THE YOUTH MOVEMENT PARADE

The Youth Movement Parade will be held on this coming Sunday that is, on April 26. All Scouts are expected to be at the Market Square at 3.30 p.m. sharp in full uniform so that the Parade can move off at 4.00 p.m. Cubs will not be on parade, Leaders please note this.

spirit of the Dance and became real jacks, while Shere Khan and Mowgli did exceptionally well.

The story of Mowgli, the first part of the First Jungle Book, and that of Kaa's Hunting have been practically completed, and the Program is enjoyed very much by the Cubs, and also, that the stories help a great deal in creating a Jungle Atmosphere.

On March 27th, two new Chums, Merrill Doyle and Tommy Harper were invested and took part in the Grand Howl for the first time. Donnie Doyle was invested on April 27th. These new Cubs, without doubt, will be a credit to the First Wolf Pack. They are already having a "fine time in the Jungle of Cubbing."

The following is a list of the tests passed since February, and, although the leaders feel that it is not a very good showing, considering difficulties encountered in regard to meeting place, the lack of older boys etc. it is not too bad.

One Star Tests—Union Jack: Keir Gynon, Rol Gynon, Joe Kays, B. Quinn and Francis Zaken.

There are now ten boys in the Pack and it is intended to enlarge it in the near future.

The First Wolf Pack now meets at the Holy Name Hall. The Names of all Cubs and New Chums will appear in the next week's news.

Lots of Fun, Songs, Exciting Crime Romance in "Week-End in Havana"

Tropical magic, catchy Cuban rhythms, warm blooded sentiment, dark eyed romances, are neatly combined in the story of the "sing-sational" new 20th Century-Fox musical which opens Monday at the Prince Edward Theatre.

With Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, John Payne and Cesar Romero in the starring roles, the film is set in the capital city of our Latin-American neighbor and shows Havana with all its beauty in the naturalness of Technicolor.

Alice portrays a New York sales-girl who has carefully budgeted herself for several years in order to treat herself to a Havana vacation. When her ship is caught on a reef, she refuses to sign a release to the shipping company until she is as had—and enjoyed—her Havana vacation. The company's representative, John Payne, postpones his wedding to make sure she has a grand time.

In a magnificent Havana night club, the exotic Carmen Miranda, who has captured the admiration of American film audiences in her previous screen appearances with her unusual songs and dances, does a spectacular new number with 2000 feminine dancers—"The Nango."

Mack Gordon and Harry Warren have written five new tunes for "Week-End in Havana." "The Man with the Lilypop Song," "A Week-End in Havana," "Tropical Magic" and "The Nango." "Romance and Rhumba" was written by Gordon and James V. Monaco.

The featured cast of "Week-End in Havana" includes Cobina Wright Jr., George Barbier, Sheldon Leonard, Leonid Kinskey, Martin and Billy Gilbert. It was directed by Walter Lang from the screen play by Karl Tunberg and Darrell Ware, and produced by William LeBaron.

RUSTICO

THE CHURCH IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

We Must Cling to it Now for Strength and Guidance

For 2,000 years the Christian faith has been a light burning in the darkness of a troubled world, a guide and a beacon to all men everywhere.

It has survived because, through all the ages, the Church has been its shelter and its shield. To the Church the people have turned for strength when they were sorely pressed, and for guidance when the way was dark.

We, who walk a dark and dangerous road today, must turn to the Church for strength.

We, who loved peace, are now at war. We are building the machines of war—the tanks and guns and planes and shells and ships, without which we cannot conquer.

Yet all these things that we are building cannot insure our victory. For victory demands of us a greater strength than mass of men, and weight of guns. It demands of us a strength of the spirit that only the Church can bestow. A strength that stems from the unfaltering faith that Right will triumph; that hate and cruelty cannot endure; that mercy and compassion and brotherhood some day will rule the world.

If we go into battle without that faith we go as a nation strong only in the externalities and the trappings of war. We go as spiritual skeletons in armor, a robot host without a soul.

Our sons and brothers who walk daily with death in the steaming jungles, and ride with death in the air and on the seas, have learned already how great is the strength that comes from within.

Sir Stafford Cripps says: "There must be a new intention and determination to carry into all the activities of our daily life the fundamental teachings of the Bible." Soldiers on a firing line learned this when at first they cried: "Send us bombers" and then changed their cry to: "Send us bombers and Bibles." They learned that the man who fights in the name of God fights best of all.

They know it now. We too must learn it. As a nation we must learn it if we are to bear the hard trials, win the grim battles, and when victory has come, write the just peace that will endure.

The doors of the Church are open. The light of the Faith still burns. The altars await a nation that bows its head to God—and in that act of humbleness finds strength to hold its head up proudly against whatever foe may come.
