

THE NEW OVERLAND

As Water Cushions the Canoe, Overland 4 is Cushioned from the Road by the Hundred and Thirty Inch Spring Base

The exclusive new Slanting Springs give Overland 4 a degree of Riding Comfort formerly thought impossible in a light car. They make all roads SEEM smoother. They free passengers from fatigue and discomfort. They preserve the car from strain and wear.

These Springs, diagonally attached at the ends of a 130-inch Spring-base, gives the Overland 4 the riding ease and road steadiness of large, heavy cars of long wheel base.

Yet Overland 4 has all the driving ease of 100-inch actual wheel base.

The thorough quality and endurance of this unusual car have been proved in 250,000 miles of tests under every possible condition.

Equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting System to Demountable Rims.

You must ride in the New Overland 4. The longer you ride in it the more you will like it, and praise it.

WE BELIEVE

THAT THE NEW OVERLAND 4 IS THE BEST CAR OF ITS CLASS IN THE WORLD. WE ARE STRONG IN THIS BELIEF. BEST IN ITS CLASS IS A STRONG PHASE, ISN'T IT? BUT NOT TOO STRONG TO SUIT THE CAR.

THIS CAR

..... Alone of all cars built in Canada meets the demand for the inherent advantages of the small car-lightness, economies of operation and upkeep, and driving ease. It is built throughout of the very finest materials and with the quality of workmanship heretofore associated only with a small group of cars of extreme size and weight.

NO CAR

Takes precedence over the New Overland 4 in ultra-smartness of design, beauty of finish and completeness of equipment. You will appreciate the performance of this car with the new 130-inch Spring Base and the deadening effects, with which the Slanting Spring takes a blow from the road.

FOR THE FARMER, FOR THE MILLER

or for ANY PERSON who needs to carry goods or produce, in the Car. The upholstering in the rear compartment can all be snapped out or replaced again in a few seconds, and the car is again ready for passengers. It's the only car we know of in which this can be done. It is the only car we know of with springs which cannot be broken except with a sledge.

THE PRICE

The price of the five-passenger New Overland 4 Touring Car, with spare tire and tube, and complete set of tools, jack and pump is ..... $1355.

The New Overland Four Roadster, with the same equipment is the same price. $2255

Th Two-passenger Coupe $2105, and the Sedan .....

We have opened an office at 130 Great George Street, near Crabb's Corner; also a Show Room at the McKinnon Drug Co. Corner. At either place we shall be glad to meet you, and to show you the finest line of cars and trucks in the province.

Card to the Electors

Ladies and Gentlemen, Electors of the City of Charlottetown; -

Not wishing to seem premature but being convinced that there is no time like the present, I take advantage of this opportunity of making known my position, re Civic Politics.

I have been interviewed by many prominent citizens and believing them to be good judges of the Civic pulse, after due consideration I have decided to nominate as a Candidate for Mayoralty honours at the forth-coming Civic Election.

My record for the past two years is an open book. I have endeavoured to give to the City my best and have tried to uphold the dignity of the office. Having had a most strenuous two years, I am of the opinion that a second term may be in order.

If I have the honour to be re-elected, I can assure you Ladies and Gentlemen, I shall as before have the best interests of our City and Citizens at heart, ever endeavouring to promote any and every feasible measure that may arise, whereby our City may be benefited.

I thank you most heartily for your support in the past and the many honours shown me.

It is almost impossible for me to interview you all personally. I therefore take this opportunity of soliciting a continuance of your confidence and your votes.

I remain

Yours respectfully

G. D. WRIGHT

The Woman Who Loved and Earned

BY JANE PHELPS
A Modern Story of Home and Business

CHAPTER XXIV.

Robert's people lived in the West. He had left home when quite young and had drifted away from them so that he had not even heard from them for years. His father and mother were dead, and his only sister, much older than he, had married and left the place her parents lived when he was a small boy.

"Look at that Gerry," he said handing me a letter, "I had forgotten there was such a person."

I opened the letter and turned it over. It was signed, "Your aunt Felicia." Then I commenced to read:

"My dear nephew Robert, I expect you will be very much surprised to hear from me, your mother's younger sister. I shall be in your town in a few days, almost as soon as this letter can reach you and shall look you up. Naturally you will not remember me, as you were a babe in arms when I last, and first, saw you. I hope you will be glad to see one of your mother's kin, and that you have grown up to be the sort of man she would want you to be if she had lived. Your aunt Felicia."

"Well!" I said. "I suppose we will have to make the best of it, but I could have survived if she had not renewed her acquaintance with the 'babe in arms' she calls me. I remember mother did have a sister of that name. I wonder if she is Miss or Mrs. I can't remember, and nothing she says in that note tells us."

"Do you suppose she intends to stay long?" I was rather terrified at the idea of this visit. "Goodness no! How can she? If we were keeping house she might, but not here."

"I felt like saying I was thankful we were there if it would prevent his aunt making a long visit, but caught myself in time. After all she was Robert's aunt; almost the only relative he had in the world. If he wanted her to remain, it was my business to be nice to her. So I replied:

"She may like it here. How old is she?"

"Oh, about fifty anyway!"

"Two days afterward when I reached home Robert was there and so was Aunt Felicia."

"Geraldine, this is my aunt, you remember she wrote she was coming. Aunt Felicia, my wife."

As I shook hands with the tall, eagle eyed woman whom Bob had just introduced, I did not wonder he had not called me "Gerry." Pet names would not appeal to a woman of her type. I felt sort of dazed and helpless as I looked at her stern forbidding face, and noticed the erect, uncompromising way she sat in the straight backed chair.

"I'll be ready for dinner in a moment," I said as I took off my hat.

"Do hurry," Robert said in an anxious tone, "we have been waiting some time for you."

"It is something to which I never have been accustomed. A man waiting his wife's pleasure as to when he should dine," she remarked acidly. "The wives I have known have usually been the ones to wait—if waiting were necessary. But young women are not like they used to be."

I hurried until she had finished then waited to tidy myself. I felt like groaning aloud. "What in the world should I do if she decided to remain some time with us? I felt it would be nothing less than a terrible calamity. I was sure of it when, as I joined her and Robert, she said:

"In my days young married folks didn't live in boarding houses. Young women nowadays think of nothing but gadding and clothes," she looked at my stylish serge dress with scorn. "Geraldine is a business woman, you know, aunt Felicia," Robert said, "and they have to look pretty nifty."

"I do not approve of married business women. A woman's place is at home if she has a husband. There are single women enough in the world to take care of all the business women should do. A man needs a lot of steadying. And no woman can look after a man and a business too. Don't you earn enough to support your wife newbew?"

"Indeed he does!" I broke in. "But I worked when I married; him. I love my work, and there is no earthly reason I should not continue it. Robert and I think alike about this."

"Then I have nothing more to say," she looked keenly at Robert. He flushed and seemed about to speak, then changed his mind.
