

FOUR $500.00 PIANOS AND TWO $150.00 ORGANS GIVEN FREE

ABEGWEITS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Election of Officers For Ensuing Year—President's Report

The annual meeting of the Abegweit Amateur Athletic Association was held last evening, there being a specially large attendance.

ANGLO-GERMAN EMBROGLIO DISCUSSED WITH VIGOR

LONDON, November 28.—The house of lords to-night discussed Anglo-German affairs, without arriving at any fresh revelations, Lord Courtney (liberal), attacked the government, and Lord Morley, of Blackburn, and Lord Lansdowne defended it.

SIR CLOUSTON WILL RESIGN

MONTREAL, Nov. 29.—(By wire)—It is generally understood that at the annual meeting of the Bank of Montreal shareholders next week Sir Edward Clouston will signify his desire to be relieved of his active duties owing to the poor state of his health.

MANY PASSENGERS TO CROSS ATLANTIC

ST. JOHN, Nov. 28.—Passenger figures given out tonight indicate that the steamer Empress of Britain will take away nearly thirteen hundred people on Friday.

CANAL NEARING COMPLETION

TORONTO, November 28.—The celebrated Newmarket canal is within a mile of completion and unless the federal department of public works rules otherwise, the present staff of engineers with one hundred men will complete the job within six months.

MISSIONARIES SAFE

TORONTO, Nov. 28.—A cablegram today reached Rev. R. P. MacKay of the Presbyterian offices in this city, from the city of Cheng, North Homan, informing him that all is quiet at the missions there.

BERLIN, November 28.—The newspapers which publish the full text of the speeches delivered yesterday in the house of commons by Sir Edward Grey and Mr. Asquith are rather pessimistic as to the chances that they will improve Anglo-German relations, although they consider that it is not necessary that they will make them worse.

According to the Lokai Anseiger the speeches of the British cabinet show that "English policy continues to follow the same old course. Sir Edward Grey does not make any further attack on Germany, but he has not diminished the unfriendly effect of the actions which occurred in summer."

The Tagedblatt says: "Sir Edward Grey and Mr. Bonar Law were right in saying that an Anglo-German war would be so terrible that it should never be considered unavoidable. All reasonable people are sure that it is (Continued From Page 12.)"

LARGE STEAMER LONG OVERDUE

ST. JOHN'S, Nov. 29.—(cBy wire)—The Norwegian steamer Tellus, the largest ore-carrier in the world, which left Rotterdam 28 days ago for Wabana, Nfld. is not yet reported and fears are felt for her safety.

CANADA TO GET ANOTHER CRUISER

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(By wire)—The cruiser Aboukir is being paid off and will be thoroughly overhauled before being transferred to Canada next spring.

In the Commons, answering Mr. Craig, who asked what effect the dropping of the Canadian Navy by the present Ministry would have on the status and career of the officers lent to Canada, Winston Churchill said in the contingency referred to the officers on the active list who had been lent to Canada would return their service in the Canadian Navy as counting as though performed in the Imperial Navy.

STELLARTON BARRED FROM PRO. LEAGUE

TRURO, November 29.—The representatives of the interprovincial hockey league met here last night at an early hour this morning the meeting had not adjourned, and the schedule had not been drawn up.

It was decided that the league consists of two Halifax teams—Crusaders and Socials, New Glasgow and Moncton.

Stellarton applied for admission, but the representatives of the other clubs thought that it would not be advisable for New Glasgow and Stellarton to have two good teams, with such a limited number of players to compete in the league.

CANADIAN PORTS FROM THE BRITISH PREFERENCE

OTTAWA, November 28.—Hon. William Pugsley has given notice of a resolution, calling upon the government to issue a proclamation declaring that the British preferential tariff shall apply only to goods bought into Canada by ship direct to a Canadian port.

COMMUNICATION THROUGH PROVINCE AND WITH MAINLAND

The Northumberland left this port at 7.30 a. m. yesterday with passengers, freight and mail docking at Pictou at 11.00. She left on return at 2.30 p. m. with passengers, freight express and N. S. mail and arrived here at 5.45. She leaves this morning for Pictou at 7.30 a. m.

Yesterday the eastern express was on time, the Southern accommodation was 45 minutes late, the Western accommodation was on time, the Summerside accommodation was 25 minutes late, the Eastern accommodation was 50 minutes late and the Western express was 35 minutes late.

WHAT PAPER TO READ

Advertising in a good morning newspaper is the best possible advertising for a clothier, or tailor, the man who is going to buy clothes today, is pretty sure to read every ad about clothes, which is printed in the paper he reads on his way to business. That means his morning paper of course, and in most cases he will be influenced, in the purchase or order, by the ads he reads.

MAIL APPLICATION TODAY--DO NOT DELAY

THE FIRST BALLOT APPEARS SATURDAY

Questions About This Contest Are Coming In Fast—Is Yours Among Them? Contest Manager Will Be Pleased To Answer Promptly All Questions.

$1000 in Gold will be paid to the first person sending in the name of the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes in this contest. No condition attached to the offer. Just send in the name of your favorite and we will call upon her without suggesting your name.

Until further notice the contest department will be open from seven to eight o'clock in the evenings for the convenience of intending contestants, who are invited to call and receive full particulars from the Contest Manager.

When you awoke this morning, did you not feel that there was something that must be done today? If you did, you experienced just the right feeling.

You undoubtedly remembered that you wanted to enter THE GUARDIAN'S PIANO AND ORGAN OWNING CONTEST and that you must do it before night. If you still neglect to send your name to the Contest Manager today, you will awaken tomorrow morning with the same feeling of having neglected your duty.

REBELS LOSING NOW IN CHINA

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29.—(By wire)—The new Premier is increasing his grip on affairs and his victory at Nanking has greatly strengthened the hopes of the Imperialists.

CANADIAN APPLES HAVE IMPROVED

OTTAWA, Nov. 28.—According to a report of the Trade and Commerce Department, the fruit brokers and merchants in Liverpool and Manchester are loud in their praises of the improvement of grading Canadian apples. So far this season there is not in evidence the complaints of many years past, viz. shipping Canadian apples as No. 1 when they are really No. 2.

OFFICERS WON'T SUFFER

LONDON, Nov. 28.—In the House of Commons, Mr. Churchill answering a question as to what effect the dropping of the Canadian Navy by the present Ministry would have on the status of the careers of these officers lent to Canada, and as to whether their position and prospects of promotion had been protected, said that that contingency had been contemplated, and it had been decided that officers on the active list who had been lent would be credited with their service in the Dominion Navy as though they were in the Imperial Navy.

THREATEN TO TIE UP

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Seamen's and Firemen's Union threaten to tie up the Atlantic Transport Company on account of the discharge of several seamen from the steamship Minnehaha for refusing to obey orders. The Union officials say that they will not allow any of the vessels of the line to sail until the men are reinstated.

CONDENSED ADVERTISEMENTS

SAUNTSOME SAUSAGES made fresh every day. Saunders, New som & Co. 11-1342mpd

FURS, I pay highest prices for Mink, fox and muskrat, J. D. Jenkins, Charlottetown, 11-1841mpd

PARFIES, wishing to have manicuring, face massage, shampooing or scalp treatment, gloves cleaned, etc., would do well to call on Miss Lillian Collins, 26 Great George St., or phone 227-L. 11-24461.

AUCTIONS of apples. I will sell by auction, at the Winter Fruit show, in Kindergarten Hall, at 12.15 o'clock sharp on Thursday next a lot of choice apples in boxes and barrels. These apples are warranted by the Fruit Growers Association. A. Bousner, Auctioneer. 11-29421.

TOWLING, Burke's Alleys, under market, open lawful days ten to eleven. 8-25441

RUSSEL LOST FAMOUS CASE

THE PRINCESS PATRICIA SAILS

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(By wire)—The Princess Patricia of Connaught will sail for Canada on Dec. 1st on board the Empress of Ireland.

LIGHT-WEIGHT CHAMPION ILL

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 29.—(By wire)—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, was taken to the hospital today suffering from appendicitis and is not expected to live.

CHICAGO STARTS A WAR ON OSLERISM

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—"Down with Oslerism!" will be the slogan at a mass meeting on the west side Tuesday evening. This gathering will start a vigorous campaign by the Anti-Forty-Five-Year-Age Limit League recently incorporated in Illinois.

All matters pertaining to vote getting, districts, subscriptions, etc., will be explained in detail upon entering your name as a candidate. The principal point to remember at present is THAT YOU MUST START AT ONCE, TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS TO THE CONTEST MANAGER, GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTE TOWN.

See Districts, Rules and Conditions on first page.

MRS. O'SHAUNESSEY NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Frances O'Shaunessy, who shot her husband, "To save his soul" was today acquitted on a charge of murder by the Jury. After deliberating two hours the Jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." The defence was a combination of insanity and the "unwritten law."

GENERAL DIAZ WILL REMAIN IN EUROPE

PARIS, Nov. 23.—General Porfirio Diaz, the deposed President of Mexico, has returned to Paris. He contemplates spending the winter at Nice. The ex-President has no present intention of returning to Mexico, but plans to remain in Europe indefinitely. General Diaz told his friends that he is greatly distressed at the counter revolutions in Mexico by General Reyes and others. Those he said would only result in reducing the finances and harming the credit of Mexico, which more than anything else has need of permanent peace.

DR. LAWRENCE OF TRURO DEAD IN TORONTO

TORONTO, Nov. 28.—Dr. E. Lawrence formerly of Truro, N. S., and for many years a resident of Toronto, died today. He was 64 years of age, and a graduate of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons. He was Vice Consul for Venezuela.

SHUN DELAYS, THEY BREED REMORSE.

Lo something! Do it now! The work which lies Close to your hand this moment is the best— His choice for you—the choice that must be wise; Then do your duty, and forget the rest. —Edith Hickman Divall.

Against the Pinkertons. Court Says the Anxiety of Friends Was Justified.

MONTREAL, Nov. 29.—(By wire)—Judge Archer delivered judgment today in the famous action for a quarter of a million brought by David Russell against the Pinkerton Detective Agency.

The court decided for the defendant, stating that Russell's charges were not substantiated and expressing the opinion that Russell's friends were justified in displaying anxiety regarding his mental condition.

SIR PELLATT MADE AN A. D. C.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(By wire)—A court circular announces the appointment of Sir Henry Pellatt as Honorary A. D. C. to the Duke of Connaught.

HALIFAX R'WAY MAY BE BOUGHT

HALIFAX, Nov. 29.—(By wire)—There is an unconfirmed rumor that negotiations are in progress looking to the acquisition of the Halifax and Southwestern Railway by the Dominion government.

SUPREME COURT AT SUMMERSIDE

SUMMERSIDE, Nov. 29.—(Special by phone)—The case of Brooks vs Buchanan, was continued yesterday morning in the Supreme Court which is now in session.

After the witnesses had been examined and Mr. McQuarrie closed the defence for the plaintiff. After summing up the case His Honor gave a verdict for the defendant.

The King vs Charles R. Burke charged with intimidating witnesses last fall, which case should have come up last June, but in which the prisoner had forfeited his bail by leaving the Province was taken up. The jury was composed of the following:—Wm. McGregor, Foreman, John Lefurgey, Danie Silliphant, Archibald Bell, Harry Webster, Archibald Bell, William McKay, Isaac Harris, John Bowness, Howard Gay, James Johnston and Stephen Campbell.

The case occupied the attention of the court throughout the whole day. A. B. Warburton and A. C. Saunders are acting for the Crown while C. D. McCallum is acting for the prisoner. Court adjourned until this morning at ten o'clock.—S-

Charlottetown Guardian's Piano and Organ Voting Contest. APPLICATION BANK. I am a resident of Prince Edward Island and wish to enter the Guardian's Piano and Organ Voting Contest...

Charlottetown Guardian's Piano and Organ Voting Contest. NOMINATION BLANK. Miss I respectfully nominate Mrs. who is over the age of fourteen as an eligible candidate to enter the Guardian's Piano and Organ Voting Contest.

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia. Minard's Liniment Cures Dandruff. Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, Etc.