LOCAL BRIEFS

SONG SERVICE. at the Gospel Meeting in Prowse's New Block to-morrow afternoon at 3.45. Strangers always welcome.

A NUMBER of citizens were reported seriously ill last night, among whom were Mrs. F. Hayden, Capt. Jones Anderson, and Miss McLeod, Prince Street.

At a meeting of the Council of the Provincial Rifle Association held last evening it was decided to hold the annual prize meeting at the Kensington Range on Wednesday and Thursday August 9th and 10th.

M. W. McDonald, "Dalvey" and Col. Orr with their families came as far as Royalty Junction last night. A special train was in waiting to take them to Bedford where they took carriages for Tracadie.

THERE will be no meetings in the church of Christ, Upper Great George Street, until further notice. The building is undergoing extensive repairs, receiving attention alike from both carpenters and painters.

THE funeral of the late Miss Day took place yesterday afternoon at the People's Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. H. J. Cundall, Patrick Blake, Samuel Love, J. D. Seaman, R. L. DeBlo's, Theo. Moore. The service was conducted by Rev. J.T. Bryan.

At the police court yesterday Thomas Byers, charged with being drunk, disorderly and fighting, was fined $2 or 10 days. The Liquor Regulation summons against George Offer, was dismissed. A man charged with treating was fined $3 or 20 days.

A GRAND tea will be held in connection with the Presbyterian church of Tryon, Hampton and Bonshaw on the manse grounds, Hampton, on Wednesday July 19th. A committee has been appointed to carry out the arrangements and everything will be done in a first-class style. Refreshment tables and amusements of all kinds will be provided.

THE Halifax left on return to Boston yesterday afternoon. Her outward passengers were: Miss McDonald, Mr. R. M. Berran, W. L. Walker, Mrs. J. Carver, Mr. Gibbons, Miss Knudson, C. T. Aldrich, W. L. Hancock, Miss Potter, Ida May Potter, J. P. Graves, Mrs. J. R. McKee, A. Brown, Mrs. I. J. Vail, Mrs. Flynn and children, Mrs. A. Began.

A LARGE number met Rev. Mr. Teadale at the first meeting in his official capacity at the prayer meeting in the lecture room of the First Methodist church last night. Mr. Teadale is a very pleasing speaker and no doubt will make himself very popular, especially with the young people. He is of the evangelistic type and is very fond of singing. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the hearty reception accorded him, and said it made him feel quite at home already.

THE Railway Men's Christian Convention will be held in St. John N. B. on Friday August 25th to 27th.

THE North Sydney Herald says: J. McLeod, merchant, Summerside, P. E. I., and a well-known horseman, and owner of Minnie, is in North Sydney attending the races.

ALL the members of the W. C. T. U. are requested to meet in the W. C. T. U. are requested to meet in W. C. T. U. Parlors this Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Important business to be considered.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—The committee of young people in charge of St. James' picnic, yesterday, wish to express to the children, to the members of the congregation, to all friends who came, and also to those who did not come, their sincere regret for the very unpleasant day. Also to say that they very reluctantly consented to start, as it would be impossible to carry out arrangements, or to enjoy the benefit of their beautiful grounds, which cost much time and expense. Also to thank Mr. R. W. Cox, the railway officials and friends for the many favors extended.

A VERY pretty wedding took place at the residence of Robert Bowness, Esq., Montrose, on Wednesday, July 12, when Miss Lilla J. Bowness of Alberton, niece of Mr. John Bowness, was united in marriage to Mr. Henry B. Hardy, son of Mr. Robert Hardy of Hills River. Relatives and friends of the contracting parties to the number of about fifty had assembled by 7 p.m., and awaited in the parlor the coming of the bridal party. The party entered as Miss Lena Clark of Alberton, played the wedding march in a very effective manner. The groom was accompanied by Mr. Thomas Hardy and the bride by Miss Eliza R. Weeks. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. John Goldsmith of Alberton, the guests repaired to the spacious dining room and did ample justice to the bountiful spread of good things provided for them. The evening glided swiftly and pleasantly away as the younger people enjoyed a promenade in the extensive and beautifully kept garden adjoining the house, while their seniors spent an equally pleasant time rehearsing interesting reminiscences of the years gone by. The friends of the bride evidenced their loving interest in her future welfare by the numerous and costly presents which she received. Mr. and Mr. Hardy propose to make their home in the United States, where they have already spent some years. Their absence from and loss to their native province will be a decided gain to their adopted country, where we have no doubt they will soon take rank as successful Islanders abroad. They certainly take with them the best wishes of their respective communities.
