

Free from Alcohol Since May, 1906, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been entirely free from alcohol. If you are in poor health, weak, pale, nervous, ask your doctor about taking this non-alcoholic tonic and alternative. If he has a better medicine, take his. Get the best, always. This is our advice. We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our preparations. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

We never had such beautiful ferns in stock at this season as we have now. Call and see them. Jas T. W. Jr. 2-26d11

On Wednesday and Friday evenings of this week there will be a special choir practice in Hampton Hall for E. Tenneyson Smith's meeting.

The funeral of the late William T. Riley took place Sunday at the People's Cemetery and was one of the largest for some time. Rev. Hammond Johnson conducted the funeral service.

The death took place at Leyfield, Holly Road, Refr., of William Huet Holl, former of B. dae ore, T. rear, Assau, India, aged 74 year, deceased was a brother of Henry A. Holl of this city.

Rev. Jas. McDougall will preach (D. V.) at Coleman, on Wednesday and Thursday the 27th and 28th, at 7.30 p. m. and on Sabbath the 31st at D. Stable at 10.30. Argyle Shore at 3 and Canoe Cove at 7.

BENJAMIN McINNIS, who had been quarantined for smallpox writes the papers concerning some misstatements as to his going to a party at Fort Augustus. He thinks his illness due to taking cold after over-exhausting himself playing hockey. He says he was used well, however, and gained seven pounds while confined to the house.

JAMES F. AND MRS. STEVENSON of Fredericton received the sad tidings a few days ago of the death of their son, Clarke A. at New Westminster B. C., after a brief illness of a few days. The deceased was an estimable young man of 20 years and left home on his harvest excursion of Aug. 19. A much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents in their sad affliction.

Last night a young man brought to The Guardian the $10 bill lost on Saturday evening and advertised in this paper yesterday morning. When the owner of the bill was having his ad written on Saturday night he said he had heard of another party finding a lost $10 through The Guardian, and he thought he would give it a trial. He will be gratified, doubtless at the success of his ad, and probably be a sound believer in advertising in The Guardian.

The winter steamers are again held up in the Straits by the drifted pack ice, which has been massed together by the North east wind, and in which both boats have been caught and surrounded. The Stanley left Pictou yesterday morning and got as far as Pictou Island, and the Minto which left Georgetown yesterday morning for the mainland got only to Cape Bear. It is expected that a change of wind will be necessary to release the steamers.
