STEWART-DALTON

—A very pretty marriage was solemnized at St. Mark's Church, Lot 7 on October 16th, when Jean Ann, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dalton of Burton, Lot 7, became the bride of Thomas Stewart and the late Mr. Stewart of West Point.

The ceremony was performed and the nuptial mass celebrated by the Rev. Eric Robin, pastor of the church, in the presence of immediate relatives and interested friends. The youthful bride was lovely in a floor length dress of white satin and net. She wore a shoulder length veil caught up with a crescent of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a three strand string of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a white prayer book with satin streamers. The bridesmaid, Miss Audrey Howard, wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta and a halo of roses with veil. The diminutive and dainty flower girl was little Mary McGregor, who wore a dress of white rayon crepe and veil, and carried a basket of autumn flowers.

The groomsmen was Mr. Leonard Stewart.

The bride and her attendants advanced to the altar to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Bennet Howard. During the nuptial mass hymns were sung by the Children of Mary choir with little Shirley Howard as soloist during Holy Communion.

Following the mass the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents where breakfast was served to the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The guests of honor included Rev. Fr. Robin and the bride's grandmother of Boston.
