THE CAPITAL OF THE WEST

Latest from Summerside and Prince County

Miss Eudie Baker of Freetown, lately of Boston, has taken a position in the ladies' shoe department at Sinclair & Stewart's.

Tax cargo by the Northumberland yesterday morning consisted chiefly of five horses, one car oats, one car potatoes, and 50 barrels oysters.

Throw in 25 cents towards town improvements and attend the illustrated lecture in market hall April 30th. You will get more than your money's worth.

Our native land scenery, including a number of humorous pictures and described by Rev. T. F. Fullerton will make entertainment for anybody in Market Hall April 30.

The steamer Greetlands sailed yesterday afternoon about three o'clock for St. John's, Newfoundland, taking from this port 1200 bags oats and potatoes, and 22 head of cattle.

It is now just a matter of a day or two when there will be a rush for seats for the Clary Concert. If you want a good position procure your ticket at once from Mr. Whitney. Plan at Hall opened May 1st.

Anyone wishing a choice of seats for the illustrated lecture in Market Hall next Thursday may have them by purchasing their tickets in advance at Goullie's drug store, where plan of Hall may be found. All tickets are same price but those who call early will get the advantage of reserve seats. There will be no plan of hall at the door.

There has been great demand for exchange tickets for Mary Louise Clary concert. These tickets went on sale yesterday and entitle holders of them to select their seats from plan at Goullie's drug store at 9 a.m. May 1st. No one can procure a seat on Friday who does not hold exchange tickets. If you have not got them yet, see Mr. Whitney at once, and get your name on his list, so as to procure a preference of seats. Don't delay as tickets are selling rapidly.
