ordinary Size	85c pr	Large Size	98c pr

This is the regular ten quarter size, fine, firm and soft, white or grey with pink or blue borders while they last you can have them at, per pr..... 85c

This is the eleven quarter blanket soft firm and velvety—fine weight, regular 1.25 goods, grey or white with pink or blue border, per pr only..... 98c

Great Lot of the Extreme Size much larger than the others—$1.25 pr

People use these blankets for all sorts of purposes—some folks use them as bedding—most do. Some folks use them as dining table silence cloths, a good idea. And, here is the limit, some folks cut 'em up for underwear, when you think it over that's a wise one also. However, we don't care what you DO with them, so long as you BUY them and we assure you that they will not be here many days. 1.25 pr.

Choice offering in Neck Furs

Never before had we such a beautiful collection of Neck furs, as this season. They come direct to us from the best Furriers in Canada and have the latest touches of style and novelty.

We want you to see what we call style and value before spending a cent for furs of any sort. We insist on generously good qualities throughout with the assurance of absolute satisfaction with every sale.

See our Mink Sets and separate pieces

People who have seen our Mink furs say they have seen nothing to equal them, both a regard to the richness of the fur, the handsome marking and the moderate prices asked. We have been most successful with Mink, furs this season, and if you intend purchasing only think on mink furs. We extend a special invitation to see what we can show you. We invite comparison.

MARK WRIGHT,

How can Moore & McLeod afford to sell ties for fifty cents same as other stores sell at 60c to 75c? Maybe Moore & McLeod cannot afford to—that makes no difference, the important thing is to see that you get your ties where the little price rules.—Moore & McLeod. 11-12d11

A Cracker-Jack, 10-4 & 11-4 Cotton Blankets at 75c and 85c a pair, and hundreds to choose from. Patrons. 11-19d11

The big warm all wool blanket that we offer at 4.25 is a pure wool. It is finished very much like the old fashioned blankets that grandmother used to make, and that wore until a couple of generations had used them. Made by sturdy Scotchmen for islanders who want best values $4.25 just compare them with the best 5.00 value a yw-h-re else. Moore & McLeod 11-13d11
