FAREWELL GIFT.—Mr. J. Leigh Walker of Harrington, leaves this morning to join the Royal Canadian Air Force at Toronto as medical orderly. For the past two years he has been night orderly at the Prince Edward Island Hospital. Prior to severing his connection with that institution, members of the nursing staff presented Mr. Walker with a travelling set. It was accompanied by their best wishes.

TRINITY YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION—The regular weekly meeting of Trinity Y.P.U. met at the usual hour in the Social Hall. The devotional period was in charge of Howard Christie with Louise Cox at the piano. After the business period, during which the minutes were read and several items of business discussed, the group dispersed for classes. These were followed by the games period and an enjoyable sing-song which brought the meeting to a close.

JOIN R.C.A.F. — Seven recruits to the Royal Canadian Air Force left here yesterday for training elsewhere in Canada. They were: Joseph Nicholson, Aero Engine Mechanic, Charlottetown; Wendell M. L-141-12-7-11

THE BAPTIST CHURCH—The Rev. I. Judson Levy, B.A., will take as the subject of his morning sermon "The Word Became Flesh." The morning anthem will be Roberts' "Rejoice In The Lord." The Church School meeting at 2.30 offers its cordial invitation to all. Mr. Levy at the evening service will take as his subject "Stand Still a While." Elvey's "Lord We Pray Thee" will be the evening anthem.

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC.—A mild epidemic of influenza is prevalent in Charlottetown at present, and many citizens are confined to their beds with attacks of the disease. Dr. B. C. Keeping, Deputy Minister of Health, last night described the sickness as a "mild type of influenza." He said that the province is free of other infectious diseases at present. The epidemic of measles, which visited the city and parts of the country recently, has been cleared up, he added. Not only are civilians victims of the "flu" visiting the city at present, but it has also made heavy inroads in the ranks of the military units stationed here. Twenty-five members of the Veterans' Guard of Canada, stationed at the Drill Hall, were confined to their beds yesterday with the malady. Twelve of these are patients in the City Hospital. Many of the trainees at Beach Grove Inn have also been the victims of the attacks. However, at the training centre the disease has passed its peak and most of the boys are back on parade again after remaining in the hospital and their quarters for several days.

FAREWELL GREETINGS — In referring to the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens who arrived Wednesday to make their home here the Truro News says:— "M. and Mrs. A. S. Stevens of the Stanley House, Truro, left on the Ocean Limited Wednesday morning for Charlottetown, where they will take up residence at the Queen Hotel for an indefinite length of time. A delegation of friends were at the train to wish them bon voyage. Telegrams and letters were received before their departure, among them a fine tribute from Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fraser of Halifax. Mr. Fraser has leased the Stanley House with option for a period of five years. The telegram read as follows: "Goodbye Good Luck and God Bless You. Remember that the Stanley House is always your home. We look forward with great pleasure to your visit in the Spring and in the meantime we shall try hard to live up to that excellent standard laid down for us by Arthur and his mother before him. We trust you shall be pleased with our endeavors. Kindest personal regards, signed Graham and Jean Fraser."

The WEEK at S.D.U.

[illegible] a period of intense activity, the members of the staff of Red & White have completed their different departments, and the Magazine has gone to the press, December 5.

* * *

The Grade XI, X and Commercial classes were the only public speaking group to hold a meeting during the week. The program was a true-and-false contest in which all the members took part. The Moderator, Rev. Oswald Murphy, expressed satisfaction at the efforts of the members during the year and assured them that everyone had made real progress in the art of public speaking.

* * *

The ranks of the C.O.T.C. have been reinforced during the past week by a draft from the High School years. For those who are not enrolled in the latter, a cadet corps is being formed under the direction of Mr. T. V. Holland.

* * *

Basketball holds the spotlight in athletics at St. Dunstan's at present. Games are played nightly in the rink. The senior team defeated the Bombers 39-32 on Saturday.

In Memoriam

MR. HENRY ALBERT HAYES

There passed peacefully to his eternal rest on November 6th Henry Albert Hayes.

Born at Vernon River, on July 9th 1865 he was the last surviving member of the family of the late William Hayes and Mary (Dowling) Hayes. He had been in failing health for the past year, but was never known to murmur or complain.

He possessed a fine sense of humor and always looked on the bright side of life.

The late Mr. Hayes had been janitor of the Bank of Commerce for twenty-eight years where he performed his duties honestly and efficiently.

He was frequently visited by his pastor who administered to him the last rites of the church.

He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow (nee) Annie Hughes and one daughter, Mary to cherish the memory of a kind and loving husband and father.

To them we extend our sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow.

The funeral was held from his late residence 45 Grafton St., on November 8th to St. Dunstan's Basilica, thence to the R. C. Cemetery, Reverend Father Dougan officiating.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. James Bradley, Joseph Stordy, William Stordy, John P. Martin, Harry Germans and James Brown.

May his soul rest in peace.

Interpreting the War News

(By Kirke L. Simpson, Associated Press Staff Writer)

The unexplained "resignation" of Marshal Pietro Badoglio, Italy's no. 1 soldier, as army chief of staff stirs conjecture. He stepped out or was forced out at a critical moment in the ill-starred campaign against Greece.

That hints of war policy discords at home to cap the army disaster in Albania. Even if there is a belated explanation that Badoglio's retirement was due to ill health or advanced age, that would not obscure the possibility of dissension at Rome. Only his assignment to field command against the Greeks could still speculation as to a grave policy split with his chief, Mussolini.

The veteran soldier may be a victim of Mussolini's need for a military scapegoat to clear his own skirts of blame for the Greek fiasco. It must be dawning on all Italy by now that her Axis partnership with Germany has led her to a disaster of incalculable consequences at home and abroad.

Even if Badoglio got out merely to give a younger man the director generalship of Mussolini's campaign to "break Greece's back" at any cost, the implication remains that he disapproves the methods selected.

The timing of operations to retrieve lost prestige against Greece could be the bone of contention. Badoglio is an old school soldier, probably not greatly impressed by the Hitler military "daring" which Il Duce has so extravagantly eulogized.

London has rumbled for many days with portents of a major British offensive against Italy. The Fascist high command, from Mussolini down, must have been losing sleep over that and the debacle in Greece.

Political and military exigencies well may be in sharp conflict in Rome's policy making. Italian armies in Egypt as well as Albania have been imperilled. The unfavorable impact of Greek victories on Axis politico-military manoeuvring in the Balkans is obvious. It is emphasized by Turkish and Bulgarian resistance, Russian tongue-in-cheek waiting for developments and Spanish aloofness from the Axis war orbit.

A policy split between Mussolini and Badoglio might turn on just when and how Mussolini's "break Greece's back" pledge is to be fulfilled. If the policy now to be pursued calls for immediate massing of a huge new army in Albania for a winter campaign Badoglio's successor will have his hands full.
