EXTRADITION OF KAISER AND FELLOWS

Law Officers of the Crown Have Concluded That Extradition of ex-Kaiser and His Fellow Criminals is Within the Right of the Allies. Three Indictments for Murder Already Filed Against Them.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—It is understood that the question of the extradition of the former German Emperor or is being considered by British law officers of the Crown who are working in close co-operation with the French authorities. Action on the premises was taken immediately after the flight of the former Emperor to Holland. The Evening News says it understands the law officers have concluded that the Allies are entitled to demand the extradition of the former Emperor and that this decision applies also to individuals who have committed or given instructions for the commission of extraditable crimes. It is added that Holland has taken the view that she has not power to surrender such persons without the consent of Germany. The French premier M. Clemenceau recently requested of Charles Lyon Caen, Dean of the Faculty of Law of the University of Paris an opinion on the possibility of the extradition of William Hohenzollern, M. Lyon Caen asked to be given time to prepare a decision. The former Emperor has been indicted three times for murder in England in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania, German aerial raids and the shelling by warships of unfortified towns.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Dr. W. S. Solf, German Foreign Minister, has asked the Allies once more for a mitigation of the armistice conditions and has requested permission to delay the delivery of railroad rolling stock under the terms of the agreement between Germany and the Allies until February 1st on the ground of difficulties caused by bad conditions and lack of lubricating oils. Dr. Solf indeed has already resigned, according to a despatch to L'Information from Zurich which takes this report as seeming to indicate that his success in the semi-official advices from Berlin made out. This account in fact; the Zurich message states, is received skeptically. There it is reported that there were violent demonstrations on Monday evening in Berlin against the conference and especially against Dr. Solf and Matthias Erzberger.

ENORMOUS GROWTH OF CANADA'S REVENUE

Nearly $300,000,000 for Fiscal Year and Will be sufficient to Meet Interest on Debt and Pay Off $100,000,000 of Year's War Expenditure

(Special to the Guardian) OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—The Dominion revenue for the fiscal year ending March 31st 1918, as a result of the success of the business profits tax, income and other taxes, will reach nearly three hundred million dollars. This will be sufficient to meet the interest on our debt, the pensions on our debt, the pensions at the rate of a hundred million or more a year. However without doubt some of the taxations such as the war profits taxation will have to be dropped next session.

THE HEART GONE OUT OF GERMAN

Berlin Demoralized and Hungry With a Feeling That Nothing Matters. Fanatics Taking Advantage of Situation

(Special to the Guardian) BERLIN, via Copenhagen, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Strange are the experiences of a traveler who enters Germany after an absence of several years. Formerly there were many and varied governmental orders and restrictions to be obeyed. Now days when you go to a police station the desk sergeant will say sadly "you are not required to register any longer," and not even look at your passport. Another feature of the "new freedom" in Germany which may dumfound the traveler, is that the private soldier no longer salutes his superior officers. The soldier calls his officer "comrade." Berlin outwardly is as orderly as ever, but order is no longer maintained by the policemen, but by soldiers with armbands as the badge of office. The picture is familiar to those who saw Petrograd during the Kerensky regime. Hunger has set its unmistakable stamp on the inhabitants of the capital. Here and there hollow cheeks, sunken eyes and pasty complexions are evidence of the privation of the last four years. Similar conditions could be observed two years earlier in the city's poorer quarters, but today they prevail among nearly all classes. Deplorable street cars and cabs drawn by skeleton horses intensify the picture of misery. Berlin crushed, broken and dispirited with almost incredible apathy. It is demoralized, listless and hungry, even subject. It is primarily this apathy and the feeling that nothing matters which are playing into the hands of a few energetic fanatics who constitute probably the gravest menace to the immediate future of the German people.

Many of them have been released by the Germans or given passes by soldier's and sailor's committees and have reached the American lines.

SUPREME COURT AT SUMMERSIDE

In the Supreme Court at Summerside yesterday the case was heard of the King vs William J. Jones, who was charged with having, at Brocton, Prince County, on the 1st day of August last assaulted Joseph Clements, so as to cause him actual bodily harm. Mr. Wyatt, representing the Attorney-General prosecuted and Mr. Saunders defended the prisoner. The evidence for the prosecution was that on the day in question a number of men including the prisoner and Clements were drinking beer in a shack owned by one Bella Jones. A man named Charles Jones, a cousin of the prisoner started a row and Clements tried to stop him, when the prisoner's brother Alfred interferred. There was a scuffle between Alfred and Clements and the prisoner kicked the latter in the side, inflicting injuries which developed into a case of peritonitis. Clements was operated upon in the Prince Co. Hospital where he remained for five weeks. The prisoner ordered having kicked the prosecutor, Drs. Chamption and Kier gave evidence as to the injury sustained by Clements. The jury found prisoner guilty of common assault owing to the uncertainty from the doctors evidence as to whether the kick was responsible for the peritonitis from which Clements afterwards suffered. They recommended the prisoner to mercy. The court adjourned to 10.30 this morning.

HORRIBLE CRUELTY TO BRITISH PRISONERS

(Special To The Guardian) LONDON, Nov. 26.—Many shocking stories of their treatment are told by British prisoners who have reached England from Germany. Unfortunate Britishers who arrived at Friederichsfelde, Prussia, after hostilities ceased had a hard lot. They had been taken prisoners shortly before the British advance and were compelled to work behind the lines, being driven from place to place like something lower than beasts. Of one working party of 1800 only 232 came into Friederichsfelde. From twenty to thirty daily went into hospital and fifty died during the first week of the party. Several of the men said that they caught snails and ate them while on the march.
