ISLAND SOLDIERS QUITE CONTENTED

The following interesting letter has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Carter from their son, Grove, who has a wide circle of friends here:

Nov. 8, 1915.
Dear Father and Mother—I got your letter yesterday. I am glad that you are all well. I am sorry that you did not hear from me for such a long while, but I don't think it has been my fault. I have written you at least each fortnight and have generally sent a couple of cards between each letter.
But you need not worry about me in the least. So far as my health goes I never felt better in my life. I have gained over twenty pounds in weight since you saw me last. Some of the boys were just saying this morning that I must have a pull with the cook, it was getting so fat. I generally get enough to eat, though after some meals I do sometimes wish I were home to finish up.

We moved out of our first position about a week ago and we have been moving about almost ever since. Our guns are now in position outside a large town. This town (I can't tell you its name) once had a population of nearly 50,000 people. Now it is a mass of ruins. One of the most magnificent cathedrals and other buildings, but now these are all "labeled with shells. All the people are gone too, as it was too unsafe for them to remain. The Germans are dealing the town every day and only today two went right over our stables and landed in a house only a few yards behind.

I am not up with the guns now. I have been left behind in charge of the C. Staff and B.C. Staff horses at the horse lines. The horse lines are about two miles back behind the guns and so far as I know out of range of the German shells.
There was a German aeroplane over us yesterday and as he could not help seeing our position, we have been kind of expecting to see a few German shells land in among the horses. Still they haven't come yet and I don't think it likely they will either. I don't know how long I will be down here. I sure would much rather be with the guns. I guess I will be going up in a few days.

This is about the best place we have struck since we landed in France. We are in a little village much cleaner than the rest of the French towns I have seen. There are a couple of little shops here to where we can buy some stuff. We can't do much buying though as we have received only five dollars in the last two months and so everybody is broke.

We expect to be here for some time and so we are trying to get things fixed up as best we can. At present we are sleeping in tents and I tell you they are not very warm. We have to get up to sleep in the winter. I haven't slept in a house since I landed in France. Still I don't care a rap where I sleep so long as I am dry and warm. In one place we stopped at the rats were so thick that when one of the fellows woke up at night he saw three of them running all over me. But I was asleep and never noticed them.

I got the socks O.K. They sure are dandies. The socks we get here last about two days. We get plenty of clean bath quite often and a change of underwear about once in two weeks. Excuse this paper. I am right out of stationery and had to burn this. I sent that $20 you sent me to London for a raincoat and hat. We got a lot of rain here and a fellow needs them. Hope those rubber boots are coming. I sure need them. I don't need anything else very badly, dad. If you would send me a couple of dollars once a month I would be happy as could be. But be sure to send it in postal notes. Don't worry about me.
Love to all,
GROVE.

PERSONALS

SUPREME COURT AT SUMMERSIDE

The second part of our duty is to see that with the means God has provided us with we will see that the family of a boy who goes to the front does not suffer. I need not suggest that there is not a particle of manhood in a man who would not do both things. We may need more money for the Patriotic Fund. Pardon me for speaking of myself. I have been distributing it for a year and I know to whom the money is going. I signed every cheque for the money spent, and I knew the widows and orphans and mothers and wives. In the last year nearly $7,000 was spent. It went to the women and children suffering by reason of their sons and husbands and fathers at the front, and we want more money. I want you to bear in mind that you have two duties; send your boys; pay up your money.
The Grand Jury then, at about 12 o'clock, retired.

A number of non-jury cases were disposed of in the forenoon and after dinner, before the Grand Jury returned.
The Grand Jury came into the Court at 5.30 p.m. and reported true bills against Stapleton and Souler. Benjamin Souler was arraigned on two counts and pleaded not guilty. A Bench warrant was issued for the arrest of Stapleton, who had escaped from the jail at Alberton where he was in custody awaiting trial.
The Court was then adjourned to 11 a.m. to-day, when the cases of the King v. Benj. Souler will come up for trial.

DIARY OF TRIP ACROSS THE POND

Beattie H. Carr, of Summerside, has received the following letter from her cousin, Vincent E. Carr, who left here the 24th of last May to train for overseas service, and is now in England:

Oct. 31st, C. Company, 55th Battalion, 3rd, Contingent, Bramshot Camp, Liphook, Hants, Eng.

Dear Cousin—Just a line to let you know that the starting of the trip was leaving Val Cartier Camp. We got ready to leave on Friday but were stopped by rain. We had all our stuff out in the lines and I was on guard over it. Then we shifted into the tent and the rain drove us out of there, leaving Val Cartier Camp. We got to the Rhaki Club that night. Then we got ready at 1.15 a.m. the battalion formed up, but the rain was still coming down. We had all of our Oliver equipment on and kit bag. We were there for some time, then moved to the Rhaki Club that night. We walked to the station, where two trains were waiting for us. There was an A and B Company started off on the first train, and C and D Co. followed shortly after. We arrived in Quebec, left the train and went into the station. We were there for half an hour, then went aboard the boat. The name of her is the S. S. "Corsican." We then got our room number and got our load off, then went up to deck. We left Quebec at 9.30 on Saturday evening and sailed all that night. At 8.30 Sunday morning a mail boat came out and collected and delivered mail, then we started on our voyage on the bright blue water. This is as far as we have gone yet.
Well here I am again. It is now

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feeling make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.
Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a highly-concentrated oil-food, free from harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes.

A CHILD HATES DR. CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS" IF CROSS, SICK, FEV. ERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.
With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them. Stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy, they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

9.30 Sunday evening and we are still sailing on; I am writing the trip as we go. It is very nice so far and hope it will be the same all the way over. Well, it is a good place to sleep, we have a spring bed, and lots of good food too. Well, I shall close for this time, and if you ever get this letter you will know how much I write at a time, so I will go to my bed.

Now this is the 1st of November, Monday afternoon. We have had a good trip as far as we have gone. We have met four steamships, and there is one out from us now, but there is no sign of land. All we can see is the bright blue waves. There are some sick but not very many. All the island boys are in good cheer, and enjoy the trip. Well, as I said before, I am just writing this letter as we go over the raging sea. We have a little band music every day.

There are no escorts with us yet and the ship is gliding through the water so noble and true.
On the 2nd day of November, it has rained through the night and has been misty all the morning till 10.30 and the sun came out for an hour or so, then it settled down to a fog, and has continued so all day. The boat blows about every three minutes, but all that can be seen is the blue water. It is nice and smooth, not much more than a nice breath of air, and as we were gliding along this afternoon, we were called on deck to get paid, but it was the sum of five dollars. Shortly after that we were called out to our places on deck, where we had to gather when we got the signal of danger. I hope that we will have luck to see the Old Country. Well, this is the third day on water, so I will close this time.

Nov. 4th has been foggy all the forenoon but cleared up at dinner time with a nice warm breeze. The following afternoon and night was clear but the forenoon on the 5th was very foggy. It was so dark we could not see any more than twenty feet from the boat. That was the darkest it has been yet, but it has cleared up this evening.

Nov. 6th. It is a little cooler, with a good breeze. It is some rough but not as bad as it might be.
This is Sunday, the 7th, and a nice day. I think I shall close this time as we may land Tuesday and will not have time to write, that is if we get there.
We are living in hopes of landing safe, but it is a long trip to be expecting to go down any time through the night, but haven't seen a German yet. That is not so bad, but we are in the danger zone now, so you see the war is a large business. However, there is no sight of land yet and this is 6 days that we have never seen land. Believe me it is some puddle of water.
Well, I am sending the picture of the boat we are sailing on. It is a P. C. so I shall close this time. The mail will be sent back as soon as we land. Before closing may say I am in good health and trust all the family are the same. So hoping this letter will reach its destination, I remain
Sincerely,
Your loving cousin,
VINCENT E. CARR.

Sale of Island Fox Pelts In New York

I am leaving for New York on or about December the 20th, and will be glad to take with me any fox pelts which Island breeders have for sale, and dispose of them to the best advantage in New York. Being well known to the fur trade, I am in good position to do this.

No sales will be made until prices offered me have been accepted by the owners. There will be no charge of any kind exacted. NOT EVEN HOTEL EXPENSES. Only silver black, standard-bred foxes will be considered. My sole aim is to further the fox industry and I am willing to incur the necessary expenditures to this end in New York out of my own pocket.
