WANTED TEACHER for St. Mary's Road School, James Hughes Secretary. 1617-12-31-31.

FROM 10 TO 50 PER CENT REDUCTION on some clearing lines for January. Our lists are in the mail. Get yours? T. G. Ives, Limited, Montague. 1629-1-3-61.

SPORT MEETING—The Montague Amateur Athletic Association held their annual meeting in their club rooms to map out suitable program for the coming season. It was gratifying indeed to see so many of the old puck-chasers present taking such a keen interest in the work. After going over the names of those who are liable to make the senior team this winter it is quite evident that the hockey fans of Montague are going to be treated with lots of excitement before the season closes.

GEORGETOWN NEWS—A bumper house greeted the performance of "Stick Together" at the Night School of Georgetown on the evening of Monday last, when they presented a musical concert in the Town Hall. All the theatre goers of the town were on hand, together with a large number of visitors from the outlying districts. A splendid programme consisting of step dances; Choruses; Dialogues; Solos; Instrumental Music, etc. was successfully carried out, and reflects much credit on Mr. J. A. B. McConnell, the teacher in charge, and Mr. Samuel Yorston who handled the musical end of the programme. A goodly sum of money was realized and will be used by the boys to further athletics in the school. Mr. E. J. H. Morrissey capably acted as chairman. After the programme was finished the remainder of the evening was enjoyably spent in dancing, consisting of lances, waltzes, one-steps, fox-trots etc. for which the Local High Hat Orchestra furnished splendid music. Prior to the conclusion of the programme Mr. McConnell briefly addressed the audience, expressing on behalf of the boys of the High School his gratitude for the splendid attendance. The following programme, rendered by local talent, was capably carried out and practically every number received one or more encores. Opening Chorus, Patriotic Medley; Coon Recitation, Rastus, by Samuel Yorston; Step Dancing by Agnes Batchelder; Dialogue, Love and Doughnuts; Popular Song by Samuel Yorston; Harmonica Duet by Clarence, David, and Albert Rafuse; Charleston, Dancing by E. Fairchild and W. Walker; Violin Solo, by Ernest Fairchild; Latest steps by Huelock Stewart and John Yorston; Great Mystery Championship bout, 3 rounds; Male Quartette, H. A. Stewart, A. Rafuse and the Batchelder Brothers; Reading by Malcolm Marshall; Step Dance by Clarence David; Specialty, by Sh. Yorston, E. Fairchild, M. Batchelder and W. Walker; National Anthem.

BORDEN DRAMATIC CLUB present 3-act comedy drama in Seven Mile Bay Hall, Monday, Jan. 2nd. If not fine on Wednesday 4th. Ukulele, accordion, violin and piano music. 1623-12-31-21.

WESTERN OFFICE—The Western Office of the Guardian is located in the McNeill Building, Water St., Summerside, where subscriptions and advertising will be received. The Guardian may be purchased daily at the Western Office in the McNeill Building or at the McDonald News Store.

POULTRY NOTICE—Our Poultry Killing Plant at Kensington will continue in operation during January, and we would urge our patrons to thoroughly fatten their birds before disposing of them, as the price for good stock will probably continue firm. J. B. Millman. 1534-12-26-101.

AUGUSTINE COVE NOTES

(By "Nala")
Mr. and Mrs. Percy Howatt of Elliot, spent the Christmas holidays visiting in Augustine Cove, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McFarlane. The latter mentioned is Mrs. Howatt's sister.

Messrs. Vernon Webster and Brenton Clarke were visitors to Victoria Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bell and on Deane, were visitors to Augustine Cove Monday, the guest of Mrs. J. E. Howatt.

Our old friend "stork" made another appearance again in Augustine Cove, and left a "Bonny Baby Boy" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Life Clark's. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Howatt were visitors to Bedouque, the guests of Mrs. Howatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wright.

The storm which started Saturday evening did fine progress, laying a blanket of clear white snow over all the earth. Some were sighing that Christmas was not going to fortell any snow. But really no one can now complain, for there is snow to the hearts content. The roads Monday were very much blocked with snow. But some of our good roadmen soon made rade possible. A great part of the roads had to be broken in the fields which fortells that there has been a lot of snow fallen.

On Dec. 26th, "friend Stork," made another visit to the adjoining vicinity of Tryon and left Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howatt the proud parents of a "Bonnie Wee Lassie." Congratulations.

The annual Christmas tree and concert of Augustine Cove School was held in the School Friday evening. The tree was heavily laden with gifts for young and old. Santa arrived later in the evening, after the programme, which was enjoyed by all, and relieved the tree of its gifts and then departed on farther to another region to do his honor. After singing the national anthem, which brought the enjoyable evening to a close, all disappeared to their homes, after spending a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillard, Francis and charming little son Leith, left Monday morning to visit for a few days with relatives and friends in Craupaud and surrounding vicinities.

Mr. Henry Smith and son Austin

FORT AUGUSTUS SCHOOL

The closing exercises of Fort Augustus School were held in the schoolroom on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 22. Upwards of thirty parents and visitors were present, which gives evidence of the keen interest, the people of this district take in the education of their children. The room was tastefully decorated for the occasion and presented on the whole a very Christmas appearance. The pupils were thoroughly examined in the various branches by Rev. D. P. Croken, assisted by their teacher, Miss Hannah McIsaac and Miss Emily Driscoll, teacher at Coleman, and by their prompt answers testified to the careful instruction they have received during the past term. At the close of the examination a well rendered program was very capably carried out by the pupils. Santa Claus then in his usual jovial manner made his appearance and after greeting everyone present, presented the pupils with various gifts from the heavily-laden Christmas tree, which occupied one corner of the room. The visitors were liberally treated to fruit and candy. The teacher was then presented with a beautiful gift by the pupils. The presentation was made by Florence Croken, while Agnes Lawlor read a well-worded address. The teacher, though taken entirely by surprise, responded in a few well-chosen words, and thanked the pupils for their kindness.

Fort Augustus school, feel that we cannot permit this Christmas to pass, without giving expression in some tangible way to our feelings of good-will towards you for your extreme kindness and the great interest you have taken in us, our studies and our own welfare during the past two years. You have been our diligent, faithful and very patient teacher. By your pleasant manner and kind disposition, you have endeared us all to you, not only for the time being but for all time to come. You have made our studies interesting and plain, that it was and is a very great pleasure to attend school and to study under your direction and guidance. We all know quite well that it is very difficult for any teacher to please everybody, but in this you, for one, have excelled. We also know that you have had a great deal to bear with from us, but we will try and do better in the future, and hope that you may see your way clear to remain our teacher for a long time to come. Please accept this accompanying gift as a small token of our regard for you. Wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We remain, as ever,
Your Devoted Pupils,

RINGWOOD WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

Ringwood Women's Institute met for their annual meeting at the home of the President, Mrs. Angus McEachern, on Nov. 30th. The president occupied the chair. Meeting opened by singing Institute Ode. Eight members and eight visitors were present. Roll call responded to by each member paying 10c. The secretary read the minutes of last meeting, also minutes of last annual meeting, which were approved as follows:

Then followed the financial statement, which was very encouraging, much, now and then. Don't suffer for it. Take having surpassed preceding year. The sum of $94.35 was raised by means of a social and supper, also collections. Proceeds were mostly used for school purposes, namely laying of hardwood floor in school, supplying cocoa and sugar for the school lunch. Towels, soap, etc., were also supplied.

Two books of tickets were sold for sister Institutes. The officers of last year were all re-elected. It was decided to have roll call responded to by each member paying ten cents as usual. A Christmas gift is to be given—the children. Radio and gramophone selections furnished the evening's entertainment. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, interspersed by social chat. Meeting closed in due form to meet again at the home of Mrs. James Smith, on Dec. 29th.

President's Report.
At this, my second annual meeting, since being president of this Institute, will try and give a short review of the work of our club during the past year. We held in all 11 meetings with an average monthly attendance of 8 members, the total membership at present being 12. We had the pleasure of welcoming one new member. I am sorry, owing to ill-health, at being absent from some of the meetings. A detailed account of the expenditure will appear in the secretary-treasurer's report.

Let us strive for greater membership during the coming year. There is much for us to do, many avenues of work open up before us. But above all we must be loyal to our club, so as a band of earnest women we may continue our good work for the betterment of school and community conditions.
We had the pleasure of entertaining some members of St. Catherine's Institute. Let us then renew our efforts and continue the good work that has so well been started.
Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. A. McEachern.
