IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JANE S. HOBBS.

The Haverhill Evening Gazette of Jan. 12th contains the following reference to the death of Mrs. J. S. Hobbs, a lady well known in this Province and an aunt of Mr. Harry Stetson of the P. E. I. R. The funeral of Mrs. Jane Stetson Hobbs was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Luther J. Cate, 4 Linwood Street, this afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Arthur C. Lyons, pastor of the Riverside Memorial church, and Rev. Arthur J. Derbyshire, pastor of the North Congregational church. The bearers, who were the grandsons of Mrs. Hobbs, were: Harold Brown, of Newton Centre; Harland Cate of Beverly; Stanley Cate of Boston and Malcolm Cate of this city. The burial was in Walnut cemetery.

ROBERT G. BOYLE, DIED JAN. 15.

The following clipping from a Johnsbury exchange has been received by Mr. A. W. Boyle and Mr. E. H. Boyle, of Glenwood, Lot 8, brothers of deceased:

Robert Gordon Boyle, one of Johnsbury's oldest citizens, died last Friday at his home on First Avenue, after a week's final illness of pneumonia, during which he was confined in bed. He has been in bad health for the past three years as a result of a stroke of paralysis.

Funeral services were held from his late residence Monday afternoon, at two o'clock, the Rev. Ginder, pastor of the M. E. Church, of which the deceased was a faithful and consistent member during almost all his life, officiating at the short services. Interment was made in the Lutheran Cemetery at Wardville. His wife died the 5th of March last.

Deceased was born in Bathus, Nova Scotia, in 1831, having been 83 years of age last August. At an early age he removed with his parents to Prince Edward Island, where he was married and was a resident for a number of years. About 25 years ago he came to Osceola, and about 18 years ago came to Johnsbury, where he was constantly employed at the Clarion Mills, which old age made it necessary to lay down the stern duties of life. He is survived by six children, as follows: Mrs. Mary Dawson, Mrs. Ellen Sharon and Miss Lillie Boyle, all of Prince Edward Island; Mrs. Ada Webb, Brockton, Mass.; Mrs. Emma Jinks, Johnsbury; and one son, W. D. Boyle, of New York City. Among those from out of town who were here to attend the funeral were W. D. Boyle and wife of New York; Mrs. Ada Webb of Brockton, and Mrs. Chas. Hancock of Phillipsburg.

MR. EWEN CAMPBELL.

Entered into rest at his home in Charlottetown on the morning of Feb. 1st, Mr. Ewen Campbell in the 65th year of his age. Although never of robust constitution, the late Mr. Campbell enjoyed comparatively good health until a week before his death, when he took his bed and gradually

The Court meets again this morning.
PROMOTION—By a letter received in this city, written from Salisbury, we learn that Lieut. Frederick B. McTear has been given command of the battery of quick-firing guns attached to the 12th Battalion, Canadian contingent. This battery is capable of firing 1,800 shots per minute, and is manned by 35 men. It was necessary for the officers in command to take a course of training in the handling of these guns and later were obliged to take a written examination at headquarters, in which Lieutenant McTear made full marks in all subjects. Previous to the war Lieutenant McTear was in the United States, and when Britain declared war he immediately wired the military authorities here offering his services. His many friends here will be glad to hear of his promotion.

IDLENESS ANNOYS INTERNED SAILORS.

A member of the British Naval Brigade interned in Holland writes from Groningen:
 Our life out here is far from rosy, being most dreary and monotonous, but hardly as bad as some of us try to make out. I am in the power of the authorities in being done for our comfort; but it is the utter meaninglessness of life here which annoys one; it is absolutely time wasted. At present here sleeping accommodation is overcrowded, and we being dreadfully tired, for instance in the morning I am in at present there are sleeping 52 men of all kinds and classes, whereas the room is only supposed to hold 28 men, so you can judge what the conditions are like. I understand, though, this is to be rectified; a "hut colony" is at present being erected for our accommodation.
 Christmas this year for me was somewhat trying, being the first I have ever spent from home. I turned out at 7.30 a.m., breakfasted at 8.30, at which, to our great astonishment, instead of the usual brown bread, white was issued. At 10.15 a morning service was conducted by our Mission for Seamen chaplain. My ward has a very best to cheer us all up and look forward to the bright future which should be before us; poor fellow, he too has had his full share of misfortune through the war, his home having been destroyed in the East Coast raid. After service each man received a number of souvenirs from Queen Mary and the Weekly Despatch. At 1.30 p.m. dinner was served, and consisted of soup, turkey, ham, two vegetables, Christmas pudding, fruit, sweets, and cigars. My afternoon was divided equally between playing dominoes and sleeping.

A GREAT SUCCESS—The skate at St. Dunstan's College last evening was a success beyond the most sanguine expectation. About two hundred people left Charlottetown by the special train at 7.15 for St. Dunstan's. The excellent rink, which was enlarged last summer, was profusely decorated with streamers, red, white and blue, spruce, etc., giving a most artistic and beautiful effect. On an excellent sheet of ice and with the exquisite music furnished by the 82nd Band the skaters enjoyed themselves in the fullest measure. Hot coffee and cake was served during the evening. The skate was one of the best, if not the best, ever held at St. Dunstan's. The train brought the excursionists back to the city at 11.15. The ladies of Saint Vincent de Paul Sewing Circle, who promoted the skate, feel gratified at the result and wish to tender their sincere thanks to the rector of St. Dunstan's and to the 82nd Band, which gave its services and rendered a superb programme, free of charge; also to all those who helped in any way to make the affair the grand success it was.

SLANG TO TELL OF BEING KILLED

LONDON, Jan. 15.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—For the past few weeks a controversy has been going on in the public forums of the newspapers as to the origin of the soldier's phrase, "going west," as euphemism slang for "death." Antiquarians, philologists and literary men have come forward with explanations, tracing the phrase variously to Druid mythology, Anglo-Saxon corruptions and verses from the poets. But a young officer now claims the following prosaic solution as the real one.
 So far from being ancient, the officer writes that "going west" is quite modern. During the annual manoeuvres at Aldershot some years ago, he says, a mounted staff officer galloped past a command, shouting in a high pitched, queer sounding voice to the commanding officer, "Tell the general that I have gone west."
 The staff officer's monotonous, high voice and personality so easy to ridicule, touched the humorous sense of the men who began to use "going west" as a synonym for passing away in any sense. If an officer's bath water has been kicked over, his orderly tells him it has "gone west." The phrase is used by soldiers in regard to the most trivial incidents. The fatalities of the present war brought "going west" into current use for dying or being killed.

BIBLE THIEF MUST READ BIBLE IN JAIL

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 2.—Harold Lane, twenty, was sent to the County Jail to remain for thirty days, and during that time he must read the Bible from cover to cover.
 The sentence was imposed by Judge White when he appeared in court to answer a charge of violating the provisions of a probationary sentence. Two weeks ago Lane took a number of Bibles from a local church. The judge told Lane he could choose between going to the County Jail for thirty days and studying the Bible during that time, or going to the penitentiary for several years. Lane preferred the jail.

THE PEOPLES' THEATRE has a Fantomas Who is the murderer? The Inspector of Police, Fantomas? These were the questions asked by the Paris Press at the People's Theatre last night. The three reels are full of mystery, escapes and captures. Sentiment is so strong against the inspector that the Commissioners ask for his resignation. But crimes still go on and there are more robberies. Bob, claiming to be an American detective, comes to Paris to fathom the mystery. He makes little progress, with the exception of finding the body of the murdered bank messenger. Throughout the three reels one is kept constantly guessing and many attended the People's Theatre in order to place their names on a firm basis. This will be done next week by the Board. It is also hoped that a great many friends in the country will support a work which is doing so much for the country boys.

THE PRINCE EDWARD—"David Garrick" was the title of the feature shown at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday in three parts. It was the story of an actor whose personality despite the efforts of his rival, one of the nobility, won for him the love of a beautiful lady of society. Ellaline Terris and Seymour Hicks, two of London's greatest favorites, interpreted the leading roles of this excellent photo-play. A film entitled "Breaking Into Jail" which kept the audience in a real laughing mood. A gripping detective drama shown was "The Detective's Strategy." It was a pleasing offering. "Slow But Sure" was a third drama equally as good as the others. The comedy portion of the bill was abundantly supplied with two numbers "The Financier" and "Breaking Into Jail" which kept the audience in a real laughing mood. The humorous song "As I Had Nothing Else To Do" by Mr. Huskins, fairly brought down the house. On the whole the programme was an excellent one well deserved of the large patronage it received.

Y.M.C.A. BOARD MEETING

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors was held at the Association Hall last evening, with the following members present: Messrs J. K. Ross, A. C. Duchemin, J. D. Zeaman, J. A. Clark, Dr. Ayers, J. R. Dinns, C. H. B. Lawrence, J. T. McKeown and Secretary Cross. The Secretary's report showed that the work of the past month had been satisfactory. The total receipts for the month were $248.80, and expenditures $246.00. It was reported that the net receipts of the "Lost Paradise" entertainment were $100, of which the Association received half, or $50. There was in addition to the $100 received from the ladies who sold the surprise packages. The estimate of receipts and expenditures for 1915 were presented by the Finance Committee. After a thorough discussion it was decided that a definite effort should be made at once to secure a new business manager, members in order to place the work on a firm basis. This will be done next week by the Board. It is also hoped that a great many friends in the country will support a work which is doing so much for the country boys.

KAISER SEEKS TO INFUSE COURAGE

LONDON, Feb. 2.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen, the correspondent of the Star transmits an address delivered by Emperor William to a regiment of his Rhine and soldiers. These came principally from Cologne, and according to the version current at Copenhagen, the Emperor addressed them as follows:
 "I expect you Cologne boys to march into your famous old city again with your heads high, so that your girls can be proud of you.
 "When the infantry is attacking with the bayonet and driving the enemy in front of them it is a fine deed, but to endure artillery for months requires a special kind of courage. You have proved your bravery in this respect, and I am happy that the Cologne boys have justified the high military reputation the Rhine corps enjoyed in the olden times."
SELF EVIDENT.
 "Has the play you are speaking of got a punch in it?"
 "It ought to have several. The hero is a prize fighter."
MAKING A POINT.
 "My boy, is the girl you are going to marry a good plain cook?"
 "No, uncle; she's a good pretty one."

A GREAT PROBLEM.

"What was your office boy looking so thoughtfully about this morning when I came in?"
 "He was trying to make up his mind whether he would fill my inkstand or not."
