—WELL KNOWN RESIDENT DEAD.—The death took place at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening of Mr. Stanislaus M. Arsenault at the age of 67. Deceased had been in failing health for several years, and his demise was not unexpected. He leaves to mourn a large family of sons and daughters. The late Mr. Arsenault was a good Christian in the true sense of the word. Always of an irreproachable disposition, he was esteemed by all. During his illness he was often visited by his pastor who ministered to his spiritual needs. And the morning before his death he again expressed a wish to be strengthened again in the holy sacraments of his church, so that at the close of the day which he had begun by receiving the Bread of Life, his soul took its flight to God. Reports of his funeral will appear later. M
