—SUMMERSIDE EAST end slip is being put in shape for the winter traffic, and it is to be hoped that the bushing of the ice in the harbor and bay will be attended to promptly.

—GOOD SLEIGHING—About six inches of snow fell here on Monday night, it is now beat down so well that sleighing in the town is good. Heavy banks of snow are reported from parts of this section.—H.

—CITIZEN OBSERVER requests the attention of the city fathers to the conditions of the steps of the city building, and if the staff already employed is not sufficient to remove the snow after each storm, he suggests that they re-instate one at least of the officials recently summarily dismissed.

—RINK OPENS—Crystal Rink was opened for business on Monday night, with a good sheet of ice and a large crowd of skaters. There was hockey practice on Tuesday night which will be followed on New Year's night by a special skate.—H.

—SMELT FISHERMEN BUSY—The vicinity of Holman's Island in Summerside harbor reminds one of the Yukon gold rush. Quite a thriving community of smelt fishing shacks having grown up almost overnight and large catches of smelts are reported, bringing good prices to the fishermen which means a big lull in work generally this season of the year for fishermen is scarce.

A man's shady past will not benefit him much in the good old summer time.

The heart of a flirt resembles a crowded street car—there's always room for one more.

It is unnecessary to put a lot of money into some friendships to make them last.

E., Mr. Willie McCabe, student of St. Dunstan's University and Miss Hannah McCarthy, teacher of Montague West. Mr. Earl Gorman acted as chairman. DICKY DIPPY'S DIARY

FRIDAY: LAST NIGHT I MADE UP MY MIND TO CALL ON EDITH FAY'S FATHER AND ASK HIM FOR HER HAND. I DOLLED UP FOR THE OCCASION.

AT THE DOOR I MET EDITH AND TOLD HER WHAT I INTENDED TO DO. "OH, DICKY!" SHE SIGHED. "ARE THOSE YOUR BEST CLOTHES?"

"YES," SAID I, PROUDLY, "MY VERY BEST."

"THEN I THINK YOU'D BETTER COME TOMORROW NIGHT AND ASK HIM AND WEAR YOUR OLD CLOTHES."
