

TWO DAYS — TODAY & SATURDAY

PRINCE EDWARD

ACROSS THE PLAINS TO ELECTRIFYING ADVENTURE!

Inside the thundering stagecoach sit two women and seven strange men . . . tense with the sense of danger on every side. Each with a hidden secret that will amaze you when it is revealed!

STAGECOACH

A WALTER WANGER production • directed by JOHN FORD with CLAIRE TREVOR • JOHN WAYNE • Andy Davine • John Carradine Thomas Mitchell • Louise Platt • George Bancroft • Donald Meek Berton Churchill • Tim Holt . . . Released thru United Artists

ALSO: NEWS—OUR GANG—CARTOON

Daily 3:15—7—9 P. M.: Saturday Mat. 2:30

DAILY 3:15 — 7:00 — 8:45 P. M.

CAPITOL—Today AND SAT.

SAT. MAT. — 2:30 P. M.

FLIGHT OR FIGHT?

No one knew his name... but they remembered the sound of his gun. Roaring romance of the old West of its fighter's best!

Zane Grey's "HERITAGE OF THE DESERT"

A Paramount Picture with DONALD WOODS EVELYN VENABLE

EYESIGHT EXAMINATION Fitting and Supplying Glasses Etc. H. J. MABON OPTOMETRIST

Zane Grey's "Heritage of Desert" At The Capitol

Gun play, fierce fighting, ruthless treachery and tender romance—all expertly interwoven by Zane Grey—came to the screen of the Capitol Theatre last night when "Heritage of the Desert" had its local premiere.

The tenderfoot is almost murdered by his treacherous representative when along comes a kindly, pious rancher who saves his life from an agonizing death in a quicksand pit. The rancher's daughter nurses him through the crisis. Not much time is left for the tenderfoot to discover his benefactor. A jealous cowhand tries to make things tough for the rancher but only succeeds in ruining his own chance.

"Stagecoach" At Prince Edward Today And Tomorrow

A chapter out of the making of the west, unfolds when "Stagecoach" opens today at the Prince Edward Theatre. This new production, an epic of frontier adventure, of a band of men and women in the days when America was young.

When those passengers who have survived the attack at last reach Lonsburg still further adventures are in store, and in a suspenseful denouement they find the happiness or tragedy that has been waiting for them.

The Central Guardian

This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a newsy nature may be inserted at 5 cents a word strictly payable in advance.

THE HOME FRONT IS THE FAMILY KEEL

It is intact by helping the Boy Scouts.

FUNERAL TOMORROW

The funeral of the late James P. Duffy will be held from his late residence 340 Euston St. on Saturday morning at 9.40 to St. Dunstan's Basilica, thence to R. C. cemetery.

POLICE COURT—In the police court yesterday morning a drunk was fined $5.00 and costs or ten days in jail and a second, a female, received a similar sentence.

WILTSHIRE VALENTINE SOCIAL

A Valentine social was held at the home of Mrs. G. B. Noye on Thursday evening, February 15th. The social was brought to order by singing O Canada. The remainder of the meeting was spent in games and contests which soon whittled away the evening. Admission amounted to $7.00. Lunch was served at the close of the social.

WILL RETIRE FROM MINISTRY

Rev. E. S. Weeks, Millstream, N. B., expects to retire from the active ministry in June next when he will have completed thirty-seven years. Mr. Weeks will take up residence in Sackville where he has bought a home. His only daughter is in the Civil Service, Ottawa, and his younger daughter Jean, this spring graduates from Dalhousie University in the Department of Social Science. Both hold B. A. degrees from Mt. Allison.

RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

Rev. E. S. Weeks, Millstream, N. B., has been informed that his son Ernest, has been appointed as Senior Assistant Specialist in the Department of Empire Affairs, London, England. Mr. Weeks is a graduate of Oxford University, being a Rhodes Scholar for N. B. During his course at Oxford he specialised in Economics. He has travelled extensively in Europe and has a knowledge of several foreign languages, which he will find a great advantage in his new and responsible position. Mr. Weeks graduated from Mt. Allison in 1933 with high honors in Economics. He and his wife visited Canada in 1938.

JERSEYS IN AUSTRALIA

A few years ago the Charlottetown Jersey Club purchased the imported Jersey bull, Wonderful Standard 278. His name will be pleased to know that he is owned by W. J. Hammond, Roselliff Farms, Narellan, New South Wales, and named Roselliff Noble Marvel and Roselliff Dreaming Biddy. These, according to information from the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club, are outstanding animals and are not to make a real contribution to the ever increasing popularity of the most popular dairy cow "down under"—the Jersey.

ON VOYAGE

Word was received here Wednesday from Mr. Arnett Ives formerly of Montague, who is in Tripoli, Syria. Arnett, who is a noted globe-trotter, left Halifax about Dec. 1st last and on the Imperial Oil tanker S. S. "George S. Jones" and sailed to Southampton, England. It is reported that he is owned by W. J. Hammond, Roselliff Farms, Narellan, New South Wales, and named Roselliff Noble Marvel and Roselliff Dreaming Biddy. These, according to information from the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club, are outstanding animals and are not to make a real contribution to the ever increasing popularity of the most popular dairy cow "down under"—the Jersey.

Y'S MEN HEAR ADDRESS

The weekly meeting of the Y's Men's Club was held last night, Mac Irwin presided, Dick Hurst and Frank Timney were guests. Frank Timney, president of the Camera Club, outlined the activities and aims of the club. He discussed photography as an art, pointed out with a painting, he pointed out that the artist painting with oils has much liberty in the choice of colours and in the form of what he represents, but in the camera, the artist is limited in his choice and grouping of his subject and in the finishing of the picture. A first class photograph can make a print having all the appearance of a fine old painting. Through the Camera Club has been organized only a comparatively short time they have made very good progress. They have about sixty prints on display this week in the Harris Art Library.

BROTHERS MEET AFTER 23 YEARS

Up in British Columbia, on Hardy Island, is a hardy son of Prince Edward Island, born in Summerside, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Bazil, who will be remembered by the "old-timers" in that town. Thomas B. Bazil came West many years ago. Being a true-southern young man, he was given the care of all the animals and birds on the British Columbia Islands. The greater part of the year "Tom" Bazil is the only human resident. During the summer months many tourists visit here. The birds and animals know and love their keeper so well they eat out of his hands. The owner of Hardy Island is Mr. L. A. Macomber of San Francisco. During the Christmas holidays Mr. Bazil had the great pleasure of meeting his brother, Frank, and wife, who came from their home in Alberta to Vancouver. Thomas and Frank had not met in 23 years. The latter is a rancher and cattleman. Another brother, John, lives in Edmonton, Alberta. (Oakland Maple Leaf.)

RELIEVE HEAD AND CHEST COLDS with DR. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL

Soothing and Healing. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS FOR MORE THAN SIXTY YEARS. H. H. ASQUITH in British House of Commons praised "gallant and efficient work" of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

J. M.'s MEATS

"Good Meat & Fish" For YOUR Order, Phone 81. J. M. ROOP, Prop. Market Building

Red Cross

Annual Meeting, Canadian Legion Rooms, Monday, March 4th, 8:00 P. M.

Change Of Address

Dr. J. P. Millar has changed the location of his Dental Offices. New address 127 Grafton Street, Phone 434.

Trinity United Church

FRIDAY, MARCH 1st. 3:30—6th Browns—Social Hall. 7:00—Scouts. 7:00—Choir Rehearsal—Hertz Hall. 7:00—Choir Rehearsal—Full attendance requested. 8:15—Y. P. U.—Hertz Hall.

SIGNALERS LEAVE

A group of Signalers attached to the 8th medium battery left for the mainland yesterday. They were under the command of Lieut. Regis Arsenault and sig. Sgt. Rahanan.

HOLD DINNER

A very enjoyable dinner was held in the room of the Old Spain by the Canadian Club last night. Mr. Alex W. MacMahon presided. Mr. Malcolm Macdonald was the principal speaker and he gave an interesting talk on Robert Burns.

BLOOD DONORS CLUB MEETS

The Blood Donors Club of the Charlottetown Hospital held their quarterly meeting in the lecture hall of the Nurses' home last evening. The speaker was Dr. J. D. MacGuigan who gave an instructive address on the chemistry and circulation of the blood. A report of the work done by the club was read by the Secretary, Mr. L. Corcoran and a very beneficial discussion followed which showed the interest these young men are taking in this work which the hospital is doing in this line.

ONE SNOW PLOW WORKING

One snow plow went into operation on paved roads in the county yesterday. It was learned here from the office of the Provincial Department of Public Works and Highways. The plow widened cuttings between Charlottetown and Upper Airport and broke through clogged with drifts of snow. The city on the Malpeque highway leading to Summerside. All other highways in the province remain blocked with drifts of snow. Hillsboro Bridge, closed since February 12 for re-planking, would be open by next Wednesday unless unfavorable weather caused further disruption of the work, it was announced.

JUDGMENT IN CHANCERY

In the Court of Chancery yesterday Judgment was handed down by Albert C. Saunders Master of the Rolls in the suit of Daniel J. McNeill Complainant and Violet E. Crocker and Harold Crocker Defendants setting aside with costs a Deed of property in Souris made by Mary McNeill the step-mother of the Complainant in favour of Violet E. Crocker. The said Mary McNeill had previously made a will in favour of the Complainant bequeathing him the said property. J. A. Macdonald, K. C., and M. Alban Farmhouse were solicitors for the Complainant and Donald McKinnon, K. C., for the Defendants.

PERSONALS

Miss Mercedes Flood, South Melville, spent a pleasant week end at 65, the guest of Miss Blanche Murray.

MARRIAGES

The many friends of Mr. Daniel McFadyen, F.R.S. Sectionman, Hunter River, regret to learn that he is confined to his home through illness.

War—25 Years Ago Today

March 1, 1915—Prime Minister H. H. Asquith in British House of Commons praised "gallant and efficient work" of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

N. D. MacLean

Undertaker Embalmer. Charlottetown and North Wilshire. Phone 149.

Sudden Passing Of Mr. Arnold Rattenbury

The sudden death of Mr. Arnold Rattenbury, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rattenbury, who passed away at his home shortly after partaking of dinner yesterday came as a severe shock to his family and friends.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

Former Island Man Passes In No. Dakota

The Dickinson State Teachers College and Western North Dakota mortuary has announced the passing of an educator, R. E. Smith, 59, history instructor at the local institution since 1927, who passed away at his home in Dickinson, N. D., on April 8, 1939, and came to the United States in 1903. He was a graduate of Prince of Wales college and St. Dunstan's university in Charlottetown, P. E. I. He was an active member in Modern Woodmen of the World.

BIRTHS

JARDINE—At Freeport, P. E. I. Feb. 1940, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jardine, a daughter, Hazel Adele.

MARRIAGES

MILLAR-McNEVIN — At the Mansie Hotel on Thursday Feb. 22nd, 1940, by Rev. D.J. Morrison, Ralph Nelson Millar and Reta Muriel MacNevin, both of Victoria.

DEATHS

GALLANT—In Dorchester, Mass. Feb. 21, 1940, Michael J. beloved husband of Marion McAskill.

DEATHS

GALLANT—At Rusticville, on Feb. 28, 1940, George Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ayle M. Gallant, aged 3 years, 8 months.

DEATHS

RATTENBURY — Suddenly at Charlottetown, Feb. 29, 1940, Arnold Rattenbury. Funeral from his late residence, 21 George St. tomorrow Saturday at 2 o'clock. Funeral leaves at 2.30 p. m. Interment People's Cemetery.

DEATHS

GALLANT—In Dorchester, Mass. Feb. 21, 1940, Michael J. beloved husband of Marion McAskill.

DEATHS

GALLANT—At Rusticville, on Feb. 28, 1940, George Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ayle M. Gallant, aged 3 years, 8 months.

DEATHS

RATTENBURY — Suddenly at Charlottetown, Feb. 29, 1940, Arnold Rattenbury. Funeral from his late residence, 21 George St. tomorrow Saturday at 2 o'clock. Funeral leaves at 2.30 p. m. Interment People's Cemetery.

Social Evening

Young Men's National Conservative Association with the pleasure of the attendance of the ladies at a social evening at the Conservative Committee Rooms, Grafton Street, Friday, March 1 at 8 o'clock.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

Last Written Work Of Lord Tweedsmuir Is Message To Boy Scouts

TORONTO, February 29—Believed to be the last thing written by Lord Tweedsmuir, a draft of the speech which he was to have given at the Boy Scouts' banquet, was distributed to the guests at the request of the Lady Tweedsmuir. In the draft of the speech, which the Governor-General had neither finished nor corrected, he suggested to the Scouts that "it is our business to link up our Scout training more closely with the practical problems which are facing our growing youth."

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

RELATES TRUE BEAR STORY

Related By Neil Banks Of Olympia, Wash., Formerly Of P. E. I. (In Oakland Maple Leaf) During my young days on Prince Edward Island, my father owned a farm bordering the shore of the beautiful Grand River East. There I spent many happy days. We could walk along on the eel grass at low tide and pick up a basketful of lobsters. Finally we had a trap and catch mackerel. Long before I left home the Yankee seiners and lobster canners sent us to deep water.

OLDER BOYS ARE NEEDED

In looking at our figures I have

Another Outstanding Old Dutch Silverware Offer

Once again Old Dutch has added another silverware to the already long list of units that have proved so popular in the past in the form of a Hollow Handle Desert Server. This lovely Server is 9-1/2" long, made of the celebrated Wm. A. Rogers Pure Silverplate by Onida, Ltd., and is really a most fascinating piece of silverware. It's in up-to-the-minute style for the correct serving of cakes, pies, ice cream, biscuits, salads, etc. The "Hollow Handle" pattern, handsome Hollow

Girl Guide News

THE 6TH GUIDE COMPANY Will all Guides of the 6th Company be at Headquarters on Friday at 3.30 p.m. for a sleigh drive. Bring your picnic lunch and hot cocoa will be served. Remember girls on Saturday there will be an opportunity to pass your stalking and tracking.

Dictators Scored In Bonnell Sermon

Hitler and Stalin were listed among the most dangerous types of individuals in the world by the Rev. Dr. John Sutherland Bonnell yesterday morning. Preaching in a sermon at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, at Fifty-fifth Street, he explained this type of individual as one who never admits the possibility of error, who never confesses that he is fallible and human.

SPECIAL NOTICE 7TH COMPANY

Will the guides who planned to go to Guide Headquarters for a sleigh drive on Saturday be pleased to note that arrangements have been changed. They are to go on Saturday at 5.30 p. m. Please be prompt.

The Eastern Guardian

This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a newsy nature may be inserted at 2 cents a word strictly payable in advance.

MAGISTRATE PASSES

PICTOU, N. S., Feb. 29—(CP)—Spendary Magistrate Peter Fraser 85, died in hospital today. He suffered a stroke in court Feb. 21 and never regained consciousness.

DEATH OF REV. ALFRED NICHOLSON

(Canadian Press) NEW YORK, Feb. 29—Rev. Alfred Nicholson who was a Minister of the Presbyterian Church here from 1891 to 1916 when he retired to engage in general insurance business, died Tuesday, aged 77. He was born on Prince Edward Island, in 1853, and graduated from Dalhousie University. Halifax.

THE SECRET... of Goodheat IS DOSCO COAL

You'll get plenty of heat with less work - and save money on your fuel bills - if you use DOSCO Coals, and stoke the way your dealer advises. Test it and see. Order a ton now.

DOSCO COAL

DOMINION STEEL AND COAL CORPORATION LIMITED Halifax, Sydney, Saint John, Moncton

DOSCO COAL

Buntain & Bell & Co. Charlottetown Distributors for P. E. I.